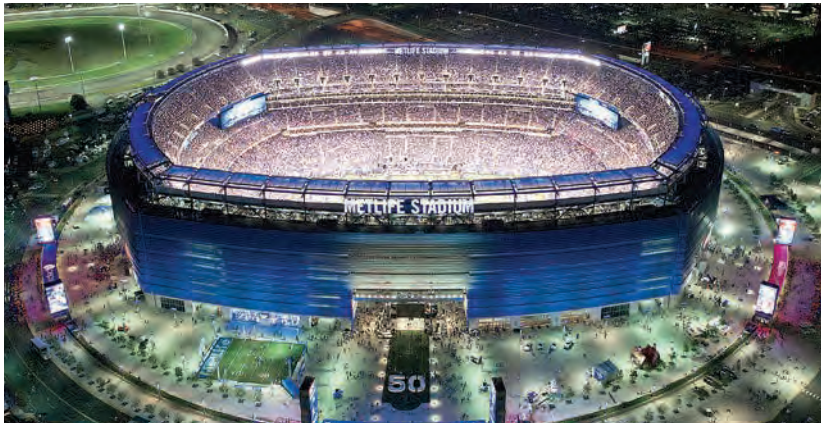
METLIFE STADIUM - SITE OF SUPER BOWL XLVIII



WILLIAM HAUSER

The nation's premier sporting event is coming to its greatest metropolitan area – and the Giants' extraordinary home stadium.

Super Bowl XLVIII will be played in MetLife Stadium on Feb. 2, 2014. The glittering 82,500-seat stadium where the Giants and Jets play their home games this season will host the first Super Bowl played in a cold-weather, outdoor venue.

On May 25, 2010, NFL owners awarded the game to MetLife Stadium after the Giants and Jets co-sponsored a formal bid to the league – officially titled "Make Some History"- to bring the Super Bowl to the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area for the first time. The region was selected over competing bids from South Florida and Tampa to host the 2014 Super Bowl.

"I think this is a unique opportunity to play the biggest game in the world on the biggest stage in the world," Giants president John Mara said. "We're very excited about it. It's going to be great for New York, great for New Jersey and certainly great for the National Football League."

Giants treasurer Jonathan Tisch was co-chairman of the bid with Jets owner Woody Johnson.

The owners met that spring day in a hotel just outside Dallas. They voted to make history on their fourth ballot, where a majority (17 of 32 votes) was required for victory. On each of the first three ballots, a 75 percent majority is needed. On the second ballot the lowest vote-getter, South Florida, was eliminated. Neither New York/New Jersey nor Tampa received 75 percent of the votes on the third go-round. But on the fourth vote, The Giants/Jets bid received the necessary votes to bring America's greatest game to the nation's No. 1 region.

After the votes from the final ballot were counted, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced that "Super Bowl XLVIII will be played in New York/New Jersey." Goodell called it, "a historic moment for the league,"

"Not only did we feel the support in that room, but we felt this is going to be great for the NFL, it's going to be great for the fans of the Giants, the Jets and the other 30 teams," Steve Tisch said. "And I think it's absolutely fantastic for everybody that loves to watch NFL football around the world."

Although the final vote total wasn't announced, many owners had said after the balloting that they strongly supported the Giants/Jets bid to bring the Super Bowl to the New York area.

Both Mara and Tisch spoke of their fathers, the late and much-loved Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, and what they would have thought of the Super Bowl coming to the New York metropolitan area. The former owners passed way three weeks apart in 2005.

"I think he probably would have thought that we've come a long way since the Polo Grounds in 1925 to get to where we are today," Mara said. "My father used to tell stories of walking into school with pockets full of tickets to hand out, just to get bodies in the building. The league and the sport have come a long way."

"I think he would have been very emotional," Tisch said. "He loved the Giants, he loved the partnership he had with Wellington and the Mara family. And to get the support of the other 30 owners that we got today is an amazing experience. … My father would have been very emotional and very proud and very, very happy to have heard this announcement."

Although the Jets and Giants compete in many ways – for sponsors, fans, players and on the field – the owners emphasized that the two franchises worked well together to first build the new $1.7 billion stadium and then to conceive and endorse the bid that will enable it to host the Super Bowl.

"I think what we did initially when we decided five years ago when we decided five years ago to become partners in the stadium endeavor, we behaved like partners," Tisch said. "When you behave like partners, functional partnerships evolve. We also became partners when we decided to make the bid for the Super Bowl in 2014. And we approached it as partners, not as adversaries, not teams with problems with each other. Our histories are different (and) our legacies are different. But we had a common goal to build a beautiful stadium, which we achieved, and a common goal to get the Super Bowl in New York in 2014, which we achieved."

Mara said, "I give a lot of the credit to Woody. Since we entered into this partnership three or four years ago, he has been pushing this Super Bowl idea on me almost non-stop. We were a little reluctant at first, but he finally won us over. And I think it's a testament to the great partnership that we do have that we were successful."

HOME OF THE GIANTS
METLIFE STADIUM

In 2010, the Giants moved into a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium stood for more than three decades. MetLife Stadium is the nation's finest football stadium. It seats 82,500 fans and is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums.

MetLife Stadium took more than 4 million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features more than 9,000 club seats, 221 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The Giants' home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30 feet by 118 feet high-definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

On Feb. 2, 2014, MetLife Stadium will host a historic event. It will be the site of Super Bowl XLVIII, the first Super Bowl to be played outdoors at a cold weather venue.

In its inaugural 2010 season, the Giants' home was known simply as New Meadowlands Stadium. On Aug. 23, 2011 the Giants, Jets and MetLife announced the signing of a 25-year agreement to name the teams' home venue MetLife Stadium.

"Our partnership with the Giants and Jets goes back to 2008 when we became the first cornerstone sponsor here at the stadium," said Steven A. Kandarian, president and chief executive officer of MetLife. "This expanded partnership provides significant benefits for both sides. MetLife secures the naming rights to a world class venue that will extend the reach of our brand to levels unmatched in the industry. And the Jets and Giants gain a sponsor with a history of financial strength and a brand as strong and storied as their own. MetLife Stadium is clearly one of the world's premier sports marketing facilities."

The NFL's premier venue opened for business in 2010. In addition to being the only stadium that is home to two NFL teams and Super Bowl XLVIII, it hosts dozens of non-NFL events each year including concerts, NCAA football and lacrosse games and international soccer matches.

The entire Meadowlands Sports Complex has been renamed The MetLife Sports Complex.

"It is truly an honor for our team to be affiliated with such a wonderful partner," said John Mara, president and chief executive officer of the Giants. "I know how much MetLife means to so many in New York and New Jersey, as an employer, as a trusted provider of financial services, and as a great corporate citizen. The company's huge presence and influence in our area makes it a natural fit for this stadium and the strength, stability and quality of MetLife matches perfectly with the characteristics that the Giants try to achieve in all aspects of our aspirations. MetLife is a true leader in it's industry and brings a powerful, well-known brand that reflects very well on our stadium and what we're trying to accomplish here. For the Giants in particular, MetLife's reputation and long history are very appealing qualities that resonate with us on a very basic level. We are both organizations that value heritage and legacy."

"MetLife Stadium immediately joins the ranks of the most prestigious, high-profile sports-branded venues in the world, and that's the way it should be," said Steve Tisch, the Giants' chairman and executive vice president. "If you look at MetLife and the marketing and branding assets they have, you can understand how proud we feel that they have selected our stadium as the one they want their name on. Clearly MetLife realizes what a unique situation we have: two NFL home teams and twice as many games over the course of the season. And of course, we are very proud that MetLife has recognized just what a fantastic, one-of-a-kind facility this stadium is. Having watched this stadium rise and having enjoyed playing in it last season, the Giants are delighted that we have a naming partner that understands and appreciates the great utility and design excellence of this venue."

JOHN K. MARA

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 23rd season with the Giants. The franchise's President and Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara, in 2005. John Mara is the oldest of Wellington Mara's 11 children. He joined the Giants in 1991 as General Counsel and later added the title of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

With team Chairman Steve Tisch, Mara was at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for MetLife Stadium, where the Giants began playing their home games in 2010 after 34 seasons in Giants Stadium. In addition, Mara, Steve Tisch and Jonathan Tisch, as well as Jets owner Woody Johnson, headlined the bid committee that helped convince the NFL owners to award Super Bowl XLVIII to the new stadium. The game, the first Super Bowl to be held in a cold-weather outdoor venue, will be played on Feb. 2, 2014.

Mara is the chairman of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee and he played an important role in negotiating a new collective bargaining agreement with the NFLPA. He also has served for 13 years on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Health and Safety Committee and the Committee on Workplace Diversity.

Mara has been affiliated with the Giants his entire life. The franchise was founded in 1925 by his grandfather, Tim Mara. Wellington Mara was one of the most influential, respected and beloved executives in NFL history. Since John Mara joined the organization in an official capacity, the Giants have reached the playoffs nine times, won five NFC East titles and played in three Super Bowls, winning two.

Born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, Mara grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his law degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y. and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, have five children and five grandchildren. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

STEVE TISCH

CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch, Chairman and Executive Vice President of the New York Giants and partner at Escape Artists Productions, is the only person with both an Academy Award and a Super Bowl ring. Steve has won two Super Bowl rings as the Chairman of the Giants, who defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI.

Steve joined the Giants organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005, but has been involved with the team since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. After his father passed away Steve assumed the title of Chairman. Steve worked closely with John Mara on the planning and construction of MetLife Stadium, which was completed in the spring of 2010. Steve cites his father's passion for the Giants as a driving force in his efforts to complete the project.

In May 2010, Steve joined his brother Jonathan (the Giants' treasurer), John Mara and Jets owner Woody Johnson in the teams' successful bid to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to MetLife Stadium in February 2014. It will be the first Super Bowl played in an open-air stadium in a cold weather region. The Giants' success could open the door for future cold weather teams to be awarded Super Bowl hosting bids by the NFL.

Steve and Mara were named Best Owners in Forbes Magazine's 2011 Best Owners in the National Football League for their success both on and off the field.

Outside of the Giants, Steve is a partner at Escape Artists Productions, an independently financed film production company based at Sony Pictures Entertainment. Throughout his career Steve has worked on films including Forrest Gump, The Pursuit of Happyness, The Taking of Pelham 123, Risky Business and Homeward Bound. Steve's next project, The Equalizer starring Denzel Washington, was scheduled to start production in June of 2013.

Steve has long been a leader in the philanthropic sector. He has generously contributed his time and resources to a variety of organizations including The Epilepsy Foundation, Women's Cancer Research Foundation and The Simon Wiesenthal Center.

Steve is a member of the Board of Advisors at the Tisch School of the Arts at New York University and is on the Board of Trustees for The Geffen Theatre in Los Angeles, The Sundance Institute, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art and The Preston Robert Tisch Brain Cancer Center at Duke University.

When asked whether he would rather have his Academy Award for Forrest Gump or one of his Super Bowl rings, Steve has maintained that he would give back the Oscar before either of the Giants' titles.

Steve has residences in New York and Los Angeles.

CHRIS MARA

SR. VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003. He was promoted to Senior Vice President of Player Personnel in 2011.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years was a member of the club's player personnel department. Mara was a scout during the franchise's first two Super Bowl Championship seasons in 1986 and 1990.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first-place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children- Daniel, Kate, Rooney and Conor – and three grandchildren, Judith Kailee, Wellington Rooney and Ann MacKenna (Daniel's children).

JONATHAN M. TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch is Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the U.S., and is also Chairman of its subsidiary, Loews Hotels.

During his tenure as CEO of Loews Hotels, Tisch engineered the company's expansion and emergence as a leading luxury hotel brand by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. Tisch initiated the Loews Hotels Good Neighbor Policy over 20 years ago, the first of its kind in the hospitality industry. Today, the Good Neighbor program underscores his enduring commitment to good corporate citizenship, social responsibility, and the health of our environment and communities. The Loews Good Neighbor Policy is a recipient of the U.S. President's Service Award.

Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and has devoted a lifetime to active citizenship—an idea that uses the power of partnerships and grassroots participation to solve seemingly intractable problems.

The author of three bestselling books, Tisch has written extensively about his leadership philosophy, the customer experience and civic engagement. They are The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships; Chocolates on the Pillow Aren't Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience; and Citizen You: Doing Your Part to Change the World.

Tisch is also the host of the Emmy-nominated television series, Beyond the Boardroom with Jonathan Tisch, where he speaks with some of America's preeminent CEOs and business luminaries in one-on-one interviews. Viewers discover that business is about more than just numbers, rather, it's the successful combination of people, hard work, guts and imagination.

Widely recognized as a passionate advocate on behalf of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry, Tisch works tirelessly to educate elected officials and the public at large about the industry's significant economic, social, and diplomatic contributions. He founded and served as Chairman of the Travel Business Roundtable until 2008, and now serves as Chairman Emeritus of its successor organization, the United States Travel Association, the national non-profit association representing all segments of the travel industry.

He is committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where for nearly six years he served as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism marketing agency and convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of September 11th, Tisch served as Chairman of New York Rising, a task force committed to reviving tourism and the economy in New York City. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders" and was named "CEO of the Year" by the Executive Council of New York in 2006.

Tisch also served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service. He is also on the Board of the Tribeca Film Institute. Tisch is a co-owner and a member of the Board of Directors of the New York Football Giants and the team's Treasurer.

His passion for the metropolitan area and love of football prompted Tisch to join Jets owner Woody Johnson as co-chairs of the bid committee established to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to the region. The bid was summarized by the tagline "Make Some History." In an unprecedented decision by NFL team owners, the New York/New Jersey region was awarded the 2014 Super Bowl. The game will be played at MetLife Stadium, the first open-air stadium in a cold-weather region to host a Super Bowl. Tisch and Johnson are co-chairs of the Host Committee.

JERRY REESE

SR. VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Jerry Reese is in his seventh season as the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager. Reese is one of the most successful general managers in the NFL. His first six seasons as head of the franchise's football operations included victories in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI, a 58-38 regular season record and an 8-1 postseason mark. During his tenure the Giants have won two NFC East championships, earned three postseason berths and have finished .500 or better in every season.

Reese was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 16, 2007. He succeeded Ernie Accorsi, who had held the positions for nine years before retiring. Reese has been a member of the Giants organization since 1994. Prior to becoming the G.M., he spent four seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Reese coordinated the Giants' college scouting, was in charge of the team's draft preparation and ran the draft room as the players were selected. When Accorsi retired, the team's ownership selected Reese as the team's third general manager since 1979, when the late George Young assumed the position. Young held the position until 1997, when Accorsi took over. Accorsi, who had helped convince Reese to leave college scouting and join the pro personnel department of the Giants, promoted him and championed his cause.

The selection of Reese was historic, as he was the third African-American general manager in NFL history, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome and Houston's Rick Smith. It was particularly poignant for Reese to learn of his appointment on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

"I thought about that a lot and it was absolutely perfect timing for this to happen," Reese said. "I don't mean to sound cliché, but I really feel it's my time to carry the torch. There are many people who went before me who really suffered through this process, and now it's my time. I'm going to be successful – I have to be successful on a lot of levels."

And he has been. In 2012 the Giants finished 9-7, the same record they had the previous season, when they won the Super Bowl. It was the second time in five opportunities that the Giants followed a Super Bowl appearance with a winning record (they also did it in 2008); Reese was the general manager each time. One of the highlights of the season was the development of draft class brought in by Reese and his staff, notably running back David Wilson, wide receiver Rueben Randle and cornerback Jayron Hosley. Victor Cruz, originally signed as an undrafted free agent in 2010, had his second big season in a row, with 86 catches for 1,092 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Reese and the Giants enjoyed great success in 2011. In the transaction frenzy that followed the end of the lockout, Reese added or re-signed several players who became stalwarts on the Super Bowl champions, including center David Baas, punter Steve Weatherford, running back Ahmad Bradshaw, linebacker Mathias Kiwanuka, offensive lineman Kevin Boothe, safety Deon Grant, defensive lineman Dave Tollefson and defensive tackle Rocky Bernard. Cruz emerged from obscurity to set a franchise record with 1,536 receiving yards on 82 catches. He also scored a touchdown in the victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI. The Giants added an impressive rookie class that included cornerback Prince Amukamara, the team's top draft choice, fullback Henry Hynoski and linebackers Jacquian Williams, Spencer Paysinger and Mark Herzlich.

Reese helped put the Giants on the road to a championship soon after becoming general manager in 2007. That year, he re-signed center Shaun O'Hara, which kept an outstanding offensive line intact, and added linebacker Kawika Mitchell via free agency and running back Reuben Droughns and kicker Lawrence Tynes in trades. He drafted eight players – Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Jay Alford, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Adam Koets, Michael Johnson and Ahmad Bradshaw – who all played during the postseason. During the season, the Giants added important players like fullback Madison Hedgecock and wide receiver/kickoff returner Domenik Hixon.

In addition to helping the Giants win a championship as rookies, many of those players make significant contributions in later years. Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions in 2009. Bradshaw led the Giants in rushing in three consecutive seasons (2010-2012) and twice ran for more than 1,000 yards. DeOssie is a two-time Pro Bowl long snapper who has never missed a game in his career.

In 2008, Reese's ability to acquire important players helped the Giants win the NFC East title with a 12-4 record. When Tynes was injured in the preseason, Reese signed 21-year veteran John Carney, whose 143 points were then the second-most in Giants history. The Giants also drafted Kenny Phillips, Terrell Thomas and Mario Manningham, all of whom made significant contributions to successful teams. Thomas led the Giants in tackles and interceptions in both 2009 and 2010 before missing the 2011 and 2012 seasons with a knee injury.

The 2009 draft class was headlined by wide receiver Hakeem Nicks. As a rookie, Nicks caught 47 passes for 790 yards, both the third-highest total among rookies in Giants history – despite missing two games. Nicks' 790 yards tied for first among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin. In 2010, Nicks emerged with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns in only 13 games. The following season, Nicks had 1,192 receiving yards to join Cruz as the only pair of Giants in history with at least 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. Will Beatty, chosen on the second round in 2009, is the team's starting left tackle, a role he is expected to fill for many seasons. That year, Reese also added veterans Michael Boley, Chris Canty and Bernard on defense. All three defenders were critical players in the 2011 title season.

Reese continued to acquire key players in 2010. He shored up a position where the Giants were short-staffed by importing safeties Antrel Rolle and Grant. Those two safeties teamed with Phillips to give the Giants much-improved play at that vital position. Rolle was selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

The 2010 first-round draft choice was defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul, whose 4.5 sacks were the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games. In 2011, Pierre-Paul was one of the very best defensive players in the NFL. His 16.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total in Giants history. JPP joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 sacks in a season. Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. He was twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December – when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month. In 2012, JPP was selected to play in his second Pro Bowl, this time as a starter.

While serving as the Giants' Director of Player Personnel, Reese oversaw all aspects of the team's college scouting. During his tenure as personnel director, the Giants drafted Eli Manning, Osi Umenyiora, David Diehl, David Tyree, Chris Snee, Gibril Wilson, Justin Tuck, Brandon Jacobs, Mathias Kiwanuka, Corey Webster and Barry Cofield, all of whom played big roles in the 2007 championship season and beyond.

Reese originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999, he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. In that position, he scouted the Giants' upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players. Reese was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese led the team with seven interceptions in 1982 and was UT-Martin's leading tackler in 1984 with 99. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to receivers coach and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

In 2008, Reese was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and earned his master's degree in education administration and supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

Reese, a native of Tiptonville, Tenn. is married to the former Gwen Moore. They have two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II.

TOM COUGHLIN
HEAD COACH

Tom Coughlin is one of the finest, most successful and most admired coaches in NFL history.

His signature achievements are the Giants' victories against the New England Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. Coughlin's 2-0 record in Super Bowls makes him the 13th head coach to win multiple Super Bowls and is one of 18 coaches with a perfect Super Bowl record.

In 17 seasons as a NFL head coach, Coughlin is 151-121 (.555) in the regular season and 12-7 (.632) in the postseason for an overall record of 163-128 (.560). The 151 regular season victories tie him with former Giants coach and Hall of Famer Steve Owen for 16th place on the NFL's career list. Coughlin's 163 total victories place him 16th on that list, five wins behind former Minnesota coach and Hall of Famer Bud Grant. Coughlin has led the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Giants to five division titles and nine playoff berths.

Coughlin is also one of the very best coaches in the Giants' 89-year history. The 2013 season is Coughlin's 10th with the Giants. He is just the second man in Giants history to coach the team for at least 10 consecutive seasons. Only Owen, who reigned for 24 seasons from 1930-53, led the team for a longer time period.

With Andy Reid's departure from Philadelphia, Coughlin is the longest-tenured coach in the NFC East. Coughlin has been the Giants' coach since 2004. Dallas' Jason Garrett and Washington's Mike Shanahan joined their teams in 2010 and Chip Kelly is a newcomer with the Eagles.

Coughlin has the NFL's third-longest head coaching tenure with one team, behind New England's Bill Belichick (who is in his 14th season with the team) and Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (in his 11th season).

Last year, Coughlin passed Hall of Famer Bill Parcells (77 regular-season victories) and moved into second place on the Giants' career coaching list. He finished the season with 83 victories and trails only Owen, who won a record 151 games as the Giants' head coach.

Coughlin's eight Giants postseason victories tie him with Parcells for the franchise record. Coughlin has led the Giants to two NFC East titles and five playoff berths in nine years.

The Giants finished the 2012 season with a 9-7 record. It was their eighth consecutive non-losing season, the team's longest streak since finishing .500 or better in 10 straight years from 1954-63. The Giants finished with a winning record for the third consecutive season, the first time they've done that since 1988-90 (when they were 10-6, 12-4, 13-3).

Last season, the Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. Four of them have occurred since Coughlin became head coach in 2004: 2012 (429 points), 2008 (427), 2005 (422) and 2009 (402).

The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. In their last three home games – victories over Green Bay, New Orleans and Philadelphia – the Giants scored 38, 52 and 42 points.

In 2011, the Giants finished 9-7 and won the NFC East championship before winning four postseason games, including their second Super Bowl in five seasons. Along the way, Coughlin reached a number of impressive coaching milestones. He increased his number of career postseason victories to 12, tying him with former Pittsburgh Coach Bill Cowher for the seventh-highest total in NFL history:

COACHES' POSTSEASON VICTORIES:
20: Tom Landry
19: Don Shula
18: Bill Belichick
17: Joe Gibbs
16: Chuck Noll
13: Mike Holmgren
12: Tom Coughlin, Bill Cowher

Coughlin and Belichick are the only two active coaches on the list.

The 2011 Giants, who won Super Bowl XLVI, emulated the 2007 championship team (which won 3 games awya from home) by winning two road postseason games, the NFC Divisional Playoff in Green Bay and the conference championship game in San Francisco. Coughlin has nine postseason victories away from home - seven on the road and two neutral site Super Bowls. Seven of those nine victories were with the Giants in 2007 and 2011. The Giants have won seven consecutive postseason games away from home (five on the road, two neutral sites). Both streaks – five consecutive on the road, seven in a row away from home – are NFL postseason records. Coughlin's seven career road playoff victories tie Hall of Famer Tom Landry for the most in NFL history. Coughlin is 7-4 on the road in the playoffs (5-1 with the Giants). Landry was 7-7.

Coughlin is 7-3 in postseason games against teams he faced in the regular season, including victories in 2011 over Green Bay, San Francisco and New England.

Coughlin was 65 years, 158 days old when Super Bowl XLVI was played on Feb. 5, 2012, making him the oldest coach to win a Super Bowl and the second-oldest to guide his team to the title game. Buffalo's Marv Levy was 68 years old when he coached the last of his four Super Bowls in January 1993. Coughlin is also the fourth-oldest coach to win a Super Bowl as a result of his team's Super Bowl XLII victory.

OLDEST HEAD COACHES TO WIN A SUPER BOWL:

Name	Team	Super Bowl	Years	Days
Tom Coughlin	Giants	XLVI	65	158
Dick Vermeil	St. Louis	XXXIV	63	92
Weeb Ewbank	Jets	III	61	25
Tom Coughlin	Giants	XLII	61	156

In 2011, Coughlin improved to 2-2 in conference championship games, including 2-0 with the Giants.

The 2011 Giants gained a franchise-record 6,161 yards. The former mark of 6,085 was set in 2010. Those are the only two 6,000-yard seasons in Giants history.

The Giants shattered their franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. The former mark of 4,019 was set in 2009. Those are the only two 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. In 2011, the Giants also set a team record with 359 pass completions and had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the first time in their history.

In 2011, the Giants won five regular-season games in which they trailed in the fourth quarter, tying the franchise record they set in 2002. They tied Denver and Cincinnati for the NFL's second-highest total. Arizona led the league with six.

Coughlin first ascended to the pinnacle of his profession in the 2007 season, when he led the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XLII. The Giants, heavy underdogs entering the game, scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to defeat the previously-undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14. In 2011, the Giants won their fourth Lombardi Trophy, and second under Coughlin, with an unexpected late-season run. A loss to the Washington Redskins on Dec. 18 left the Giants with a 7-7 record. It was their last defeat of the season. Six days later, the Giants defeated the Jets, 29-14. On the final night of the season they crushed Dallas, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title, their eighth division championship since the 1970 merger. The Giants then defeated Atlanta, Green Bay and San Francisco to advance to Super Bowl XLVI, where they found a familiar foe in New England, a team they had defeated three months earlier. This time, the Giants scored with 57 seconds remaining and held off a late Patriots charge to win, 21-17.

Coughlin's 151 regular-season victories place third among current NFL head coaches, behind Belichick (187) and Shanahan (167). Coughlin is the only one of those coaches to have coached an expansion team. With 163 total victories, Coughlin is third among active coaches, behind Belichick (205) and Shanahan (175).

Coughlin is one of seven active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Shanahan, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin, New Orleans' Sean Payton, Green Bay's Mike McCarthy and Baltimore's John Harbaugh. Coughlin, Belichick and Payton are former Giants assistant coaches.

The two championship seasons, division titles, postseason berths, and streak of eight seasons at .500 or better are successes in a Giants revival that began when Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 6, 2004. The Giants won only four games in the season prior to his arrival. A longtime successful head coach on the collegiate level and in the NFL, Coughlin was the wide receivers coach of the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990. When he returned to the team as head coach, Coughlin quickly put the team back on a path that would ultimately lead to two more Super Bowl victories.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories and the NFC East title in Coughlin's first two seasons with the team. In 2006, they went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. The following season, the Giants were 10-6 in the regular season and again reached postseason play as a Wild Card, which served as a springboard to the team's Super Bowl victory. In 2008, they were again one of the NFL's very best teams at 12-4 and reached the playoffs for the first time following a Super Bowl appearance. Two years later, the Giants were only the sixth double-digit victory team to fall short of the postseason since the NFL's realignment in 2002. In 2011, they had one less regular season victory, a fact long forgotten when Coughlin held the Lombardi Trophy on the podium in the center of Lucas Oil Field on Feb. 5.

Coughlin twice led the Jacksonville Jaguars to the AFC Championship Game prior to leading the Giants to victories in two NFC Championship Games. He is one of just six coaches to lead teams to a championship game in each conference since the 1970 merger. The others are Parcells and Dan Reeves (both former Giants coaches), as well as Chuck Knox, Jon Gruden and Tony Dungy.

The 2011 Giants were unique Super Bowl champions. They were the first team to win the title after a) losing seven games in the regular season; b) losing four consecutive games in the regular season; c) finishing with a negative scoring differential (394-400) in the regular season, and d) finishing last in the NFL in rushing in the regular season. They did so thanks to the resilience, toughness and tenacity that has been the hallmarks of Coughlin-coached teams. In their four postseason victories, the Giants defeated 10-6 Atlanta, 15-1 Green Bay, 13-3 San Francisco and 13-3 New England to become the first team to beat four teams in the playoffs with better regular season records. The Giants are the first team to twice win four games in a single postseason (doing it in 2007 and 2011).

Coughlin's 2007 team also set several milestone achievements on their way to the NFL championship. The Giants became the fifth Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, the second in three years (the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL) and the first from the NFC (the Green Bay Packers joined the list in 2010). They were the second team to win the Super Bowl after winning three postseason games on the road to get there (again joining the 2005 Steelers and again followed three years later by the Packers). The No. 5 Giants were then the lowest-seeded NFC team to win the Super Bowl since the NFL began seeding teams in 1990 (Green Bay was seeded sixth in 2010). Prior to the Giants' victory, a second seed was the previous low NFC team to win a Super Bowl. The 2007 Giants were just the third team to win the Super Bowl after starting the season 0-2. The others were the 1993 Cowboys and the 2001 Patriots.

Perhaps the most impressive characteristic of that title team was its ability to win on the road. The Giants won 10 consecutive games as visitors (seven regular season, three postseason), an NFL single-season record. They were the visiting team in the Super Bowl, which was their 11th consecutive triumph away from Giants Stadium. The Giants won their first 2008 road game, at St. Louis, to extend their road winning streak to 11 games, which tied them with three other teams for the second-longest such streak in NFL history. They achieved much of that success with 11 rookies on their 2007 active roster, a record for a Super Bowl winner.

After their 0-2 start in 2007, the Giants won six consecutive games to become just the fifth team in history and the second since 1947 to follow two opening losses with six straight triumphs. The last of those victories was over the Miami Dolphins in London's Wembley Stadium, which made the Giants the first team in history to win a regular season game outside of North America.

In 2008, Coughlin led the Giants to the NFC East championship with a 12-4 record. The 12 victories were their highest total since the 2000 NFC champions won 12 games. It was the eighth time in franchise history and the sixth time since the merger that the Giants finished a season with at least 12 victories. The Giants advanced to postseason play for the fourth consecutive season, the first time they accomplished that feat in their history.

Coughlin also led the Jaguars to four consecutive postseason berths (1996-99) and is one of only three coaches in NFL history to accomplish that feat with two different teams. The others are Marty Schottenheimer (Cleveland, 1985-88 and Kansas City, 1990-95) and Mike Holmgren (Green Bay, 1993-98 and Seattle 2003-07).

Under Coughlin, the Giants routinely establish franchise statistical milestones. Two constant points of emphasis for him are avoiding costly penalties and winning the turnover battle. Last season, the Giants finished with 72 penalties for 578 yards, both franchise-low totals for a 16-game schedule. In addition, their plus-14 turnover differential placed them fourth in the NFL and was Coughlin's best figure in his 17 years as an NFL head coach. The Giants also allowed just 20 sacks in 2012, the lowest total in the league.

Coughlin's career turnover differential is plus-61 in the regular season and plus-eight in the postseason. The plus-61 places him third among active head coaches, behind Belichick (plus-126) and Mike McCarthy (plus-76). In 2008, the Giants set what was then an NFL record (tied by the Miami Dolphins) by coughing up the ball only 13 times in 16 games (New England established a new mark with just 10 turnovers in 2010). The Giants and Dolphins were the seventh and eighth teams to average less than one turnover a game over a 16-game season. Coughlin has coached two of the teams, the 2002 Jaguars and the 2008 Giants, and was an assistant on another (the 1990 Giants).

The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34. In seven seasons under Coughlin, the Giants are plus-27, including an NFC-best plus-nine in 2008, when the Giants lost only three fumbles all year.

In 2011, the Giants finished eighth in the NFL in yards per game (385.1), the fourth consecutive season and the fifth time in Coughlin's tenure they were eighth or better. The Giants were fifth in the NFL with a franchise-record 295.9 passing yards a game, their highest ranking since they finished fifth in 1984. In 2010, they finished in the top 10 in the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. The Giants were fifth on offense with an average of 380.3 yards a game and seventh in defense, allowing an average of 310.8 yards per game. They gained a then franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns, which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. Their 331 first downs were the third-highest total in franchise history – a total they matched in 2011. The team's 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5).

Defensively, the 2011 Giants allowed an average of 14 points in four postseason games, significantly below the 25 points a game given up in the regular season. In 2010, the Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up the previous season. The Giants finished the season with 46 sacks, their highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208).

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 the previous year, the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. The Giants set a team record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history.

From Sept. 20 to Oct. 4, 2009, the Giants won consecutive road games in Dallas, Tampa Bay and Kansas City. They are one of just nine of the 125 teams (7.2 percent) that have played at least three consecutive road games since 1990 to win every game. Both the Giants and Coughlin are on the list twice. The Giants swept a three-game trip in 1994, when they traveled to Houston, Washington and Cleveland on successive weeks. Coughlin's 2001 Jacksonville Jaguars also won three road games in three weeks. Of course, Coughlin's 2007 Giants won three straight road playoff games on the way to Super Bowl XLII.

The 2008 Giants established several milestones and records. The Giants had two more victories than they finished with the previous year to become the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the Lombardi Trophy (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season). The Giants were the first defending Super Bowl champion in 10 years – and only the fourth overall – to earn a top seed in the postseason a year after winning the championship game (since seeding began in 1990). In 2011, Green Bay became the fifth team to accomplish the feat – and the Packers promptly lost to the Giants.

The 2008 Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise-record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants' run offense finished seventh or better in the league every season from 2005-2008, the first time since 1990-93 that they were in the NFL's top 10 four years in a row. The Giants finished the season with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They scored 448 points in 1963 and had 356 first downs in 1985.

Three years after setting the franchise rushing mark, the Giants struggled to run the ball. So the 2011 Giants became the best passing team in franchise history with their average of 295.9 yards a game. Eli Manning's 4,933 passing yards were the sixth-highest total in NFL history and Victor Cruz (1,536) and Hakeem Nicks (1,192) became the first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season in Giants history.

Under Coughlin, the Giants are 61-12 when leading at halftime, 63-8 when leading after the third quarter, 65-27 when they rush for at least 100 yards, 48-14 when holding the opposition to less than 100 yards on the ground and 54-11 when the turnover differential is to their advantage.

In both 2011 and 2012, the Giants scored 47 touchdowns – one less than they had in 2010, which was their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. Last year, Victor Cruz caught 10 touchdown passes and Andre Brown rushed for eight scores. In 2011, Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for nine touchdowns and had two scoring receptions, whil Cruz added nine receiving scores. The previous season, Hakeem Nicks caught 11 touchdown passes and Mario Manningham added nine as they became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine. In addition, Brandon Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season.

The Giants scored 46 touchdowns in 2009 when Steve Smith (7), Nicks (6), Manningham (5) and Kevin Boss (5) all had at least five touchdown receptions. It was the first time the Giants have had four different receivers with at least five touchdown catches apiece since 1963, when five players reached that total: Del Shofner (9), Frank Gifford (7), Joe Morrison (7), Joe Walton (6) and Phil King (5). The Giants scored 45 touchdowns in both 2005 and 2008. In the first of those seasons, they were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants' 5,787 total yards that season were then the third-most in team history and their offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. It was the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth with an average of 320.2 yards a game.

Defensively, the Giants have ranked in the top seven in three of the last six seasons (seventh in 2007, fifth in 2008 and seventh in 2010). When they allowed 292.0 yards a game and were ranked fifth in total defense in 2008, it was their highest ranking since 2000, when they were also fifth. The 292 yards per game were the fewest allowed by the Giants since 2000, when they gave up 284.1.

The Giants have also had several special teams standouts under Coughlin. In 2012, Lawrence Tynes made 33 of 39 field goal attempts and all 46 of his extra point tries for 145 points, which was both the second-highest total in Giants history and in the NFL in 2012. Tynes has made a team-record 204 consecutive extra points since missing one vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007. Rookie David Wilson, the Giants' first-round draft choice in 2012, set a Giants record with 1,533 kickoff return yards, easily breaking the former mark of 1,291, set by Domenik Hixon in 2009. Wilson's 57 returns tied the team record Hixon set in 2009.

In 2008, three Giants special teams players played in the Pro Bowl – punter Jeff Feagles, kicker John Carney and long snapper Zak DeOssie. Feagles, who was 42 in 2008, finished the season with a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The net average was a career high. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year. Carney scored a career-high 143 points, then the second-highest figure in Giants history and just five less than Jay Feely's record of 148 in 2005. Carney kicked 35 field goals in 38 attempts, a .921 percentage that was the best in Giants history. Two of his three misses were blocked.

The year before Coughlin arrived, the Giants averaged only 19.9 yards a kickoff return. In 2004, they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage for the first time since 1953 with an average return of 25.1 yards. In 2005, their average kickoff return dropped by less than a yard, to 24.3 yards, which was good for fourth in the NFL. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards the entire 2008 season, when opposing teams averaged 5.8 yards on punt returns, the third-best figure in the NFL.

Many Giants players have enjoyed outstanding seasons in the Coughlin era. Manning should soon own all of the team's significant career passing records. In 2011, Manning set franchise records with 359 completions and 4,933 yards. Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in eight consecutive seasons, the fifth-longest such streak in NFL history. In 2011, Manning was the first NFL quarterback to throw at least four touchdown passes of at least 72 yards since Kurt Warner of St. Louis in 2000 (six). He was the first Giants quarterback to do it since Earl Morrall threw four in 1965. In 2010, Manning threw 31 touchdown passes, the third-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962. Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002). From 2009-2012, Manning threw for 4,002, 4,021 and 4,933 yards to become the first Giants quarterback with three 4,000-yard seasons.

In 2009, Steve Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions and was the first Giants wide receiver to play in the Pro Bowl since Homer Jones in 1968 (not including David Tyree's selection as a special teams player in 2005). Last season, Manning, Cruz, guard Chris Snee and defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul all played in the Pro Bowl. It was Manning's third selection and Snee's fourth.

In Jacobs (1,089 yards) and Derrick Ward (1,025), the 2008 Giants were just the fourth team in history with two running backs rushing for at least 1,000 yards apiece in the same season. Jacobs was the fourth running back in Giants history to run for at least 1,000 yards in at least two consecutive seasons. He ran for 15 touchdowns in 2008 and was just the second player in Giants history to run for that many scores in a single season.

Prior to joining the Giants, Coughlin coached the Jaguars for eight seasons (1995-2002). He was named the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, a full 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and 1998 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, including those two trips to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in their first five seasons.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were 55-12 in games in which they owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession, and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Coughlin quickly established himself as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-2-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin, Pete Carroll of the Seattle Seahawks, Jim Harbaugh of the San Francisco 49ers, Greg Schiano of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Doug Marrone of the Buffalo Bills and Chip Kelly of the Philadelphia Eagles are the only current NFL head coaches with experience as college head coaches.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and 1985. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and 1987 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman at Syracuse for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs and Pro Football Hall of Famers Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Kate; two sons-in-law named Chris; two sons, Brian and Tim; two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife); and 11 grandchildren: Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea, Cooper, Caroline, Marin, Wesley, Brennon, Clara, Walker and Ally.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund helps families tackle childhood cancer by providing comprehensive financial, emotional and practical support. From diagnosis to recovery and beyond, we are part of the team, allowing parents to solely focus on their child's well-being. Our goal is to BE THERE for parents facing the unthinkable so they can be there for their families.

Jay McGillis was a very special young man who was a member of Coughlin's team at Boston College. McGillis contracted leukemia and passed away on July 3, 1992. The courage, compassion and faith he demonstrated during the course of his illness were an inspiration to many people. Coach Coughlin started the foundation to BE THERE in Jay's honor in 1996. Since then the Jay Fund has evolved in size and scope helping thousands of families in Northeast Florida and the New York/New Jersey Metropolitan Area who are fighting childhood cancer.

John and Pat McGillis with Judy and Tom Coughlin

The foundation hosts several annual fund-raising events, including a Wine Tasting Gala and Celebrity Golf Classic Tournament in Jacksonville and the Champions for Children Gala in Manhattan.

KEVIN GILBRIDE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

The Giants' offense has gained yards both rushing and passing and scored points in numbers unprecedented in franchise history under Kevin Gilbride, who is in his seventh full season as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2012, the Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. Four of them have occurred since Gilbride took over as offensive coordinator late in the 2006 season: 2012 (429 points), 2008 (427) and 2009 (402). The Giants' 429 points were 35 more than the 2011 Super Bowl champions scored.

The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. In their last three home games – victories over Green Bay, New Orleans and Philadelphia – the Giants scored 38, 52 and 42 points.

They scored six offensive touchdowns in a 52-27 victory against New Orleans on Dec. 9, the first time they accomplished the feat since Dec. 22, 2002 in a 44-27 triumph in Indianapolis.

The Giants' 327 first downs in 2012 were the fifth-highest total in team history.

In 2011, the Giants gained a franchise-record 6,161 yards, breaking the mark of 6,085 set in 2010. Those are the only 6,000-yard seasons in Giants history.

The Giants shattered another record that season with 4,734 net passing yards. The former mark of 4,019 was set in 2009. Those are the only 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. The Giants were fifth in the NFL with 295.9 passing yards a game, their highest ranking since the 1984 team finished fifth. In 2011, the Giants had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the first time in their history. They set another franchise mark with 359 pass completions. The Giants led the NFL with 18 completions of 40 or more yards in 2011.

The Giants had 331 first downs for the second season in a row, including 216 passing first downs, shattering the former team record of 198, set in 1984.

The Giants scored 47 touchdowns in the regular season, the sixth-highest total in team history and a figure they matched in 2012.

In their four-game postseason run, which culminated in a 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI, the Giants averaged 25.5 points and 402.5 yards, higher figures than their regular season averages of 24.6 points and 385.1 yards.

The 2013 season is Gilbride's 39th in coaching and 24th in the National Football League. Gilbride, then the quarterbacks coach, assumed play-calling duties from former coordinator John Hufnagel prior to the 2006 regular season finale in Washington.

With Gilbride devising game plans and calling plays, the Giants' offense has consistently been among the most productive in the NFL. The unit was ranked seventh, eighth, fifth, eighth and 14th, respectively, in the last five seasons.

In 2010, the Giants gained 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns – every one of them by the offense - which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. They scored 57 touchdowns in 1963, 49 in 1962 and 1967 and 48 in 1985.

The Giants led the league by averaging 6.57 yards on first down. The team's 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants' 3,885 net passing yards were the fourth-highest total in team history.

The Giants had 80 scrimmage plays of 20 or more yards (58 passes, 22 runs), tying them with the Philadelphia Eagles for the highest total in the NFL. Their 14 touchdown passes of 20-plus yards led the league.

Gilbride's unit was also productive on the ground, where the Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). The only other team to have two 800-yard rushers was Kansas City, with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones.

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 in 2008, the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. In addition, they set a team record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history. The old record of 3,951 was set in 2002. The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards, which left them tied for fifth in the NFL.

In 2008, three years before setting the passing yardage record, the Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 in 2005 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2006. The Giants rushed for 301 yards in an overtime victory over Carolina on Dec. 21, the fifth-highest total in team history and their highest total in 49 years.

That season, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward ran for 1,025 to become the fourth pair of backs from the same team – and the fifth set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

Gilbride has worked closely with Eli Manning throughout the quarterback's outstanding career. Last year, Manning became the Giants' career leader in completions (2,612) and touchdown passes (211). He is second in team history in pass attempts (4,457) and passing yards (31,527). In the 2011 regular season, Manning set Giants records for pass attempts (589), completions (359) and yards (4,933). The yardage total was the fourth-highest in the NFL that season and is the eighth-highest total in league history. Manning is the only quarterback in Giants history with three 4,000-yard seasons.

Manning's 29 touchdown passes were the second-highest total of his career (he had 31 in 2010) and his 16 interceptions were nine fewer than he threw the previous season. His passer rating of 92.9 was the second highest of his career (he had a 93.1 rating in 2009). Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).

In the postseason, Manning completed 65 percent of his passes and threw for nine touchdowns and only one interception.

Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in eight consecutive seasons, the fifth-longest such streak in NFL history. Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-12.

Gilbride designed the attack and called the plays when the Giants won four games in the 2007 and 2011 postseasons and won Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. The Giants are the first team to twice win four games in a single postseason.

Gilbride joined the Giants as the team's quarterbacks coach on Jan. 26, 2004. He was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995-96. Gilbride has also coordinated offenses for the Houston Oilers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills.

As quarterbacks coach, Gilbride was at the forefront of the development of Manning, the No. 1 selection in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2005, under Gilbride's guidance, Manning led the Giants to the NFC East title while throwing 557 passes, the third-highest total in the league and then the second-highest total in team history. Manning's 294 completions tied for ninth in the NFL and was then fourth on the Giants' single-season list. His 3,762 yards were fifth in the NFL. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

In 2006, Gilbride's last season as quarterbacks coach, Manning completed 301 passes to become just the second quarterback in franchise history to top 300 completions in a season. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL. Manning became the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

Manning's development under Gilbride became evident in the latter part of the quarterback's rookie season. In the final three games of the year, Manning completed 53-of-87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two years as the Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. Houston ranked first in the NFL in passing yards every season from 1990-93. The Oilers also topped the league in total offense in 1990 and were second in 1991, third in 1992 and second in 1993.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville advance to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84. He compiled a 35-14-2 record and a .706 winning percentage that is the best in school history.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Conn., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children - daughters Kelly and Kristen and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999. Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 and is currently the Giants' wide receivers coach.

PERRY FEWELL

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Tom Coughlin reached into his past for a coach on Jan. 14, 2010 when he hired as the Giants' defensive coordinator Perry Fewell, who once spent five seasons as Coughlin's secondary coach in Jacksonville. Fewell's first three years with the Giants were highlighted by many outstanding defensive performances and a Super Bowl victory.

In 2012, Giants opponents scored 344 points, or 56 fewer than their foes scored in the team's 2011 championship season. The Giants were tied for 12th in the NFL in scoring defense.

Two significant reasons for the improvement in scoring defense were the defense's performance in the red zone and takeaways.

In 2011, the Giants surrendered 34 touchdowns on 61 opposing trips inside their 20-yard line, a 55.7 touchdown percentage that left them tied with their Super Bowl opponents, New England, for 21st in the league. Last year, the Giants allowed only 23 touchdowns on 50 opposing possessions in the red zone, a 46.0 percentage that was sixth in the NFL.

The Giants were fourth in the NFL in both takeaways (35, four more than they had in 2011) and turnover differential (plus-14, a significant improvement over 2011's plus-7). The plus-14 was the Giants' best turnover differential since they were plus-25 in 1997. The Giants intercepted 21 passes in 2012, their highest total since they had 27 picks, also in 1997.

Safety Stevie Brown intercepted eight passes, the most by a Giant since Willie Williams had 10 in 1968. Brown's 307 interception return yards broke the former Giants' single-season record of 251, set by Hall of Famer Emlen Tunnell in 1949 and matched by Dick Lynch in 1963. The 307 return yards were the most by an NFL player since New Orleans' Darren Sharper had 376 in 2009.

Antrel Rolle led the Giants in tackles for the second consecutive season, this time with 104 (85 solo).

Fewell's defense was at its best in 2011 in the Giants' postseason run that was capped by a 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI. In those four victories, the Giants allowed an average of 328.0 yards, 14 points and 18.7 first downs per game - significant improvements over the regular season averages of 376.4 yards, 25 points and 21.1 first downs.

Each of the Giants' four postseason opponents scored fewer points than their regular season average. The defense did not allow a point in a 24-2 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, who entered the game averaging 25.1 points per game. Green Bay scored an NFL-best 35 points a game during a 15-1 regular season, but managed only 20 in a 17-point loss to the Giants in a Divisional Playoff Game. The San Francisco 49ers averaged 23.8 points during the regular season, but scored 17 in an overtime loss to the Giants in the NFC Championship Game. The Patriots had averaged 32.1 points a game in the regular season and 34 points in their two postseason victories before Fewell's defense shut them down in the Super Bowl.

In the regular season, the Giants totaled 48 sacks, which tied the Baltimore Ravens for the NFL's second-highest total and was their highest figure since the 2007 team led the NFL with 53. Jason Pierre-Paul, then a second-year pro had 16.5 sacks in 2011, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 in a season. Taylor did it once – he had 20.5 sacks in his 1986 MVP season – and Strahan did it twice (an NFL-record 22.5 sacks in 2001 and 18.5 in 2003).

Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. Last year, he elected to his second Pro Bowl in arrow, this time as a starter.

Fewell's defense benefitted from outstanding play from numerous veterans while getting contributions from several young players. Rolle led the Giants with 96 tackles (82 solo). He also led the team with 17 tackles (14 solo) in the postseason. Corey Webster led the Giants with six interceptions, the highest total by a Giant since Emmanuel McDaniel had six in 2000.

Osi Umenyiora had 9.0 sacks in nine games and Justin Tuck had 5.0 despite sitting out four contests with injuries.

In addition to Pierre-Paul, young players like Linval Joseph, Jacquian Williams and Prince Amukamara all helped the Giants win games.

In 2010, Fewell's first season with the team, the Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up in 2009. Their opponents averaged 310.8 total yards per game, a 14-yard reduction that enabled the Giants to move from a tie for 13th to seventh in the NFL's defensive rankings. The Giants improved from 17th to eighth in run defense (110.8 to 101.3) and 15th to ninth against the pass (214.1 to 209.5).

With Fewell's defense leading the way, the Giants were first in the NFL with 39 takeaways. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208). They allowed 263 first downs, the second-lowest total in the league (San Diego, 247). The Giants held their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in nine of 16 games. They were 9-0 in those games. The Giants' 46 sacks was the team's highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53.

Fewell is a 28-year coaching veteran who is in his 16th season as an NFL coach.

Prior to joining the Giants, Fewell spent four seasons as the Buffalo Bills' defensive coordinator. He was the team's interim head coach for the final seven games of the 2009 season. The Bills were 3-4 under his direction. Fewell was brought to Buffalo by Dick Jauron, who was Coughlin's defensive coordinator in Jacksonville for four seasons. Fewell and Jauron spent the 1998 season together with the Jaguars.

Buffalo's defense under Fewell allowed only 14 touchdown passes in each of his last two seasons with the team. In 2009, that tied for the second-best total in the NFL and was eight below the league average. The Bills were tied for fifth in the NFL with 33 takeaways. Their 28 interceptions were exceeded only by Green Bay's 30. Buffalo's turnover differential improved from minus-eight in 2008 to plus-three in 2009. Bills rookie safety Jairus Byrd tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in only 14 games. The nine interceptions were five more than any other rookie had. Byrd was placed on injured reserve with a groin injury and missed the final two games but became the first Bills rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Bell in 1984.

In 2008, the Bills were fourth in the NFL in red zone defense, allowing a touchdown on only 41.8 percent of the opposition possessions inside the 20-yard line (23 of 55). They were second in the AFC in negative yardage plays and held their opponents to less than 100 rushing yards seven times.

Fewell coached Chicago defensive backs in 2005, when the Bears led the NFC with 24 interceptions and cornerback Nathan Vasher and safety Mike Brown were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2003 and 2004, Fewell was the secondary coach of the St. Louis Rams.

Fewell entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach for Coughlin and the Jaguars in 1998, a position he held through the 2002 season. Jacksonville's pass defense ranked third in the NFL in 1999 and two years later the Jaguars gave up only 13 touchdown passes.

Fewell was a collegiate coach for 13 years prior to entering the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina in 1985 and 1986. Fewell was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987. The following year, he began a four-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. In 1992, he returned to West Point, where he spent three seasons as the defensive line coach. Fewell's final college job was at Vanderbilt, where he coached the secondary from 1995-97 and was also assistant head coach in his final season there.

Fewell was born in Gastonia, N.C. He was on the football and track teams at South Point High School in Belmont, N.C. and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. Fewell lettered as a defensive back for four years at Lenoir-Rhyne College and was named the team's most improved player in 1983. He graduated with a degree in business administration in 1985.

In October 2011, Fewell was inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Gaston County, N.C. Hall of Fame in June 2012.

Fewell and his wife, Kathleen, have two sons.

TOM QUINN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tom Quinn is in his eighth season with the Giants and his seventh as the team's special teams coordinator. His first year with the team was spent as an assistant to Mike Sweatman, who retired following the 2006 season. Head coach Tom Coughlin quickly named Quinn to replace Sweatman.

In 2012, Quinn's special teams made significant contributions to the Giants' winning season and finished seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive ranking of the league's special teams. The Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways. Their average drive start following a kickoff was at the 25.2 yard line, which led the NFL.

Rookie David Wilson set a Giants record with 1,533 kickoff return yards, easily breaking the former mark of 1,291, set by Domenik Hixon in 2009. Wilson's 57 returns tied the team record Hixon set that season. With Wilson accounting for all but six runbacks, the Giants averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return, which placed them seventh in the NFL.

Kicker Lawrence Tynes made 33 of 39 field goal attempts and all 46 of his extra point tries for 145 points, which was both the second-highest total in Giants history and in the NFL in 2012. Tynes led the NFL in scoring for much of the season, but did not kick a field goal in the final three games and finished behind New England's Stephen Gostkowski, who scored 153 points.

Tynes' 145 points increased his Giants career total to 586.He jumped to second on the franchise's career list, trailing only Pete Gogolak, who scored 646 points from 1966-74.

Steve Weatherford's gross punting average of 47.5 yards placed him eighth in the NFL and was the highest single-season average by a Giants punter with at least 35 kicks. The previous mark of 46.6 yards was set by Don Chandler in 1959 (on 55 punts).

Second-year pro Spencer Paysinger led the Giants with 23 tackles (19 solo).

Quinn's special teams underwent significant change in the Giants' 2011 championship season. Weatherford became the team's punter. Aaron Ross was the most frequently-used punt returner and Devin Thomas and rookies Da'Rel Scott and Jerrel Jernigan combined for 47 kickoff returns. The three leading special teams tacklers – rookies Jacquian Williams (17) and Tyler Sash (15) and veteran Derrick Martin (12) – were newcomers.

Weatherford dropped 25 punts inside the 20-yard line, including five in a victory at New England on Nov. 6 and a record-tying three in the Giants' 21-17 victory over the Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI.

Tynes scored 34 points in four playoff games (with eight field goals and 10 extra points) and holds the Giants record with 59 postseason points. Tynes also holds the franchise playoff records with 13 field goals and 20 extra points.

In 2010, Zak DeOssie, the snapper on both punts and placekicks, was selected to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit was ranked fourth in the NFL, allowing an average return of only 19.7 yards.

The Giants benefitted from outstanding play by Quinn's special teams in 2009. Tynes led the Giants and was fifth in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points, the fourth-highest total by a kicker in team history. With Hixon doing the bulk of the work, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with a 10.9-yard punt return average. Hixon – who missed most of the 2010 and 2011 season with knee injuries - also set Giants single-season records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,291 yards. On Oct. 18 at New Orleans, Hixon had 303 total yards, shattering Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. The total included 230 kickoff return and 51 punt return yards. Opposing teams averaged only 21.0 yards per kickoff return, the NFL's eighth-best figure.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players – kicker John Carney, Jeff Feagles and DeOssie – played for the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Carney was signed just prior to the season because Tynes was sidelined with an injury. Quinn quickly integrated Carney into the kicking unit and the veteran had the best season a Giants kicker has ever had, succeeding on 35 of 38 field goals attempts for a franchise-record .921 percentage. Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005).

That season, Feagles had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a career-high net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and was just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. Feagles holds the NFL records for punts (1,713), punting yards (71,211) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (554).

In addition to the Pro Bowlers' exploits, Quinn's coverage teams played extremely well that season. The Giants' special teams were ranked fourth in the NFL according to a comprehensive survey by the Dallas Morning News. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and were ranked third in the NFL in punt coverage, giving up an average of only 5.85 yards a return. The team's field goal percentage of 92.3 was ranked third. The Giants blocked three field goals and opposing teams converted 73 percent of their attempts, the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL. The 40.2-yard net punting average was a Giants record and placed them fourth in the league. Hixon averaged a team-record 60.0 yards on three kickoff returns at Arizona.

The special teams overcame adversity and performed well in Quinn's first season as coordinator in 2007, when the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. Long-snapper Ryan Kuehl suffered a season-ending injury in training camp, and the Giants used rookie snappers Jay Alford (on placekicks) and DeOssie (for punts) the entire year. Tynes made 23 of 27 field goal attempts (85.2 percent) and made the biggest kick of the postseason, a game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay.

Quinn employed three kickoff returners – Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Hixon – and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average. The coverage teams were also strong; Giants opponents averaged only 6.2 yards on 28 punt returns.

Quinn, 45, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years. Before joining the Giants, he spent four years on the coaching staff at Stanford University. Quinn coached the special teams in each of those seasons, plus the tight ends in 2002 and 2003, and the outside linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

Quinn began his career coaching linebackers at Davidson in 1991. From 1992-94, he was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator at James Madison. In 1995, he was the defensive coordinator at Boston University and from 1996-98 Quinn was the defensive coordinator at Holy Cross.

Quinn moved back to the West Coast in 1999 at San Jose State, where in three years he worked with the linebackers, tight ends and special teams. He joined the staff at Stanford in 2002.

Quinn grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

JOE DANOS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Joe Danos is in his first season as a strength and conditioning assistant on the Giants' coaching staff.

Danos came to the Giants from Florida State, where he spent the previous three seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football team. Danos joined the Seminoles' staff in January 2010, following head strength and conditioning coach Vic Viloria from SMU, where he spent the previous three years (2007-2009) serving as his top assistant.

Prior to his SMU stint, Danos spent two years as an assistant strength coach at LSU, working with football and several Olympic sports under the direction of Tom Moffitt. A graduate of LSU with a degree in kinesiology, Danos worked as a student assistant strength & conditioning coach with the Tigers from 2000-2004.

Danos also worked for five years as an assistant weightlifting coach to Gayle Hatch, the 2004 USA head Olympic coach. Before joining Hatch's staff, Danos competed on the national level for the Gayle Hatch Weightlifting Team in Baton Rouge, where he was a two-time national champion. Danos won the 1996 National Junior Championship and the 1996 AAU Junior Olympic Championship.

Danos grew up in New Orleans, where he attended John Curtis Christian High School.

PAT FLAHERTY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience, is in his 14th season as an NFL coach and 10th as the Giants' offensive line coach.

The Giants have consistently had one of the NFL's best and most dependable offensive lines during Flaherty's tenure. The team's offense has been ranked among the top eight in the NFL in four of the last five years and the Giants had at least two linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in three of those seasons.

In 2012, the offensive line allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks and helped the Giants score 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.

Because of injuries, Flaherty had to do some shuffling on the offensive line. Right guard Chris Snee, center David Baas and left guard Kevin Boothe started all 16 games. In Games 1-2, the tackles were Sean Locklear on the left side and David Diehl on the right. In Games 3-8 and again in Game 12, Will Beatty started at left tackle and Locklear was the right tackle. In Games 9-11 and 13-16, Beatty was the left tackle and Diehl started on the right side.

Snee was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl. He is the first Giants offensive linemen to be honored so often since Hall of Famer Rosie Brown was selected to his ninth Pro Bowl in 1965. Snee was also selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008, 2009 and 2010.

The 2011 season was one of change for the offensive line. Longtime stalwarts Rich Seubert and Shaun O'Hara were released in July. Injuries forced the Giants to start five different offensive line combinations. Beatty's year ended after 10 games because of eye surgery. Baas missed five games. Boothe and Mitch Petrus stepped in at left guard when Diehl moved back to tackle.

Despite the different lineups, Flaherty's group helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI and set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. With the line providing outstanding protection for Eli Manning, the Giants finished fifth in the NFL in passing yards, their highest ranking since they finished fifth in 1984.

In 2010, Snee and O'Hara were each selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive year (O'Hara was unable to play in the game because of injury). O'Hara and Snee were the first Giants offensive linemen selected to three Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, 1991 and 1993 and the first chosen in three consecutive years since Brown was selected to six in a row from 1955-60.

With the line playing at a high level, the Giants were fifth in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. They gained 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). And the Giants tied the Indianapolis Colts by allowing an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in seven games overall.

The line registered these accomplishments despite a spate of injuries that forced Flaherty to start six different offensive line combinations. The Giants started three left tackles (Diehl, Shawn Andrews and Beatty), three left guards (Seubert, Diehl and Boothe) and three centers (O'Hara, Adam Koets and Seubert).

Five players - O'Hara, Snee, Seubert, Diehl and Kareem McKenzie – were mainstays on the line from 2006-10. The group started 38 consecutive regular season games from 2007-09, then the longest such streak by five linemen since the 1970 NFL merger.

In 2009, O'Hara, Snee and Diehl all played in the Pro Bowl, the first time the Giants had three players from the same position group play in the game since 1962.

The previous year, Snee and O'Hara were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Snee, who was a starter, was the first Giants guard to play in the Pro Bowl since Ron Stone in 2001, and O'Hara the first Giants center to go to the game since Oates in 1993. In addition, Diehl was selected as a third alternate.

With the line leading the way, the Giants that season rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. It was the first time since 1993 that the Giants led the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, the line was an important factor as the Giants won Super Bowl XLII and finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 134.3 yards a game. The Giants were also fourth in the league with a 4.6-yards-per-carry average. In 2006, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with an average of 134.8 rushing yards a game and sixth with an average of 4.7 yards per carry. The Giants' 138.1-yard rushing average in 2005 placed them sixth in the league. In 2004, the Giants averaged 119.0 yards a game and 4.5 yards a carry, which were far superior to the 97.4 and 4.0 averages the Giants posted in 2003, the year before Tom Coughlin and Flaherty arrived.

The Giants have had a 1,000-yard rusher in seven of the nine seasons in which Flaherty has coached the line. In 2008, Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became just the fourth set of running back teammates in NFL history with more than 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. The previous year, Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards, despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Tiki Barber made the only three Pro Bowls of his career while rushing for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards in the three years he ran behind a Flaherty-coached line.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, Delone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., from 1978-80.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn, a freshman offensive lineman at Towson University, and Colleen.

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience, is in his 13th season as an NFL coach and ninth as the Giants' offensive line coach.

The Giants have consistently had one of the NFL's best and most dependable offensive lines during Flaherty's tenure. The team's offense has been ranked among the top eight in the NFL in each of the last four years and the Giants had at least two linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in three of those seasons.

The 2011 season was one of change for the offensive line. Longtime stalwarts Rich Seubert and Shaun O'Hara were released in July. Because of injuries, the Giants started five different offensive line combinations. Left tackle Will Beatty's year ended after 10 games because of eye surgery. Center David Baas missed five games. KEVIN M. GILBRIDE

WIDE RECEIVERS

Kevin M. Gilbride is in second season as the Giants' wide receivers coach and fourth on Tom Coughlin's staff. Gilbride assumed his current position when Sean Ryan was named quarterbacks coach.

In Gilbride's first year coaching the receivers, Victor Cruz led the Giants with 86 receptions for 1,092 yards and 10 touchdowns and became just the second Giants wideout since 1968 to play in the Pro Bowl. Cruz's 86 catches placed him seventh in the NFC and 12th in the NFL and his 1,092 yards were 10th in the conference and 15th in the league. He was one of 10 NFL players with at least 10 touchdown catches.

Hakeem Nicks was bothered by a knee injury almost all season, missed three games and most of two others and had 53 catches for 692 yards and three touchdowns. He increased his career total to 255 receptions, which leaves him 11th on the Giants' career list.

Rookie wide receiver Rueben Randle had 19 receptions for 298 yards and three touchdowns, including two in the season-ending victory over Philadelphia.

In 2011, Gilbride held the title of offensive assistant. He joined the coaching staff in 2010 as team's offensive quality control coach. Gilbride succeeded Ryan in that position.

Gilbride is the son of Giants offensive coordinator Kevin Gilbride. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Temple University. In 2009, Gilbride was a member of the Temple coaching staff that led the Owls to a 9-4 record - their first winning record since 1990 - and their first bowl game since 1979, the EagleBank Bowl in Washington.

The previous season, Gilbride coached Bruce Francis, who earned the Owls' offensive most valuable player award. Francis, who was an All-MAC selection, became Temple's Division I-A career leader in receiving touchdowns (23). The Owls' leading receiver with 687 yards on 45 catches for a Division I-A school record 13 touchdowns, Francis finished his collegiate career with a reception in a school record 38 consecutive games.

Before his stint at Temple, Gilbride coached the slot receivers and tight ends at Georgetown in 2006. He also headed the kickoff coverage unit and assisted on punt, kickoff return and punt block. He recruited in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Florida and Delaware for the Hoyas.

Gilbride was an offensive graduate assistant coach at Syracuse for two seasons (2004-05), working closely with the tight ends in 2005. The Orange captured a share of the Big East title in 2004 and earned a berth in the Champs Sports Bowl. Gilbride first joined the SU staff as a graduate assistant for video in 2003 before then head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved him into a coaching role.

Gilbride, 33, graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in speech communications. He was a backup quarterback and played on special teams for the Warriors in 2000 after sitting out the 1999 season following his transfer from Brigham Young. He also earned four letters as a baseball player at Hawaii, playing outfield, first base and designated hitter. As a senior, he batted .308, had a .413 on base percentage and did not commit an error.

PETER GIUNTA

SECONDARY COACH/CORNERBACKS

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) is in his eighth season as the Giants' secondary coach/cornerbacks. He joined the team on Jan. 18, 2006. Giunta has been coaching football for 32 years, including 22 in the NFL. He was the defensive coordinator for the 1999 Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams.

With the Giants, Giunta has been at the forefront in the development of cornerbacks Corey Webster, Aaron Ross, Terrell Thomas, Prince Amukamara and Jayron Hosley. In 2012, Webster started all 16 games for the second season in a row, Amukamara made strides as a second-year pro and Hosley played well in his rookie season.

The previous season, Webster started all 20 regular-season and postseason games for the Super Bowl champion Giants and was routinely assigned to cover the opposition's best wide receiver. Webster led the Giants with six interceptions, the highest total by a Giant since Emmanuel McDaniel had six in 2000. Amukamara, the Giants' first-round draft choice that year, missed all of training camp and the season's first nine games with a foot injury, but was able to contribute in the second half of the season after working extensively with Giunta during his rehabilitation.

Thomas was sidelined each of the last two seasons with a knee injury, but in 2009 and 2010 he led the team in tackles, interceptions and passes defensed. In 2010, strong play by the cornerbacks helped the Giants finish ninth in the NFL in pass defense.

In 2008, Webster, Aaron Ross and safety James Butler tied for the team lead with three interceptions apiece. Ross, the team's 2007 first-round draft choice, scored a touchdown on an interception return in each of his first two seasons. Webster, a second-round choice in 2005, re-joined the starting lineup in the 2007 postseason, when his interception of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. Thomas became an important member of the secondary in the second half of his rookie season in 2008.

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta was the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach for five seasons. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game) and sixth in total defense (293.6 yards per game).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interception and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl defensive end Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 sacks.

Giunta has long had a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs he coaches. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay safety Darren Sharper, who had nine. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Aaron Glenn, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach in Philadelphia from 1991-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). Giunta was a defensive assistant his first year on Joe Paterno's staff before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure (1982 Fiesta, 1983 Sugar and 1983 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). Giunta then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

Giunta is a native of Salem, Massachusetts and a graduate of Northeastern University. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Christina, John and D.J.

JIM HERRMANN

LINEBACKERS

Jim Herrmann is in his fifth season as the Giants linebackers coach and eighth year in the NFL. Herrmann joined the Giants coaching staff on Jan. 22, 2009 following three seasons as the linebackers coach for the Jets. Prior to entering the NFL, Herrmann was on the coaching staff at the University of Michigan, his alma mater, for 20 years, including a nine-year stint as defensive coordinator.

In 2012, Herrmann had to manage a group hit by injuries to key contributors Jacquian Williams and Keith Rivers. Chase Blackburn started 15 games at middle linebacker and finished second on the team with 97 tackles (67 solo). Mark Herzlich manned the middle vs. Pittsburgh on Nov. 4. Mathias Kiwanuka started the first five games at strongside linebacker, but in the latter part of the season he was playing primarily on the defensive line. On the weak side, Williams (who missed six games with a knee injury) and Spencer Paysinger split time with the since-departed Michael Boley.

The previous season, Herrmann overcame the early season-ending loss of a starter and produced with a blend of veterans and rookies who helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI. Jonathan Goff, who started every game at middle linebacker in 2010, suffered a season-ending knee injury in a Labor Day practice. He was replaced by a committee that included rookie Greg Jones and – after he rejoined the team on Nov. 30 – Blackburn. Boley missed 2½ games with a hamstring injury, but was second on the team with 91 tackles (72 solo). Kiwanuka was a stalwart on the strong side, where he had 81 tackles, including 3.5 sacks. Blackburn had 19 postseason tackles and a key interception in Super Bowl XLVI. Rookies Williams, Herzlich and Paysinger all progressed rapidly under Herrmann.

Herrmann has become accustomed to change among the linebackers. In 2010, Kiwanuka was limited to three games because of a herniated disk in his neck. Goff, a reserve for most of his first two seasons, became the starter in the middle. Keith Bulluck joined the Giants after 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans and started eight of the 12 games in which he played. On the weak side, Boley started every game but the season opener and finished fifth on the team with 74 tackles. Steady play from the linebackers helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense (310.8 yards a game) and eighth against the run (101.3).

In 2009, injuries forced Herrmann to juggle his linebackers throughout the season. Four different players – Antonio Pierce, Goff, Blackburn and Bryan Kehl – started at middle linebacker. Boley and Blackburn were starters on the weak side.

The previous season, Herrmann helped coach a Jets defense that finished seventh in the NFL against the run (94.9 yards a game) and 16th overall (329.4). Two of the linebackers Herrmann coached, Eric Barton and Calvin Pace, were the team's top two tacklers.

In 2007, one of Herrmann's former Michigan players, David Harris, joined the Jets. As a rookie, Harris led the team with 117 tackles and tied for the team lead with five sacks.

Prior to joining the Jets, Herrmann was on the Michigan coaching staff for two decades. In 1997, Herrmann's first year as defensive coordinator, the Wolverines won the national championship while leading the country in three important defensive statistical categories: total yards, scoring and pass efficiency. Herrmann was the recipient of the Broyles Award as the National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During Herrmann's nine years as coordinator, Michigan won five Big Ten championships and the defense held 47 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards. His defense led the Big Ten in sacks in 1997, 2001 and 2002, including a school-record 50 sacks in 2001. Herrmann coached six All-Americas at Michigan, including Marlin Jackson, Ernest Shazor, Leon Hall, LaMarr Woodley, Larry Foote and Charles Woodson, who won the 1997 Heisman Trophy and was named the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Herrmann was a three-year letter-winner at linebackerfor Michigan and was a member of Bo Schembechler's first Rose Bowl-winning team in 1980. A Michigan native, Herrmann was a three-sport athlete and standout linebacker at Dearborn Divine High School.

Herrmann has three children, Jessica, Cory and Timothy.

JERALD INGRAM

RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his 10th season as the Giants' running backs coach. During his tenure with the team, he has had a back rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season eight times. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 29 years of coaching experience, including 22 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

In 2012, Ingram coached a diverse and productive group of backs. Ahmad Bradshaw led the way with 1,015 rushing yards, despite missing two games and numerous practices because of injuries. Andre Brown led the team with eight rushing touchdowns – including a score in each of five consecutive games from Oct. 21 to Nov. 25 – while finishing second on the team with 73 carries for 385 yards. Brown's season ended on Nov. 25, when he fractured his fibula vs. Green Bay. Rookie first-round draft choice David Wilson was third on the team with 358 rushing yards and four touchdowns on 71 carries. On Dec. 9 vs. New Orleans, Wilson rushed for rushed for a career-high 100 yards on 13 attempts, including a 52-yard touchdown. Bradshaw (four times), Brown and Wilson (once each) rushed for at least 100 yards in a game in 2012. The Giants were the only NFL team with three different players with a 100-yard rushing game last season. Since 2006, six different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards – Tiki Barber, Brandon Jacobs, Derrick Ward, Bradshaw, Brown and Wilson.

Bradshaw led the team with 659 yards and nine rushing touchdowns in 2011, despite missing four games with a foot injury. Jacobs added 571 yards and seven scores. In four postseason games, including the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI, the two backs combined for 436 yards on exactly 100 carries and each scored a touchdown.

Ingram's running backs were among the most productive in the NFL in 2010. The Giants finished sixth in the NFL in rushing with an average of 137.5 yards a game. In Bradshaw (1,235) and Jacobs (823), the Giants were one of just two teams in 2010 with two 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). Bradshaw's 1,235 rushing yards were the seventh-highest single-season total in Giants history and placed him fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL. He was 12th in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,549.

In the Giants' victory over Minnesota on Dec. 13, 2010, Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the second time in history the Giants had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. It last happened at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007, when the runners were Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts).

Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season. When Jacobs and Bradshaw each rushed for a pair of touchdowns against Washington on Dec. 5, it was only the fourth time in their history the Giants had two players run for at least two scores in the same game.

In 2009, Ingram coached a group of backs that was productive despite debilitating injuries. Jacobs played all but one game with a knee injury that required postseason surgery and led the team with 835 yards. Bradshaw was limited to one practice day most weeks because of ankle and foot issues, yet led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. He ran for 778 yards that season.

The Giants had the NFL's most productive running attack in 2008. The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. From 2004-08, the Giants finished no worse than 11th in the NFL in rushing. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,089 rushing yards and Ward was close behind with 1,025. They became just the fourth pair of running backs from the same backfield – and only the fifth set of teammates – to each rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

In addition, Bradshaw – the team's leading rusher in the 2007 postseason – ran for 355 yards and fullback Madison Hedgecock was voted a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Such excellence has been a part of the backfield since Ingram's arrival. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,009 yards in 2007, the season the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. In Ingram's first three seasons with the Giants, Barber emerged as one of the very best running backs in the NFL and one of the finest players in franchise history. Barber, who retired following the 2006 season, had never played in the Pro Bowl prior to Ingram's arrival. But he was voted to the NFC team each of his final three years. In those seasons, he rushed for 1,518 yards in 2004, a team-record 1,860 yards in 2005 and 1,662 yards in 2006. Barber, who rushed for 5,409 yards in his first seven Giants seasons, ran for 5,040 in just three years under Ingram to finish with a franchise-record 10,449 yards. Barber set the Giants record with 234 rushing yards at Washington in his final regular season game, breaking the mark of 220 yards he had set the previous season.

Ingram also helped make Jacobs one of the NFL's best short-yardage and goal-line backs in limited playing time his first two seasons. In 2004, Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943. The following season, Jacobs rushed for 423 yards and nine scores to establish himself as Barber's successor.

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and in Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's direction, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3½ games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards. Ingram is also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers; when he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

Ingram joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin during his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Ingram spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

LARRY IZZO

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Larry Izzo, one of the most acclaimed special teams players in NFL history, is in his third season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. Izzo works closely with special teams coordinator Tom Quinn.

The Giants' special teams featured many outstanding performers in 2012.

Rookie David Wilson set a Giants record with 1,533 kickoff return yards, easily breaking the former mark of 1,291, set by Domenik Hixon in 2009. Wilson's 57 returns tied the team record Hixon set that season. With Wilson accounting for all but six runbacks, the Giants averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return, which placed them seventh in the NFL.

Kicker Lawrence Tynes made 33 of 39 field goal attempts and all 46 of his extra point tries for 145 points, which was both the second-highest total in Giants history and in the NFL in 2012. Tynes led the NFL in scoring for much of the season, but did not kick a field goal in the final three games and finished behind New England's Stephen Gostkowski, who scored 153 points.

Tynes' 145 points increased his Giants career total to 586. He jumped to second on the franchise's career list, trailing only Pete Gogolak, who scored 646 points from 1966-74.

Steve Weatherford's gross punting average of 47.5 yards placed him eighth in the NFL and was the highest single-season average by a Giants punter with at least 35 kicks. The previous mark of 46.6 yards was set by Don Chandler in 1959 (on 55 punts).

Second-year pro Spencer Paysinger led the Giants with 23 tackles (19 solo).

In 2011, Izzo's first season with the Giants, he won his fourth Super Bowl ring and first as a coach. He also helped develop a group of rookies who quickly became outstanding special teams players – Jacquian Williams, Tyler Sash, Spencer Paysinger and Mark Herzlich. The Giants' punt and kickoff coverage teams were solid all season and did not allow a touchdown in 2011.

In a 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams and was both a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and a three-time Pro Bowler. He was credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reached five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, including eight with the Patriots.

Izzo began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in preseason, Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team – future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino and Izzo. In his second NFL games, he blocked a Jeff Feagles punt. As a rookie, Izzo played in all 16 games and finished second on the team with 10 special teams tackles. He was voted the special teams alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl team and was an all-rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly.

Izzo spent the 1997 season on injured reserve after tearing an Achilles tendon in training camp. He returned the following year to play 13 games, register 21 special teams tackles and be Miami's recipient of the team's Ed Block Courage Award. Izzo played in all 16 games – plus his first two postseason games – in 1999, when he led the team with a career-high 33 special teams tackles. He was elected the Dolphins' special teams captain. In 2000, his final season in Miami, Izzo earned his first Pro Bowl selection after finishing with a team-high 31 special teams tackles.

Prior to the 2001 season, Izzo joined New England. In his first season with the Patriots, Izzo was voted special teams captain for the first of eight consecutive seasons, led the unit with 22 tackles and helped New England defeat St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. The following year, Izzo was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second time after leading the Patriots with 20 special teams tackles. He was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after collecting six tackles in a game vs. Kansas City.

In 2003 and 2004, Izzo led New England with 31 and then 28 special teams tackles to help the Patriots win two more Super Bowls. He was a member of the AFC Pro Bowl team in 2004, when he was also an All-Pro. Izzo missed only one game from 2000-08 and was chosen for the Patriots' All-2000's team.

Izzo joined the Jets prior to the 2009 season. He was credited with 18 special teams tackles before going on injured reserve with a back injury on Dec. 10.

Izzo was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior, he had 121 tackles, was a team captain, and consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. In 2002, Izzo graduated from Rice with a degree in business.

At McCullough High School in Houston, Izzo played safety and running back. The Houston Chronicle named him its two-way Player of the Year as a senior after he tallied 131 tackles and two interceptions on defense and contributed 1,081 yards rushing, 14 receptions for 109 yards and 10 kickoff returns for 224 yards.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in an NFL-sponsored USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar. Izzo also visited injured military personnel at Walter Reed Army Medical Center outside Washington in 2004 and 2005.

Izzo and his wife, Mara, have a son, Boston.

ROB LEONARD

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Rob Leonard is in his first season as the Giants' defensive assistant coach. He replaces Al Holcomb, who is now the Carolina Panthers' linebackers coach.

Leonard came to the Giants from North Carolina State, where he was a graduate assistant the previous three seasons. His duties included putting together the defensive playbook, writing up practice scripts, running the scout team and signaling in defenses from the sideline during games.

Leonard began his coaching career in 2009 as a defensive assistant at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh.

Leonard played three seasons at N.C. State after playing the 2004 season at Division III Washington & Jefferson College. The following year, he walked on with the Wolfpack and earned a scholarship while redshirting.

In 2006, Leonard played in all 12 games on special teams and was second on the team with 13 special teams stops.

Leonard saw action from scrimmage in eight games at free safety and played on special teams in the other four contests in 2007. He ranked third on the team with 219 special teams snaps and second with 10 special teams tackles.

In 2008, the former walk-on was the Wolfpack's starting strongside linebacker and leading tackler with 95. His 801 snaps were the highest total on the team. Leonard tied for third in the ACC in fumbles recovered with three. He led the team with a season-high 13 tackles vs. Florida State and tied for the team lead with 11 against Miami. He got his first career interception, which he returned 23 yards, vs. North Carolina. Leonard was the recipient of the team's Mike Hardy Award, given to the player who plays beyond his capabilities.

Leonard was a four-year letterman at Moon High School in Moon Township, Pa. As a senior, he gained more than 1,500 all-purpose yards and scored 14 touchdowns. Leonard had a team-high seven interceptions and was a unanimous first-team all-conference selection after playing running back, defensive back, kick returner and punter. He was a second-team all-state cornerback.

DAVID MERRITT, SR.

SECONDARY COACH/SAFETIES

David Merritt is in his 10th season on the Giants' coaching staff and his eighth as the team's secondary coach/safeties.

In 2012, safeties Antrel Rolle and Stevie Brown were two of the top performers on the Giants' defense.

Rolle led the Giants in tackles for the second consecutive season, this time with 104 (85 solo). He was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his work in a Week 6 victory in San Francisco. Rolle intercepted two Alex Smith passes in the third quarter, returning the first to the 49ers' 12-yard line and the second to the five-yard line. Both takeaways led to Giants field goals. Rolle also tied Prince Amukamara and Michael Boley for the team lead with six unassisted tackles.

Brown intercepted eight passes, the most by a Giant since Willie Williams had 10 in 1968. His 307 interception return yards broke the former Giants' single-season record of 251, set by Hall of Famer Emlen Tunnell in 1949 and matched by Dick Lynch in 1963.

Brown, a fourth alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team, was twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week. He was honored after his Week 8 performance at Dallas, where he intercepted two passes, recovered a fumble and had six solo tackles in a victory over the Cowboys. Brown was cited a second time after the Giants' Week 17 rout of Philadelphia, when he had six tackles and, on the fifth play of the game, intercepted a Michael Vick pass and returned it 48 yards to the Eagles' 26-yard line. Four plays later, Eli Manning threw a touchdown pass to Rueben Randle, and the Giants were on their way to a 42-7 triumph.

In 2011, the safeties were one of the most reliable and consistent units on the Super Bowl champion Giants. Rolle and Deon Grant played in all 20 regular season and postseason games - Rolle started every one – and Kenny Phillips missed only one. The three safeties were often on the field at the same time. Rolle led the team with 96 tackles and intercepted two passes, Phillips had 72 tackles and four picks and Grant had 58 tackles, an interception and a sack.

The safeties were the most improved unit on the team in 2010. Rolle and Grant – newcomers that year - teamed with Phillips (who missed most of the previous season after undergoing knee surgery) – to form a versatile and productive trio. Rolle started all 16 games, was the Giants' second-leading tackler with 100, and was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Phillips started 15 games and had 88 tackles. Grant had eight starts and, like Rolle, was often deployed close to the line of scrimmage. He had 68 tackles. The Giants were ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense and ninth in pass defense that season.

In 2009, Merritt molded a functioning safety unit after his best player, Phillips, was lost for the season following the second game because of the knee surgery. Five different players started at safety for the Giants that year, including converted cornerback Aaron Ross. Despite the shuffling, the Giants were ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense.

Merritt has demonstrated a knack for developing players who were not highly-touted entering the NFL. When the Giants won the NFC East title in 2008, the starting safeties were Michael Johnson, a seventh-round draft choice, and James Butler, who joined the team as an undrafted free agent. That season, Johnson and Butler tied for second on the team with 76 tackles apiece. They also combined for five interceptions.

In the Giants' 2007 Super Bowl season, one of the team's best defensive players was free safety Gibril Wilson, who arrived as a fifth-round draft choice. Wilson led the club with 33 postseason tackles, was second with 96 regular season tackles, and was one of the top free agent safeties in 2008.

Merritt assumed his current position prior to the 2006 season. In 2005, he was the Giants' defensive assistant coach. The previous year, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004 after spending three seasons with the Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96 and for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992, when he led the conference in tackles. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from N.C. State.

In 2012, Merritt was a member of the inaugural class of the Millbrook (N.C.) High School Sports Hall of Fame.

Merritt and his wife Yolonda have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson, and a daughter, Drayah. He also has an older daughter, Kiki, who attends college in Atlanta.

ROBERT NUNN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Robert Nunn is in his 26th season as a football coach, his 14th in the NFL and his fourth coaching the Giants' defensive line.

Nunn's defensive line is one of the most respected in the NFL. In 2012, the unit accounted for 23.5 of the team's 33 sacks (not counting 3.0 by Mathias Kiwanuka, who was listed as a linebacker, but frequently played up front). Jason Pierre-Paul led the Giants in sacks for the second year in a row with 6.5 and was a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team, his second selection to the game. Defensive tackle Linval Joseph was fifth on the team with 72 tackles (39 solo) and had a career-high 4.0 sacks.

In 2011, the line had 41.5 of the Giants' 48 sacks, which tied for the league's second-highest total (not counting 3.5 by Kiwanuka).

Pierre-Paul had a dominating sophomore NFL season, finishing with 16.5 sacks, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 sacks in a season. Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. He was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December – when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month.

Osi Umenyiora was second on the team with 9.0 sacks despite missing seven games because of preseason knee surgery and an ankle injury suffered on Nov. 28 in New Orleans. Umenyiora and Justin Tuck tied for the Giants' postseason sack lead with 3.5 apiece. Tuck had both of the Giants' sacks of Tom Brady in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

Nunn also helped develop a sturdy tandem of tackles in Chris Canty and Joseph, who improved rapidly in his second pro season.

In 2010, the defensive line played at a high level throughout the season and helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense and eighth against the run. The Giants were second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 46 sacks, led the league with 39 takeaways and the line was responsible for 21 of the team's 29 forced fumbles.

Umenyiora and Tuck, a 2010 Pro Bowler, tied for fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL – and the team lead – with 11.5 sacks each, the first time the Giants had two players with at least that many sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Strahan finished with 11.5.

Umenyiora and Tuck each had three sacks on Oct. 3, when the Giants totaled 10 in a 17-3 victory over Chicago. It was Umenyiora's highest total in one game since he set a team record with six sacks against the Eagles when the team had 12 on Sept. 30, 2007. Tuck set a career high with his three sacks.

Umenyiora led the Giants and tied an NFL record with 10 forced fumbles, tying Jason Taylor's record set in 2006 with Miami. The stat has been kept since 1994. Tuck was first in the league with five recoveries of opponent fumbles.

Defensive tackle Barry Cofield had 68 tackles (36 solo, six for losses) and a career-high 4.0 sacks.

Pierre-Paul, a first-round draft choice in 2010, finished the season with 4.5 sacks, the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games.

Nunn was the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' defensive line coach in 2009. Prior to his season with the Bucs, Nunn spent four years (2005-2008) coaching the Green Bay Packers' defensive tackles. In 2008, Nunn oversaw a deep and talented rotation on the interior of the Packers defensive line. Two of Nunn's players, Johnny Jolly and Ryan Pickett, ranked in the top five in tackles among Green Bay defenders that season. Jolly set a new career high with 82 stops. Pickett, who joined the Packers as a free agent acquisition in 2006, thrived under Nunn as he tallied 236 tackles, 2.5 sacks and 13 passes defensed the past three seasons. Nunn's guidance also contributed to the emergence of Corey Williams in 2006, when the then third-year pro turned in his best season with 47 tackles and seven sacks.

In 2005, Nunn helped elevate the Packers' defense from 25th in the NFL before his arrival to seventh in the league. Under Nunn's direction, Grady Jackson started all 16 games for only the second time as a pro and responded with career bests in tackles (72) and passes defensed (four).

Nunn entered the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2000. The following year, he was promoted to assistant defensive line/quality control coach. He held that role for two years (2001-2002), during which time he worked with Pro Bowler Jason Taylor.

In 2003, Nunn coached the Washington Redskins' defensive line. One of his players was Bruce Smith, who broke the late Reggie White's NFL career sacks record. Nunn also tutored veteran standouts Renaldo Wynn and Regan Upshaw.

Nunn returned to Miami in 2004 as a special assistant. He began the year working on off-the-field projects and then assisted with the linebackers after Coach Dave Wannstedt resigned with seven games left in the season.

Nunn's 12-year college coaching experience was highlighted by nine years at Georgia Military College in Milledgeville, Georgia. After one season as defensive coordinator, the school promoted him to head coach and athletic director in 1992. In his eight seasons holding that position, Nunn posted an outstanding 66-19 record.

He launched his coaching career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in 1988, heading up the defensive line. He then tutored defensive ends at the University of Tennessee for two seasons (1989-1990).

A four-year letterman (1984-1987) as a linebacker at Oklahoma State, Nunn served as team captain in 1987. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education from the school in 1988.

Nunn and his wife Karen have five children: one daughter, Josie, and four sons, Noah, Jacob, Nathan and Johnny.

JERRY PALMIERI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

New Jersey native and longtime Tom Coughlin assistant Jerry Palmieri is in his 10th season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri is one of the NFL's most respected conditioning coaches. He was honored as the 2007 Samson's NFL Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful and productive athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at the University of North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from MetLife Stadium. He received a master's degree is exercise physiology from North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri was a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competitions as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was raised in Dumont, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have two married children. MARKUS PAUL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Markus Paul, a former NFL player who has won five Super Bowl rings as a coach in the league, is in his seventh season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach. Paul works closely with Jerry Palmieri to improve the size, strength, speed and conditioning of the Giants' players.

Paul was on the staff of the Super Bowl-winning Giants in 2007 and 2011 and won three Super Bowl rings with the New England Patriots in 2001, 2003 and 2004.

Prior to joining the Giants, Paul spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the Jets, in 2005 as the director of physical development and the following year as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Before his tenure with the Jets, Paul was the New England Patriots' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He worked under Mike Woicik, who has trained six Super Bowl championship teams.

Paul's first NFL coaching position was as the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1998-99.

A defensive back during his playing career, Paul was the Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft choice in 1989. He played with the Bears until 1993, when he played one game with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Paul played in 71 games with 30 starts at strong or free safety. He intercepted seven passes, which he returned for a total of 100 yards.

A four-year starter at Syracuse University, Paul holds the school record with 19 career interceptions. As a senior in 1988, he was credited with 76 tackles and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Football News. Paul earned a Bachelor of Science degree in retailing.

Paul was raised in Kissimmee, Fla. He and his wife, Patricia, have a son, Jairus, and a daughter, Tabitha.

MICHAEL POPE
TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' head coach and began assembling his staff in January 2004, he retained only one position coach from the previous regime: tight ends coach Michael Pope.

Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical.

"He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 31st consecutive season as an NFL coach. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 33 postseason games, including six Super Bowls, winning four of them.

This the 14th season of Pope's second tour of duty with the Giants and his 23rd as an assistant with the team, more than any coach in the franchise's long history. He is the only coach to participate in each of the Giants' five Super Bowls and the only Giants coach to have his name inscribed on four Lombardi trophies. He also coached in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1996.

Pope enhanced his standing as the NFL's finest tight ends coach in 2012, when Martellus Bennett finished second on the Giants with 55 receptions and five touchdowns and third with 626 receiving yards. In four years with the Dallas Cowboys prior to joining the Giants, Bennett's totals were 85 catches for 846 yards and four scores.

The previous season, Pope helped the inexperienced Jake Ballard became a valuable addition to the passing attack. Ballard joined the team as a rookie free agent in 2010, when he played briefly in one game. But in 2011, he finished fourth on the team with 38 catches and scored four touchdowns, despite missing two games with a knee injury.

In 2009-10, Kevin Boss, a fifth-round draft choice from Western Oregon in 2007, caught 77 passes for 1,098 yards and 10 touchdowns. Boss became a fulltime starter in 2008 and emerged as a reliable receiver and forceful blocker. He had a team-high six touchdown receptions among his 33 catches. Boss' 45-yard catch-and-run in Super Bowl XLII set up the Giants' first touchdown. Both Travis Beckum and Bear Pascoe made significant strides working under Pope as second-year pros in 2010.

Pope's guidance and teaching helped make Jeremy Shockey one of the NFL's best tight ends. From 2002-06, Shockey was voted to the Pro Bowl four times. His 371 career receptions place him fourth on the Giants' career list (behind Amani Toomer, Tiki Barber and Joe Morrison).

Shockey was the Giants' first-round draft choice in 2002, when he caught 74 passes, a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl – Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope was re-hired by the Giants on Feb. 11, 2000. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense that season, which ended with the team winning the NFC championship and playing in Super Bowl XXXV. He has further energized it the last decade by overseeing the development of Shockey and then Boss.

Pope was a member of Bill Parcells' Giants' coaching staff from 1983-91. He left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the New England Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as a receivers coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College, where his team won one national championship and was runner-up a second time. The team's combined record during his playing career was 34-8-3. An all-conference player, Pope was team captain and MVP as a senior. He was also inducted into Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and was the "Team Before Self" award winner as a senior. Pope is a member of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. A shoulder injury ended Pope's World Football League career after one year.

Pope was born in Monroe, N.C. Michael and his wife, Lee have two sons. Travus spends his time between Naples, Fla., where he runs a hedge fund, and Hollywood, Calif., where he is a co-producer in the movie industry. Daron lives in New York City and runs the business side of his wife's company: Rosie Pope Maternity and Mom Prep. Rosie, a native of London, is the star of Bravo's "Pregnant in Heels." Along with their busy television and business life, they are the parents of three young children: sons, J.R. and Wellington (named after the Giants' late, beloved owner), and a daughter, Vivienne Madison Pope, born on Mother's Day, 2012.

Tight ends coach Michael Pope is the only member of the Giants coaching staff who was with the team for each of the franchise's four Super Bowl-winning teams, spanning the 26 years from 1986-2012.

RYAN ROEDER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Ryan Roeder is in his first season as the Giants' offensive assistant. He replaced Lunda Wells, who is now the team's assistant offensive line coach.

Roeder spent the previous three years at Princeton University, where he served as tight ends coach and directed the kickoff return and punt return units. In 2012, he helped tight end Mark Hayes earn All-Ivy League honors.

In 2009, Roeder coached the wide receivers at the University of Rhode Island, assisting Shawn Leonard in leading the Colonial Athletic Association in touchdown receptions and earning All-CAA League honors.

From 2006 to 2008, Roeder was the offensive graduate assistant at Temple University. Prior to his position at Temple, he served as running backs coach at the University at Albany (2005) and assistant offensive line coach at the College of the Holy Cross (2004).

As a player, Roeder was named first-team All-Northeast Conference quarterback (2002) and served as team captain leading Albany to the 2002 NEC and ECAC championships. He passed for 1,366 yards as a senior with eight passing and eight rushing touchdowns. Roeder ranks third on the career passing list and fifth in total offense in the school's record books.

Roeder received his undergraduate degree in a dual major of communications and psychology in 2002, and earned a master's degree in Educational Administration from the University at Albany in 2009.

Roeder and his wife Megan have a daughter Lucie, born in early 2013.

SEAN RYAN

QUARTERBACKS

Sean Ryan is in his second season as the Giants' quarterbacks coach and seventh year as a member of Tom Coughlin's staff.

Prior to assuming his present position, Ryan spent two years as the team's wide receivers coach. Prior to assuming that position he spent three years as the Giants' offensive quality control coach.

In his first season working with Ryan, Manning completed 321 of 536 passes for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns and 15 interceptions and a passer rating of 87.2. Manning threw a career-high five touchdown passes in the season-ending victory over Philadelphia. Under Ryan, Manning had his eighth consecutive season in which he threw for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-12.

The Giants' wide receivers were very productive in their two seasons under Ryan. In 2011, the unit helped the Giants set franchise records with 359 completions and 4,734 net passing yards. Victor Cruz, who did not have a career reception entering the season, caught 82 passes for 1,536 yards and nine touchdowns. The 82 receptions tied Amani Toomer (2002) for what was then second place on the Giants' single-season list and Cruz's 1,536 yards broke Toomer's former team record by 193 yards. Hakeem Nicks caught 76 passes for a career-high 1,192 yards and seven touchdowns. Under Ryan, Cruz and Nicks became the first receivers to have more than 1,000 yards in the same season. Another receiver, the since-departed Mario Manningham, made perhaps the most important grab of the season for a 38-yard gain in the fourth quarter of the Giants' Super Bowl XLVI victory over New England.

The wide receivers played impressively in 2010, their first season with Ryan as their position coach. Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns, despite missing three games because of injury. His 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the third-highest total in Giants history. Manningham added nine touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine.

Manningham was second on the team with 60 catches for 944 yards and those nine scores. In the final two games, he caught Eli Manning touchdown passes of 85 and 92 yards that were two of the nine longest pass plays in the 86-year history of the Giants.

Ryan came to the Giants from Harvard University, where he spent the 2006 season as recruiting coordinator, running backs coach, and head coach of the junior varsity.

Prior to his year at Harvard, Ryan was as an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons. In 2003 and 2004, Ryan was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, Ryan coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany (where the Giants hold training camp) in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y. – north of Albany - Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

LUNDA WELLS

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Lunda Wells is in his second season on the Giants' coaching staff and his first season as the team's assistant offensive line coach. He will work closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. Wells replaced Matt Rhule, who left the Giants after one season to become the head coach at Temple University.

In 2011, Wells held the title of offensive assistant coach.

Before joining the Giants' staff, Wells spent four seasons at LSU. In 2008-09, he was an offensive line assistant. In addition to his practice and game day duties working with the offensive line, Wells' administrative responsibilities included self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents and developing scouting reports.

In his final two years at LSU, Wells was an assistant to the head coach and an assistant to special teams coach Thomas McGaughey, who was a member of the Giants' coaching staff from 2007-10. Wells worked with LSU head coach Les Miles on game day responsibilities (charting opponents' defensive and special teams schemes from the coaches' booth), practice preparation, administrative tasks and recruiting duties, and with McGaughey on self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents, assisting with the game plan and scouting reports.

In 2010, Wells was an offensive line intern in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp, where he worked alongside coach Hudson Houck.

Wells was the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and head strength and conditioning coach at Scotlandville High School in Baton Rouge in 2006-07. He coached the offensive line and devised the offensive run game plans.

An offensive lineman, Wells played in the Arena Football League for the Grand Rapids Rampage, South Georgia Rampage and Louisiana Swashbucklers.

Wells was a four-year starter at guard at Southern University (2002-05). In 2002 and 2005, he was voted to the All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team. Southern won the 2003 SWAC championship. Wells blocked for two quarterbacks who were named SWAC Player of the Year. In addition to his conference title ring, Wells earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and, in 2007, a master's degree in criminal justice at Southern.

Wells is a native of Baker, La., just outside Baton Rouge. He was a Class 5A first-team all-state offensive line selection at Baker High School. Wells was recruited by powerhouses like Alabama and Nebraska.

Wells is married to Tiffany. They have a daughter, Adanya Neema.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd-round (33rd pick overall) draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers in 2005…Signed by the Giants as a free agent on July 29, 2011.

GIANTS NOTE:
- In each of the last 2 seasons in San Francisco, Baas received the Bobb McKittrick Award, given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents courage, intensity and sacrifice.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 119 regular season games with 81 starts and started all 4 postseason games in which he played…Baas played in 67 consecutive games and made 45 consecutive starts before he was inactive vs. Seattle (10/09/11)…Has started games at center (16 in 2010, 11 in 2011, 16 in 2012), left guard (9 in 2008 and 16 in 2009) and right guard (5 in 2005, 8 in 2007).
- In 2012, Baas started all 16 games at center. It was the 5th time he played every game and the 3rd time he started each 1 (also 2009 and 2010 with San Francisco)…Baas was part of a line that allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks and helped the Giants average 116.4 rushing yards a game, a 27.2-yard improvement over 2011. The line did not give up a sack in 3 consecutive games from Sept. 30 to Oct. 14. The Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.
- In 2011, started all 11 regular-season games in which he played and 4 postseason games at center in his 1st season with the Giants…Was inactive for 5 games: vs. Seattle (10/9), at New England (11/6) and 3 games vs. Green Bay (12/4), at Dallas (12/11) and vs. Washington (12/18)…Was a member of the line that helped the Giants offense set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. With the line providing excellent protection for Eli Manning, the 2011 Giants established team records for completions with 359, had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the 1st time in their history and finished 5th in the NFL in passing yards, their highest ranking since they finished 5th in 1984…In Super Bowl XLVI, the line helped the Giants outgain New England, 396-349, and hold a time of possession advantage of 37:05-22:55
- In 2010, started all 16 games at center for San Francisco after moving from left guard when a broken fibula sidelined Eric Heitmann in training camp. At season's end, he was named the recipient of the Bob McKittrick Award for 2nd consecutive season…Made 1st career start at center at Seattle (9/12)…Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 32 pass attempts by Alex Smith vs. New Orleans (9/20)…Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 19 pass attempts by Troy Smith vs. Denver (10/31).
- In 2009, started all 16 games at left guard…Helped the team rush for a season-high 246 yards. vs. Seattle (9/20)….Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack of Alex Smith on any of his 41 pass attempts vs. Jacksonville (11/29), the 1st time the 49ers did not give up a sack since 11/10/08 at Arizona.
- In 2008, played in all 16 games, starting the final 9 at left guard…Originally penciled in as a starter entering the offseason, but a torn pectoral muscle suffered in April held him out for the majority of training camp…Made 1st career start at left guard vs. Seattle (10/26), replacing Adam Snyder in starting lineup.
- In 2007, played in 15 games with 8 starts...Took over at right guard after Justin Smiley suffered a shoulder injury at Atlanta (11/14)…Made his 1st start of the season at right guard at Seattle (11/12)…Did not play in the season opener vs. Arizona (9/10), the last time he missed a game.
- In 2006, played in all 16 games, including 3 on the offensive line…Saw action at center at Denver (12/31), helping the offense rush for 198 yards in a 26-23 overtime victory.
- As a rookie in 2005, played in 13 games, starting the final 5 games at right guard…Was 1 of 9 49ers' draft choices who played in a game in 2005…Made his career debut on special teams vs. Arizona in Mexico City (10/2)…First career start was at right guard vs. Arizona (12/4). Center Jeremy Newberry was injured, so Eric Heitmann moved from guard to center and Baas stepped in at guard.

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter and 4-year letter-winner at Michigan…Redshirted in 2000…The following year, played in 6 games with 1 start at left guard…In 2002 and 2003, started every game at left guard and was a 2-time All-Big Ten selection by the league's coaches and media…As a junior in 2003, was also a 2nd-team AP All-America…In 2004, was named the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year…Started the first 3 games at left guard before shifting to center…Winner of the Hugh H. - Brown had impressed the coaches with an impressive rookie training camp in 2009 before rupturing his Achilles tendon and undergoing season-ending surgery…Made the Giants' 53-man roster for the 1st time in 2012 after his 4th training camp with the team.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 14 games with 2 starts…Entered the 2012 season with 2 career carries for minus-1 yards before enjoying a break year…Played in 10 games with 2 starts before suffering a season-ending fractured fibula vs. Green Bay (11/25)… Brown led the team with 8 rushing touchdowns – including a score in each of 5 consecutive games from Oct. 21 to Nov. 25 – while finishing 2nd on the team with 73 carries for 385 yards…Replaced an injured Ahmad Bradshaw vs. Tampa Bay (9/16) and had 13 carries for 71 yards, 2 receptions for 19 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 2-yard run with 31 seconds remaining…Made his NFL starting debut at Carolina (9/20), where he rushed for 113 yards on 20 carries, both career-high totals, and scored 2 touchdowns…Brown's rushing yardage total was the highest by Giants players making his first NFL start since the 1970 merger. Brown and wide receiver Ramses Barden were the first set of teammates to have 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in the same game while making their first NFL starts since Sept. 12, 1999, when Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (112 rushing yards) and E.G. Green (124 receiving yards) accomplished the feat vs. Buffalo…Brown was the Giants' first 100-yard rusher since Brandon Jacobs ran for 101 yards at Dallas on Dec. 11, 2011…Brown's 113 rushing yards was the highest total by a Giants back since Jacobs ran for 116 vs. the Vikings in Detroit on Dec. 13, 2010…Scored touchdowns in consecutive games vs. Washington (10/21), at Dallas (10/28), vs. Pittsburgh (11/4), at Cincinnati (11/11) and vs. Green Bay (11/25)…Rushed for 65 yards at the Bengals and 64 vs. the Packers before breaking his fibula on a 16-yard run in the 4th quarter.
- In 2011, spent the entire regular season and post-season on the Giants' practice squad…In the preseason, Brown had a team-high 33 rushing attempts for 106 yards, with a long run of 11 yards.
- In 2010, Brown played in 4 games - 3 for the Denver Broncos and 1 for the Indianapolis Colts. He had his first 2 NFL carries (for minus-1 yard) for the Broncos at Baltimore on Oct. 10. Brown also saw brief action on special teams.
- In 2009, spent his entire rookie season on injured reserve after rupturing his left Achilles tendon in a training camp practice on Aug. 14…Brown was running a pass pattern down the right side of the field when he jumped to catch a pass thrown by Andre Woodson. He crumpled to the ground and instantly grabbed his left leg. Brown later said he suffered the injury as he went up for the ball. The tendon was surgically repaired.

COLLEGE:

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on April 25, 2010.

GIANTS NOTE:
- In 2012, Cruz was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, where he set the game record with 10 receptions in the NFC's 62-35 victory. He was only the 2nd Giants wide receiver to be elected to the Pro Bowl since Homer Jones in 1968; Steve Smith was chosen in 2009 after he caught a franchise-record 107 passes.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 35 regular-season games with 23 starts and he started all 4 postseason games in which he played…Career totals include 168 receptions for 2,628 yards (15.6-yard avg.) and 19 touchdowns…In the postseason Cruz has caught 21 passes for 269 yards and 1 touchdown.
- In 2012, started all 16 games. Led the Giants with 86 receptions for 1,092 yards and 10 touchdowns. He is the first the first player in Giants' history with 80 catches, 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns in a single season. Cruz has back-to-back seasons with at least 80 receptions, 1,000 yards and 9 touchdown seasons. No other Giants receiver has 1.
- Cruz's 86 receptions were the 2nd-highest total in Giants history, trailing only Steve Smith's 107 catches in 2009.
- Cruz's 86 catches placed him 7th in the NFC and 12th in the NFL and his 1,092 yards were 10th in the conference and 15th in the league. He was 1 of 10 NFL players with at least 10 touchdown catches…Cruz caught at least 3 passes in every game but 1 (at Dallas on 10/28, when he had 2 receptions).
- Concluded the season with 4 catches for 52 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown, vs. Philadelphia (12/30).
- Cruz caught 8 passes for 121 yards and a touchdown vs. New Orleans (12/9). It was his 12th career 100-yard game, tying him with Kyle Rote and Earnest Gray for 4th place on the Giants' career list. Del Shofner is 3rd with 13. Amani Toomer holds the team record with 22 100-yard games.
- Cruz had 7 receptions for 131 yards and put the Giants ahead for good with a 77-yard touchdown catch from Eli Manning with 1:13 remaining vs. Washington (10/21), the longest game-winning touchdown in the final 2 minutes of a game in franchise history.
- Cruz caught 5 passes for 50 yards and 3 touchdowns vs. Cleveland (10/7). He was the 1st Giant to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Ahmad Bradshaw had three 1-yard scoring runs vs. Buffalo on Oct. 16, 2011 and the 1st to catch 3 touchdown passes since Hakeem Nicks vs. Carolina on Sept. 10, 2010.
- Had 9 receptions for 109 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown, at Philadelphia (9/30).
- On Sept. 16 vs. Tampa Bay, Cruz caught a career-high 11 passes for 179 yards and Nicks added 10 receptions for 199 yards. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Giants were 1st team in NFL history with 2 players with at least 10 catches and at least 175 receiving yards in the same game…It was the 2nd time in their history the Giants had 2 receivers with at least 10 catches in the same game. On Sept. 20, 2009 at Dallas, Mario Manningham had 10 receptions for 150 yards and a touchdown and Smith had 10 catches for 134 yards and a score… Cruz's 11 receptions included an 80-yard touchdown… Eli Manning threw for 510 yards against the Buccaneers. According to the NFL, Manning, Cruz and Nicks joined three Hall of Famers – quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and receivers Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsh and Tom Fears of the 1951 Los Angeles Rams - as the only teammates in history with 500 passing yards, plus 2 receivers with at least 150 yards, in the same game.
- Cruz was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, where he set the game record with 10 receptions. He was only the 2nd Giants wide receiver to be elected to the Pro Bowl since Homer Jones in 1968; Smith was chosen in 2009 after he caught a franchise-record 107 passes.
- In 2011, Cruz enjoyed a breakout season in leading the Giants in all major receiving statistical categories, set franchise records and scored the team's 1 touchdown in the 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.
- In 2011, Cruz played in all 16 regular-season games with 7 starts and started all 4 postseason games…Led the Giants with 82 receptions for 1,536 yards and 9 touchdowns. In the postseason, Cruz had 21 catches for 269 yards and 1 touchdown.
- Cruz's 1,536 yards were a Giants record, breaking Amani Toomer's former mark by 193 yards (Toomer had 1,343 yards in 2002). The yardage total left Cruz 3rd in the NFL, behind only Detroit's Calvin Johnson and New England's Wes Welker and directly in front of Arizona's Larry Fitzgerald. Johnson was the 2nd overall selection of the 2007 NFL Draft and Fitzgerald was picked 3rd in 2004. Welker and Cruz entered the NFL as undrafted free agents.
- Cruz was the first Giants player to finish in the top 3 in the NFL in receiving yards since Toomer in 2002.

- Cruz was the 11th player (and 10th wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Joined with Hakeem Nicks (1,192) to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season for the 1st time in team history.
- Cruz's 18.7-yard average was the highest among the 72 NFL players who had at least 50 catches in 2011 and was the highest by a Giant with at least 50 receptions since Del Shofner averaged 21.4 yards on 53 catches in 1962. No NFL receiver had averaged at least 18.7 yards on at least 82 catches since St. Louis' Torry Holt in 2000 (19.9-yard average on 82 receptions).
- In the Giants' NFC East-clinching victory over Dallas (1/1/12), Cruz caught 6 passes for 178 yards, a 29.7-yard average that was the highest in a game by a Giant with at least 6 receptions since Toomer averaged 30.2 yards (6 catches for 181 yards) in a victory over the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999.
- The 178 yards was the highest total by a Giant since Plaxico Burress had 205 in a victory over St. Louis on Oct. 2, 2005.
- Cruz had seven 100-yard games in 2011, breaking the former franchise record of 5, set by Shofner in 1963 and tied by Homer Jones in 1968.
- Cruz had 4 touchdown receptions of more than 70 yards in 2011. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, no pro player had done that since Otis Taylor of the then AFL Kansas City Chiefs in 1966. No Giants receiver had accomplished the feat since Jones in 1965.
- Cruz also had a 68-yard touchdown reception. His 5 touchdown catches of at least 65 yards were the 2nd-most in a season in NFL history. The record of 6 was set by Hall of Famer Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch in 1951.
- From Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, Cruz had 128 receiving yards vs. Philadelphia, 157 at New Orleans and 119 vs. Green Bay to become the 4th Giants receiver in history with 3 consecutive 110+ yard games, joining Shofner (1963), Jones (1968) and Mario Manningham (2010). No Giant has ever had 4 consecutive 110-yard receiving games.
- Cruz had 4 receptions for 25 yards in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5)… Scored the game's 1st touchdown on a 2-yard pass from Eli Manning with 3:23 left in the 1st quarter.
- Caught 10 passes for 142 yards (including 8 for 125 yards in the 1st half) in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22). The 10 receptions tied Cruz with Ike Hilliard for the 2nd-highest total by a Giant in a postseason game. The record of 11 was set by Plaxico Burress in the 2007 NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. The 10 catches tie Cruz with 3 other players, including Hilliard, for the 3rd-highest total ever in a championship game.
- Cruz's 142 yards was the 5th-highest postseason total in Giants history and was 9 yards behind Burress' 151 in Green Bay, which is 4th.
- Had his first 2 career catches (for 17 yards) vs. St. Louis (9/19).
- Caught 3 passes for 110 yards and his first 2 NFL touchdowns (for 74 and 28 yards) at Philadelphia (9/25).
- Finished with 8 receptions for 161 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown on a pass that he juggled and then secured, vs. Seattle (10/9).
- Had 6 receptions for 84 yards and returned 3 punts for 12 yards at San Francisco (11/13).
- Caught 6 passes for 128 yards, including a 24-yarder for the Giants' only touchdown, vs. Philadelphia (11/20). Also lined up as the punt returner and had 2 fair catches.
- Had a career regular-season-high 9 catches for 157 yard, including touchdowns of 72 and 4 yards, at New Orleans (11/28).
- Cruz had his 3rd consecutive 100-yard game when he caught 7 passes for 119 yards vs. Green Bay (12/11).
- Contributed 3 receptions for 164 yards at Jets (12/24). Turned a short pass from Manning into a 99-yard touchdown in the 2nd quarter. It was the longest play from scrimmage in Giants history, eclipsing a 98-yard pass from Earl Morrall to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966. It was the 4th pass of at least 90 yards in Giants history.
- Finished the regular season with 6 catches for a career-high 178 yards including a 74-yard touchdown, vs. Dallas (1/1).
- In 2010, played in 3 regular season games with majority of his action coming on special teams…Also played as the 4th wide receiver vs. Chicago (10/3)… Placed on injured reserve with a hamstring injury on Oct. 16…In the preseason, Cruz had team-high totals of 15 receptions for 297 yards and 4 touchdowns…Scored touchdowns on receptions of 64, 34 and 5 yards while catching 6 passes for 145 yards in a preseason victory over the Jets (8/16)…Added a 1-yard touchdown catch at Baltimore (8/28).

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 5th round (160th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Tough, durable and versatile offensive lineman missed only 7 games in his first 10 seasons with the Giants. Diehl started the first 120 regular-season games and 7 postseason games in his career, the longest such streak by a Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978. The streak ended on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas because of hip and hamstring injuries Diehl suffered the previous week in Seattle.
- Diehl was the only player selected in the 2003 NFL Draft to start every game from 2003-09. He was 1 of 4 players who entered the league in 2003 and played in every regular-season game through the end of the 2009 season. The others were Josh Brown, Derrick Dockery and Visanthe Shiancoe.
- During the streak, Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie, 16 at right tackle in 2004, 15 games at left guard and 1 game at right tackle in 2005, 15 games at left guard and 1 at left tackle in 2006, 16 games at left tackle in 2007, 2008 and 2009, and 7 at left tackle and 1 at left guard in 2010. After sitting out 4 games, Diehl started 3 games at left tackle and 1 at left guard.
- Now in his 11th season, Diehl is the Giants' longest-tenured player. He has played in 153 regular-season games, the 18th-highest total in franchise history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 153 regular-season games with 149 starts and has started all 11 postseason games in which he has played since joining the team in 2003.
- Diehl has started games at every position on the offensive line but center. In the regular season, he has started 65 games at left tackle, 42 at left guard, 26 at right tackle, and 16 at right guard. In the postseason, Diehl has 10 starts at left tackle, and 1 at left guard.
- Diehl started 120 consecutive games before sitting out the 1st of 4 consecutive games on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas. He suffered hamstring and hip injuries at Seattle (11/7). When he did not play the following week vs. Dallas, it ended the streak. Diehl is the only Giant other than Eli Manning (135 consecutive starts entering the 2013 season) to start at least 100 consecutive games since 1978.
- In 2012, played in 13 games with 9 starts at right tackle…Started the season's first 2 games before suffering a knee injury vs. Tampa Bay (9/16), forcing him to miss the next 3 games…Diehl did not start in his return to action at San Francisco (10/14), where he was used as an extra tight end. It was the 1st time in his career that Diehl played as a substitute. He had started the 1st 142 regular-season games and 11 postseason games in which he played. Diehl returned to the starting lineup for the first of 3 consecutive games vs. Pittsburgh (11/4)…Injured his shoulder vs. Green Bay (11/25) and was replaced in the starting lineup by Sean Locklear at Washington (12/3)…Came on when Locklear suffered a knee injury and started the season's last 4 games.
- Diehl was part of a line that allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks and helped the Giants average 116.4 rushing yards a game, a 27.2-yard improvement over 2011. The line did not give up a sack in 3 consecutive games from Sept. 30 to Oct. 14. The Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.
- In 2011, Diehl started all 16 regular-season games for the 8th time in his first 9 seasons. He also started each of the Giants' 4 postseason games. Diehl started the season's first 10 games at left guard. After Will Beatty was sidelined following eye surgery, Diehl started the final 6 regular season games and all 4 postseason games at left tackle.
- Diehl and the offensive line helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI behind one of the NFL's most productive offenses. The Giants were 9th in the NFL with 394 points and established franchise records with 6,161 total yards (385.1 a game, which ranked 8th in the NFL) and 4,734 net passing yards. The line blocked well enough for Manning to throw for 4,933 yards, the 6th-highest total in NFL history…In the playoffs, the Giants averaged 402.5 total yards a game.
- In 2010, Diehl started all 12 games in which he played – 10 at left tackle and 2 at left guard (at Seattle and at Washington)…Inactive with hamstring and hip injuries vs. Dallas (11/14), at Philadelphia (11/21), vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and vs. Washington (12/5).
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.

- In 2009, Diehl started all 16 games at left tackle and was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl. He played the entire game at right tackle in the NFC's 41-34 loss… Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Rosie Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha – also a tackle, guard and center – all received the honor)…Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure…Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.

- In 2008, Diehl started all 16 games at left tackle and was selected to the All-NFC team by the Pro Football Writers Association as well as being named a Pro Bowl alternate…He was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, then the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Diehl and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.

- With the line opening holes, the Giants rushed for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history…Diehl and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.

- In 2007, Diehl started all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games at left tackle. Diehl was a key component of an offense that helped the Giants score 373 points (the 5th-highest total in franchise history) and compile 321 first downs (the 4th-highest total by a Giants team) and 5,302 yards (7th in team history). The line's blocking enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game.

- Diehl and the line allowed just 4 total sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 30-Oct. 28.

- In 2006, Diehl started the first 15 games at left guard before shifting to tackle for the regular-season finale and the NFC Wild Card Game. Started at left tackle at Washington (12/30), where the line allowed 1 sack and provided enough run blocking for the Giants to rush for 261 rushing yards, including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber…Also played left guard in the game after Grey Ruegamer was sidelined temporarily in the 1st half with a leg laceration…Started at left tackle in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)…Run blocking helped the Giants gain 151 yards on 31 rushes.

- In 2005, started 15 games (plus the NFC Wild Card Game) at left guard and 1 at right tackle. The line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards…Pass blocking helped Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history… Blocking at left guard helped Barber rush for 203 yards, including a franchise-best 95-yard touchdown run, at Oakland (12/31)…Started at right tackle in place of Kareem McKenzie vs. Kansas City (12/17) and line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a then-team record 220 yards.

- In 2004, Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle. He missed a snap for the 1st time in his career when he left the game for a play in the 4th quarter with a cut below the eye at Green Bay (10/3). Returned to the game and helped the Giants rush for 245 yards.

- In 2003, Diehl played right guard and became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985…Was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games…Was 1 of only 3 offensive linemen on the roster to see action in all 16 games, was 1 of only 2 to start every game during the year and was the only 1 to start at the same position each game during the 2003 season… Earned team Rookie of the Year honors along with Osi Umenyiora.

COLLEGE:

- Second-team All-Big Ten Conference selection as a senior in 2002.

- Earned All-Conference honors, named All-Region and All-Big Ten by the National Recruiting Advisor…Was also a five-time Academic All Big-Ten.

- Recipient of the Wright Commitment to Excellence Award, presented to the Illinois player who has dedicated himself to academic excellence despite obstacles faced during his collegiate career…Earned a bachelor's degree in communications and a master's degree in human resources.

- As a senior, started every game at left guard, registering 91 knockdowns for an offense that featured its first 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season since 1984. Helped offense total 5,356 yards.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Received the 2012 Wellington Mara Award at the Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York annual Vision of Hope awards dinner…Diehl is a strong supporter of Project Sunshine, a nonprofit organization that provides free educational, recreational, and social programs to children facing medical challenges and their families. Besides making regular hospital visits through the organization, David has hosted events to raise funds for their programs, including a Project Sunshine BBQ at Woodhull Hospital in Brooklyn. He brings numerous teammates with him to enjoy a day of friendship and good food with kids receiving medical treatments. Project Sunshine sends volunteers to visit hospitalized children to provide arts and crafts, tutoring, reading, nutritional cooking and special events. He was the recipient of the 2009 Project Sunshine Volunteer Award for the work done on behalf of children and families living with medical challenges. Diehl has continued to work tirelessly for the organization.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick, and 2005 1st and 5th-round selections.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL…Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft by the Indianapolis Colts, is a 4-time NFL Most Valuable Player and was the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI. Peyton Manning is in his 2nd season with the Denver Broncos, whom he led to the AFC West title in 2012.
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Manning won the Rozelle Trophy as the Most Valuable Player in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. He is 1 of 5 players in NFL history to win multiple Super Bowl MVP awards (Joe Montana, 3; Tom Brady, Terry Bradshaw and Bart Starr, 2 apiece).
- Manning is the 1st Giants player to win the Rozelle Trophy multiple times. Previous Giants Super Bowl MVPs include quarterback Phil Simms (Super Bowl XXI) and running back Ottis Anderson (Super Bowl XXV).
- Manning hit 9 different targets while completing 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8) in the Giants' 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI on Feb. 5, 2012. It was the 25th time in Super Bowl history a quarterback has won the MVP award (18 different quarterbacks; Baltimore's Joe Flacco became the 19th in Super Bowl XLVII).
- In Super Bowl XLII, Manning was named MVP after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands. It was the 2nd year in a row a Manning won the award; his brother received the honor after Super Bowl XLI the previous season.
- Manning is 1 of 30 different starting quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl and 1 of 2 Mannings. Peyton led the Indianapolis Colts to the title in 2006. The Mannings were the 18th set of brothers to play in the Super Bowl and the 1st pair of brothers to play quarterback.
- Manning is 1 of 20 quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl without losing 1.
- Manning was the 11th quarterback to win at least 2 Super Bowls.
- Manning is 1 of 7 quarterbacks taken with the 1st overall selection in the NFL Draft to start a Super Bowl. The others are Terry Bradshaw (4-0 in Super Bowls), Jim Plunkett (2-0), John Elway (2-3), Troy Aikman (3-0), Drew Bledsoe (0-1), and Peyton Manning (1-1). The former No. 1 choices are 14-4 in Super Bowls.
- Manning and Brady were the starting quarterbacks in Super Bowl XLVI, as they were in Super Bowl II. It was the 3rd starting quarterback rematch in Super Bowl history and each resulted in a sweep. Terry Bradshaw and Pittsburgh defeated Roger Staubach and Dallas in Super Bowls X and XIII, and Troy Aikman and Dallas beat Jim Kelly and Buffalo in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII.
- Super Bowl XLVI was the 1st Super Bowl in which both starting quarterbacks had won a Super Bowl MVP award.
- Manning was the 1st quarterback to start 2 Super Bowls for the Giants. In their first 4 Super Bowls, 4 different quarterbacks started for the Giants. The others were Phil Simms, Jeff Hostetler and Kerry Collins. The Giants were the 1st team to start a different quarterback in each of their first 4 Super Bowls. Only 2 other teams have started 4 different quarterbacks in a Super Bowl, though not in the franchise's first 4 games. The Raiders have started Daryle Lamonica, Ken Stabler, Jim Plunkett and Rich Gannon. Washington's four Super Bowl quarterbacks were Billy Kilmer, Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien.
- Manning is the only quarterback to wear No. 10 and win a Super Bowl. The only other starting quarterback to wear No. 10 in a Super Bowl was Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton in Super Bowls VIII, IX and XI.
- Manning has 5 game-winning, 4th-quarter drives in the playoffs. He is 1 of 4 quarterbacks since the 1970 merger to accomplish that feat, joining Tom Brady (7), John Elway (6) and Joe Montana (5).
- In 2011, Manning set an NFL record with 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).
- Manning has thrown at least 1 touchdown pass against each of the NFL's 31 other teams except the Buffalo Bills.
- Manning's record as a starter is 78-57 (.578) in the regular season and 8-3 (.727) in the postseason. The 78 victories are the 2nd-most by a Giants quarterback since Giants Stadium opened in 1976. Simms won 95 games from 1979-93. Manning is 59-41 against the NFC and 19-16 vs. the AFC. He is 29-22 in NFC East games, 40-28 at home and 38-29 on the road.

- Manning's record as a starter in October is 27-5, an .844 winning percentage that is the best of any quarterback with at least 20 starts in the Super Bowl era.
- Manning has started the Giants' last 135 regular-season games, the longest streak among active quarterbacks and the 3rd-longest in history. Only Brett Favre (297) and Peyton Manning (208) started more consecutive games than Manning. San Diego's Philip Rivers, the player for whom Manning was traded during the 2004 NFL Draft, has the 2nd-longest streak among active quarterbacks with 112 consecutive starts.
- Manning's 135 consecutive starts is a record for Giants quarterbacks. The previous mark of 69 starts in a row was set by Fran Tarkenton from 1967-71.
- Since Manning made his first start on Nov. 21, 2004, 147 other quarterbacks have started an NFL regular-season game, including 24 different starters among the other three NFC East teams.
- Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in 8 consecutive seasons, the 5th-longest such streak in NFL history. Peyton Manning holds the record with 13 seasons in a row.
- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 8 consecutive seasons, the 1st to have three 4,000-yard seasons (2009-2011) and the 1st to throw at least 20 touchdown passes 8 years in a row.
- Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-12.
- In 2012, Manning became the Giants' career leader in completions (2,612) and touchdown passes (211). In each category he passed Simms, who had 2,576 completions and 199 touchdown passes.
- Manning is 2nd in Giants history in pass attempts (4,457) and passing yards (31,527). In each category he trails only Simms, who threw 4,647 passes for 33,462 yards.
- Manning's 59.9 completion percentage in 2012 increased his career percentage to 58.60, which moved him past Kerry Collins (58.51) and into 1st place on the Giants' all-time list among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts.
- Manning continues to rise on the NFL's all-time passing lists. His 211 career touchdown passes leave him in 26th place, just one behind Hall of Famer Terry Bradshaw. Manning's 31,527 career yards place him 33rd in history, just 21 yards behind No. 32 John Brodie. Manning is 32nd in pass attempts (4,457, 18 passes behind Ken Anderson) and 30th in completions (2,612, 42 behind Anderson).
- In 2012, Manning led the Giants to 3 victories in games in which they trailed or were tied in the 4th quarter. He has led 23 such regular-season game-winning drives in his career, the 5th-highest total among active quarterbacks. He trails Peyton Manning (48), Tom Brady (30), Drew Brees (29) and Ben Roethlisberger (26) and is immediately ahead of Matt Ryan (22).
- Manning was selected to play in his 3rd Pro Bowl and played in the game for the 2nd time in 2012. Originally a 2nd alternate, he was added to the NFC team when Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers was unable to play because of injuries. Manning completed 16 of 23 passes for 191 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception in the NFC's 62-35 victory. He did was selected but did not play in the 2011 Pro Bowl because the Giants were in the Super Bowl. When he played in his 1st Pro Bowl following the 2008 season Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback to be selected to the game since Simms in 1993.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 137 regular season games with starts in his last 135 appearances and has started all 11 postseason games in which he's played. In the regular season, Manning has completed 2,612 of 4,457 (58.6 %) for 31,527 yards, 211 touchdowns and 144 interceptions for a passer rating of 82.7.
- Manning is 1st in franchise history in completions and touchdown passes, 2nd in attempts and passing yards and 3rd in interceptions.
- Manning's career completion percentage of 58.60 is 1st in Giants history among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts. Kerry Collins is 2nd at 58.51 (1,447-2,473).
- Manning's record as a regular-season starter is 78-57 (.578).
- Manning has 25 300-yard games and a long pass of 99 yards. The Giants are 13-12 in regular-season games in which Manning throws for 300 yards, 2-2 when he throws for 400 yards and 1-0 when he passes for 500 yards. They are 2-0 in his postseason 300-yard games.
- Manning holds the Giants career postseason records with 356 pass attempts, 219 completions, 61.51 completion percentage, 2,516 yards, 17 touchdown passes and is tied for 2nd with Tuffy Leemans with 8 interceptions.
- In 2012, started all 16 games for the 8th consecutive season and completed 321 of 536 passes (59.9 percent) for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns, 15 interceptions and a passer rating of 87.2. His streak of consecutive 4,000-yard seasons ended at 3.
- Originally a 2nd alternate, he played in his 2nd Pro Bowl after Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers pulled out of the game. Manning also played in the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season. He was selected to the NFC team in 2011, but did not play in the game because the Giants advanced to Super Bowl XLVI.
- Established a career high by throwing 5 touchdown passes – 2 to Rueben Randle and 1 apiece to David Wilson, Victor Cruz and Henry Hynoski – vs. Philadelphia (12/30)...That increased his career total to 211 and moved him past Randall Cunningham, Kurt Warner, Kerry Collins and Jim Hart and into 26th place on the NFL's career list… It was the 5th time in history a Giants quarterback threw for at least 5 touchdowns in a game. Hall of Famer Y.A Tittle set the franchise record with 7 vs. Washington on Oct. 28, 1962. Tittle threw 6 scoring passes vs. Dallas on Dec. 16, 1962. Fran Tarkenton threw 5 touchdown passes vs. St. Louis on Oct. 25, 1970, a total matched by Phil Simms at St. Louis on Sept. 7, 1980.
- Manning set a franchise record with his 8th career 4-touchdown game, surpassing Tittle. The Giants are 5-3 in those games…Manning threw 3 touchdowns in a 1st quarter for the 1st time in career. His only other 3-touchdown-pass quarter was in the 4th at Seattle on Sept. 24, 2006, when he helped the Giants close a 42-3 deficit to 42-30.

- Completed 13 of 25 passes for 161 yards and 2 interceptions for a passer rating of 38.9 at Atlanta (12/16)... It was his lowest rating since Dec. 23, 2007, when it was 32.2 in a Giants victory played in inclement weather at Buffalo...Manning's 9-yard pass to Domenik Hixon with about 3½ minutes remaining in the 2nd quarter was the 2,577th completion of Manning's career, a Giants record.
- Completed 22 of 35 passes for 259 yards, 4 touchdowns and 2 interceptions for a passer rating of 99.6 vs. New Orleans (12/9)...It was his 7th career 4-touchdown game, tying Tittle's franchise record.
- Completed 16 of 30 passes for 249 yards and 3 touchdowns vs. Green Bay (11/25)...Increased his career total to 200 touchdown passes to pass Simms (199) and become the Giants' all-time leader…Set the record on a 13-yard touchdown pass to Hakeem Nicks in the 3rd quarter… Manning's streak without a touchdown pass ended after a career-high 106 passes when he threw a 16-yard score to Randle with 2:38 remaining in the first quarter.
- Hit 10 of 24 passes for 125 yards and 1 interception vs. Pittsburgh (11/4)...Increased his career total to 30,005 yards, passing Randall Cunningham (29,979) to become the 34th quarterback in history with at least 30,000 passing yards.
- Completed 15 of 29 passes for 192 yards, no touchdowns and an interception at Dallas (10/28)...Improved his recorded to 4-0 in Cowboys Stadium…The Giants trailed in the 4th quarter, 24-23. It was the 23rd regular-season game in which Manning rallied the Giants from a 4th quarter deficit or tie to win.
- Completed 26 of 40 passes for 337 yards vs. Washington (10/21)...It was his 25th regular-season 300-yard game...Found Victor Cruz deep down field for a game-winning 77-yard touchdown with 1:13 remaining.
- Completed 15 of 28 passes for 193 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions in 26-3 rout of eventual NFC champion 49ers at San Francisco (10/14)…The 193 yards ending his streak of consecutive regular-season games with at least 200 passing yards at 24, the 2nd-longest in history.
- Completed 25 of 37 passes for 259 yards, 3 touchdowns to Cruz and 1 interception vs. Cleveland...Posted his 24th consecutive 200-yard passing game, the 2nd-longest streak in NFL history behind Hall of Famer Dan Fouts' 45 in a row from 1980-83...Led Giants on touchdown drives of 92 and 95 yards.
- Completed 24 of 42 passes for 309 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception at Philadelphia (9/30)...It was Manning's 23rd consecutive game with at least 200 passing yards, breaking a tie with New Orleans' Drew Brees (2007-09) to give Manning the 2nd-longest streak in history.
- Completed 77.1 percent of his passes (27 of 35) for 288 yards and a touchdown at Carolina (9/20).
- Passed for a career-high 510 yards while completing 31 of 51 passes for 510 yards, 3 touchdowns and 3 interceptions in a comeback victory vs. Tampa Bay (9/16). It was the 1st time in Giants history they won a regular season game in which they threw at least 50 passes... Manning's previous career high was 420 yards vs. Seattle on (10/9/11)…His 31 completions tied for the 3rd-highest total of his career. He had a 34-completon game vs. Tennessee (9/26/10), he's had two 33-completion games and this was his third 31-completion game… Manning's 51 passes increased his career total to 4,004, becoming the 2nd Giants quarterback to throw at least 4,000 passes (Phil Simms)... Manning's 510 yards were the 2nd-highest total by a quarterback in Giants history behind Simms' 513 yards at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985... Manning's 510-yard passing performance was the 2nd-highest total by an NFL quarterback in 2012 – and the highest total in a game that was completed in 4 quarters. Houston's Matt Schaub threw for 527 yards in an overtime victory over Jacksonville on Nov. 18…Manning became the 9th quarterback in history to throw for at least 510 yards in a regular-season game…Manning, Cruz (11 receptions for 179 yards) and Hakeem Nicks (10 for 199 yards) joined 3 Hall of Famers – quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and receivers Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsh and Tom Fears of the 1951 Los Angeles Rams - as the only teammates in history with 500 passing yards, plus 2 receivers with at least 150 yards, in the same game.
- Opened the season by completing 21 of 32 passes for 213 yards, 1 touchdown, and no interceptions vs. Dallas (9/5).
- In 2011, Manning started all 16 games and set Giants records for pass attempts (589), completions (359) and yards (4,933). The yardage total was the 4th-highest in the NFL in 2011 and the 6th-highest in league history. It was Manning's 3rd consecutive 4,000-yard season.
- Manning's 29 touchdown passes were the 2nd-highest total of his career (he had 31 in 2010) and his 16 interceptions were 9 fewer than he threw the previous season. His passer rating of 92.9 was the 2nd highest of his career (he had a 93.1 rating in 2009).
- Manning led the Giants to their 3rd NFC East championship and 5th postseason berth in his 8 full seasons as the team's quarterback.
- In the Giants' 4-game postseason, Manning completed 106 of 163 passes (.650) for 1,219 yards, 9 touchdowns and 1 interception.
- Manning was 1 of 2 quarterbacks to throw every 1 of his team's passes in 2011. The other was San Diego's Philip Rivers. Manning and Rivers were traded for each other during the 2004 NFL Draft…Manning was the only quarterback to throw every 1 of his team's passes in the 2010 and 2011 seasons.
- With Manning throwing every pass, the Giants shattered a team record with 295.5 passing yards a game. The former record, set in 2009, was 251.2 yards.
- Manning had a career-high eight 300-yard passing games. That increased his career total to 22, breaking Simms' former team record of 21.
- Manning threw for at least 400 yards 3 times: 420 vs. Seattle (10/9), 406 at New Orleans (11/28) and 400 at Dallas (12/11). He is 1 of 3 players in NFL history with at least three 400-yard passing games in a season: Hall of Famer Dan Marino had 4 in 1984 and 3 in 1986 and Dallas' Tony Romo had 3 in 2012.
- The Giants led the NFL with 18 completions of 40 or more yards in 2011. Green Bay and Detroit tied for second with 16.
- Manning was selected to his 2nd Pro Bowl (though he didn't play in the game because the Giants participated in the Super Bowl).
- Manning was the 1st NFL quarterback to throw at least 4 touchdown passes of at least 72 yards since Kurt Warner of St. Louis in 2000 (6). He was the 1st Giants quarterback to do it since Earl Morrall threw 4 in 1965.

- Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).
- Manning led the Giants to 5 victories in 2011 in which they trailed in the 4th quarter (not counting a comeback in the NFC Championship Game) - plus 1 in which they were tied. The Giants' 5 victories after trailing in the 4th quarter tied the franchise record set in 2002.
- In the Giants' 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5), Manning completed 30 of 40 passes (75 %) for 296 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8). He was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the game's most valuable player. It was his 2nd Super Bowl MVP Award.
- In the Super Bowl, Manning rallied the Giants from a 17-9 3rd-quarter deficit while leading scoring drives on 3 of the team's 4 second-half possessions.
- Manning completed his first 9 passes, a record for consecutive completions to begin a Super Bowl.
- Manning set Giants postseason records with 58 passes attempts and 32 completions in a 20-17 overtime victory at San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game (1/22). It was the 1st time in their history the Giants won a game when throwing at least 50 passes; they had been 0-18 in the regular season in such games.
- Completed 21 of 33 passes for 330 yards, 3 touchdowns and 1 interception in a 37-20 victory in Green Bay in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/15). Manning's 66-yard pass to Hakeem Nicks is the 4th-longest play in Giants postseason history.
- Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 24-2 defeat of Atlanta in an NFC Wild Card Game (1/8).
- Manning's 72-yard touchdown pass to Nicks vs. Atlanta is tied for the longest postseason play in Giants history. On Jan. 3, 1982, Scott Brunner threw a 72-yard pass to Earnest Gray. Manning's previous long postseason pass was a 52-yard touchdown to Amani Toomer in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13, 2008. It was Manning's 5th touchdown pass of more than 70 yards in 2011 and the 1st caught by someone other than Victor Cruz.
- Hit 24 of 33 passes for 346 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in the Giants' 31-14 victory over Dallas (1/1) that clinched the NFC East title.
- In a 29-16 victory over the Jets (12/24), Manning threw a 99-yard touchdown pass to Cruz, the longest play in the history of the Giants. The previous long play was a 98-yard pass from Earl Morrall to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966. It was the fourth pass of at least 90 yards in Giants history… Manning's previous long throw was a 92-yard touchdown to Mario Manningham at Washington (1/2/11)…On the same day Manning threw his 99-yard touchdown pass, Carolina's Cam Newton threw a 91-yard touchdown pass to Brandon LeFell. It was the first time in NFL history 2 different quarterbacks threw touchdown passes of at least 90 yards on the same day…Manning's pass to Cruz was the 13th 99-yard touchdown pass (and the 14th 99-yard play from scrimmage) in NFL history. On Sept 12, New England's Tom Brady and Wes Welker hooked up for a 99-yard touchdown pass against the Dolphins in Miami. The 2011 season was the 1st in NFL history with two 99-yard touchdown passes – and they were thrown by the quarterbacks that started in the Super Bowl.
- Manning completed 27 of 47 passes for 400 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception and led the Giants to a 37-34 victory at Dallas (12/11). Manning led the Giants to 2 touchdowns in the final 3:14 to become the 2nd team in 2011 to win a game by overcoming a deficit of at least 12 points with less than 5 minutes to play in the 4th quarter. Denver did it at Miami on Oct. 23…It was the 1st time the Giants won under such circumstances since Sept. 21, 1969, when they trailed Minnesota, 23-10, before Fran Tarkenton threw 2 touchdown passes to Don Herrmann in the final 4:48 for a 24-23 victory. The victory in Dallas was the 1st time in their 87-year history the Giants overcame a deficit of at least 12 points with less than 5 minutes remaining to win on the road.
- The victory in Dallas was the 2nd game in 2011 in which the Giants won by scoring 2 touchdowns in the final 3½ minutes. They did it at New England (11/6), though the 2nd, game-winning score was necessitated by a touchdown the Patriots scored between the 2 by the Giants. Against the Patriots, Manning completed 20 of 39 passes for 250 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Manning shattered a team record by completing 21 consecutive passes from late in the 2nd quarter to late in the 4th quarter at New Orleans (11/28). That was tied for the 6th longest streak in NFL history and was the longest since his brother, Peyton Manning, hit 23 straight on Dec. 14 and Dec. 18, 2008 vs. Detroit (6) and Jacksonville (17). It was the longest 1-game streak since David Carr, Manning's backup, completed 22 consecutive passes for Houston vs. Buffalo on Nov. 19, 2006…The previous Giants record of 13 in a row was set by Phil Simms at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985 and tied by Kerry Collins on Sept. 10 and 17, 2000 (at Philadelphia and Chicago). Manning's previous best had been 12 in a row at Atlanta on Oct. 15, 2007.
- Manning threw for a then career-high 420 yards while completing 24 of 39 passes vs. Seattle (10/9). It was 1 of three 400-yard games and eight 300-yard games Manning had in the regular season. He added 2 more 300-yard games in the postseason.
- Manning was selected NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Philadelphia (9/25), where he completed 16 of 23 passes for 254 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 29-16 victory. His passer rating of 145.7 was the 2nd-highest of his career and his best in a full game (he had a 158.3 rating vs. Oakland in 2009, but played only the first 5 series). It was the sixth 4-touchdown game of Manning's career and his 1st since Dec. 19, 2010, also against the Eagles. Manning's passer rating was 145.7, his highest ever in a game in which he threw more than 10 passes. It was the 5th-highest passer rating by a Giants quarterback since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The Player of the Week award was the 3rd of Manning's career.
- In 2010, Manning started all 16 games and completed 339-of-539 passes (62.9 percent) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He had four 300-yard passing games…He was 1 of 4 players to thrown every 1 of his team's passes in 2010. The others were Indianapolis' Peyton Manning, Houston's Matt Schaub and St. Louis' Sam Bradford.

- The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were both franchise single-season records. The previous records were 335 completions by Collins in 2002 and the 62.8 completion percentages by Jeff Hostetler in 1991 and Kurt Warner in 2004.
- Manning's 539 passes were then the 2nd-highest total of his career (he threw 557 passes in 2005) and was the 4th-highest total in Giants history (Collins threw 568 passes in 2001 and 545 in 2002).
- His 31 touchdown passes were the 3rd-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962.
- Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons. He threw for 4,021 yards in 2009. Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984) are the only other Giants to pass for more than 4,000 yards.
- Manning's 4,002 yards were the 5th-highest total in the NFL. He was among a record 22 quarterbacks to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 2010.
- His 31 touchdown passes were the league's 4th-highest total. Manning was 1 of 11 quarterbacks to throw for at least 25 touchdowns in 2010.
- Manning tied a franchise record by throwing 25 interceptions, a total previously reached by Frank Filchock in 1946 and Charlie Conerly in 1953.
- Manning threw then career-long touchdown passes on consecutive weeks: an 85-yarder at Green Bay on Dec. 26 and a 92-yarder on Jan. 2 at Washington, both to Mario Manningham. The 92-yard throw was the NFL's longest play from scrimmage in the 2010 season. It was then the 3rd-longest pass in Giants history, exceeded only by Earl Morrall's 98-yard throw to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966 and Norm Snead's 94-yarder to Rich Houston vs. Dallas on Sept. 24, 1972.
- Manning set franchise records for the most attempts (3,169), completions (1,838), passing yards (21,465) and touchdown passes (148) in a player's first 100 games as a Giant.
- Manning threw a career-high 34 completions vs. Dallas on Nov. 14 and had 33 completions against Tennessee on Sept. 26.
- Manning threw a career-high 48 passes without being sacked on Nov. 14 vs. Dallas.
- On Nov. 21, Manning started the Giants' game in Philadelphia 6 years to the day after his 1st game as the Giants' starting quarterback. On Nov. 21, 2004, the Giants lost to Atlanta, 14-10. The Falcons' starting quarterback in that game was Vick, who was the Eagles' starter 6 years later in Philly.
- Manning twice tied his then career high by throwing 4 touchdown passes: at Dallas (10/25) and vs. Philadelphia (12/19)…He was sacked just 16 times all season and was not sacked in a 5-game stretch from Nov. 7 through Dec. 5…Threw for a season-high 386 yards vs. Tennessee (9/26)…Had a season-high passer rating of 125.8 at Seattle (11/7), where he completed 21 of 32 passes for 290 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions.
- In 2009, Manning started all 16 games and completed 317 of 509 passes (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were then all career highs…The 509 attempts were the 8th-highest single-season total in team history and the 317 completions and completion percentage were both 3rd.
- Manning became the 3rd quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984).
- Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass in every game except the losses in Denver and Minnesota.
- Manning played only the first 5 series in a 44-7 rout of Oakland (10/11) and left the game with a perfect passer rating of 158.3. He completed 8 of 10 passes for 173 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions. The previous Giants quarterback to finish a game with a perfect rating was Collins at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002, when he completed 23 of 29 passes for 366 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 44-27 victory.
- Manning completed 19 of 26 passes for 268 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions at Washington (12/21) for a passer rating of 144.4 that was then the 2nd-highest of his career, topped only by his 158.3 rating vs. Oakland. His previous best rating on the road was 131.4 at St. Louis on Sept. 14, 2008.
- The game at Washington was the 2nd week in a row Manning threw for 3 scores without an interception and was the 2nd time in Manning's career he threw 3 touchdown passes in consecutive games. He did it at Philadelphia and Seattle on Sept. 17 and 24, 2006.
- When Manning threw his 100th touchdown pass at Dallas, he became the 111th quarterback in NFL history to reach that mark. Eli and Peyton Manning were the 1st pair of brothers to each throw for 100 touchdowns in their career.
- Manning twice threw for career-high yardage totals in 2009. He passed for 384 yards vs. Atlanta (11/22) and 391 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/13). They were the 9th and 10th 300-yard games of his career, but his first 2 at home.
- The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards in 2009, which left them tied for 5th in the NFL. Manning accounted for 60 of those plays and ranked 5th among the league's quarterbacks.
- Manning threw 3 touchdown passes of at least 60 yards in 2 weeks: 1 vs. Dallas (12/6) and 2 vs. Philadelphia (12/13). He was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 2 touchdown passes of 60 or more yards in the same game since Collins did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999 (scores of 61 and 80 yards to Amani Toomer). The last Giants quarterback to accomplish the feat in back-to-back games was Simms on Sept. 2 and 9, 1984, also in home games vs. Philadelphia and Dallas.
- Manning rushed for a career-best 34 yards at Philadelphia (11/1). That was the highest total by a Giants quarterback since Oct. 31, 1999, when Kent Graham ran for 41 yards – also in Philadelphia.
- Manning completed 76 percent of his passes (25 of 33) vs. San Diego (11/8), which tied for the 2nd-best 1-game mark of his career. He hit 79 percent (26 of 33) at Arizona on Nov. 23, 2008 and 76 percent (19 of 25) vs. Seattle on Oct. 5, 2008.
- Manning's 29 completions vs. Carolina (12/27) were his highest total in Giants Stadium. His previous best was 28 completions vs. the Eagles on Dec. 17, 2006.
- In 2008, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…He led the Giants to their 4th consecutive postseason berth, a franchise record. Only 1 other QB had then led his team to the playoffs in 4 consecutive seasons – Peyton Manning.

- Manning completed 289 of 479 passes (60.3 percent) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were then career highs. It was the 1st time since Manning's rookie season in 2004 – when he started just 9 games – that he did not throw at least 500 passes. The 10 interceptions were his lowest total since he threw 9 as a rookie and were half his 2007 total.
- Manning completed 21-of-34 passes for 305 yards, a touchdown and an interception at Washington (11/30). It was his 1st 300-yard game since Oct. 15, 2007.
- Manning was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November and Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.
- In 2007, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games and led the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XLII…Completed 297 of 529 passes for 3,336 yards, 23 touchdowns and 20 interceptions. In 4 postseason games, Manning completed 72 of 119 passes (60.5 percent) for 854 yards, 6 touchdowns and 1 interception.
- Tied a career high – and set a personal best in a road game - by throwing 4 touchdown passes while completing 28 of 41 throws for 312 yards at Dallas (9/9). Three of the scoring passes went to Plaxico Burress, the other to Derrick Ward…Left the game in the 4th quarter with a bruised shoulder…Despite the injury, Manning started the next week vs. Green Bay.
- Led the Giants to their 1st victory of the season at Washington (9/23), where he completed 21 of 36 passes, including the game-winning 33-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.
- Manning threw a then career high-tying 4 touchdown passes vs. New England (12/29). Two of the scores went to Burress and 1 each to Brandon Jacobs and Kevin Boss… Completed 22 of 32 passes for 251 yards and 1 interception for a passer rating of 118.6.
- Opened postseason play by completing 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions in NFC Wild Card Game victory at Tampa Bay (1/6)…Became the 5th Giants QB to win a postseason game in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976), joining Simms, Jeff Hostetler, Collins and Scott Brunner.
- Completed 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns to Amani Toomer in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)…His 52-yard touchdown pass to Toomer was then his longest postseason completion…Successfully engineered a 2-minute drive in the 2nd quarter by completing 4 passes for 56 yards on a 7-play 71-yard drive in just 46 seconds that resulted in a 4-yard touchdown pass to Toomer to tie the game at 14-14 at halftime.
- Played another turnover-free game and completed 21 of 40 passes for 251 yards in minus-23 degree wind chill in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory in Green Bay (1/20)…Increased his streak to 101 consecutive postseason passes without an interception.
- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that bounced off Steve Smith's hands in the Giants' victory over the New England Patriots…Led the Giants on their game-winning 4th quarter drive by completing 5 of 9 passes for 77 yards and a 13-yard touchdown pass to Burress. The most memorable play on the drive was a 32-yard completion to David Tyree, who secured the ball against his helmet after Manning eluded the grasp of numerous Patriots defensive lineman…Threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Tyree early in the 4th quarter that was set up by passes of 45 yards to Boss and 17 yards to Smith…Manning was intercepted by cornerback Ellis Hobbs with 11:53 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' 1st offensive turnover in their 4-game postseason. The offense had gone 34 possessions and run 213 plays without turning over the ball. The previous turnover had been in the regular season finale against the Patriots – also an interception by Hobbs of a Manning pass. Manning had thrown 103 consecutive passes without an interception, including 95 in the postseason. He had thrown 111 postseason passes in a row without a pick…Manning threw 2 interceptions in the Giants' last 5 games and Hobbs had both of them.
- In 2006, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game…Completed 301 of 522 passes for 3,244 yards, 24 touchdowns, 18 interceptions and 77.0 QB rating…Manning's 24 touchdown passes matched his 2005 total and left him tied for 4th in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger…Manning was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Simms did it 3 years in a row from 1984-86.
- Completed a then career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for 371 yards with 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)…In overtime, Manning completed all 8 of his passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.
- Finished with 17 completions on 33 attempts for 172 yards with 3 touchdowns, 0 interceptions, a long pass of 45 yards and a QB rating of 97.0 at Carolina (12/10)… Game long 45-yard pass to Burress was followed by a 28-yard touchdown pass to the same receiver in the 2nd quarter…Threw a season-long 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress vs. New Orleans (12/24).
- Finished with 16 completions on 27 attempts for 161 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)…The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress…Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.
- In 2005, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game in his 1st full season as the starting quarterback…Led the Giants to the NFC East championship…Completed 294 of 557 passes for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns, 17 interceptions, a long completion of 78 yards and a QB rating of 75.9…Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967…Completed 12 of 24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a victory at Oakland (12/31) that clinched the division title…Threw a then career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress.
- Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter at Philadelphia (12/11), his 1st career rushing touchdown and the 1st by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).
- Threw a career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by

Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64.
- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23)…Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8-of-13 passes for 68 yards.
- Hit 19 of 35 passes for 296 yards and 4 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2) to become the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis (12/22/02). Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03).
- As a rookie in 2004, played in 9 games, including starts in the final 7 games…Rookie record as a starter was 1-6…Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.
- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas, completing 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5… Manning threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.
- Completed 16 of 23 passes for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yarder to Shockey.
- Made his 1st NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Shockey. Coincidently, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998.
- Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants since Giants Stadium opened in 1976 (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the roster when the stadium opened). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner…Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft between 1970-2004, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.
- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. He completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

On Dec. 3, 2010 vs. the Minnesota Vikings in Detroit, Manning became the 6th quarterback in NFL history to start 100 consecutive regular season games. Ironically, he reached that milestone in the same game in which Brett Favre's NFL-record streak of 297 consecutive starts ended. Favre was inactive with a shoulder injury.

NFL QUARTERBACKS WITH AT LEAST 100 CONSECUTIVE REGULAR SEASON STARTS:

PLAYER	TEAMS	YEARS	CONSECUTIVE STARTS
Brett Favre	Packers, Jets, Vikings	1992-2010	297
Peyton Manning	Colts	1998-2010	208
Eli Manning	Giants	2004-Present	135*

Philips Rivers	Chargers	2006-2012	112*
Tom Brady	Patriots	2001-2008	111
Joe Ferguson	Bills	1977-1984	107

*Active streak entering the 2013 season.

NFC EAST QUARTERBACKS SINCE ELI TOOK OVER ON NOV. 21, 2004 (24):

Dallas (7): Vinny Testaverde, Drew Henson, Drew Bledsoe, Tony Romo, Brad Johnson, Jon Kitna, Stephen McGee
Philadelphia (9): Donovan McNabb, Jeff Garcia, Mike McMahon, A.J. Feeley, Koy Detmer, Kevin Kolb, Michael Vick, Vince Young, Nick Foles
Washington (9): Patrick Ramsey, Mark Brunell, Jason Campbell, Todd Collins, Donovan McNabb, Rex Grossman, John Beck, Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins
*McNabb started for 2 NFC East teams, but counts only once.

Since Manning started for the first time, 147 other quarterbacks have started an NFL game

MANNING'S 135 CONSECUTIVE STARTS WAS THE 4TH-LONGEST STREAK AMONG ALL ACTIVE PLAYERS, REGARDLESS OF POSITION, AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE 2012 SEASON:

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (29th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2009.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 55 regular-season games with 44 starts and has started all 4 postseason games in which he played…Career totals include 255 catches for 3,726 yards and 27 touchdowns. The 255 receptions place Nicks 11th and the 3,726 yards leave him 15th on the Giants' career list…His 27 touchdown receptions place him in a 5-way tie (with Chris Calloway, Ike Hilliard, Earnest Gray and Jeremy Shockey) for 11th place in team history…Nicks' 250 catches of Eli Manning passes are the most by any receiver from the Giants' quarterback…Nicks also has 28 postseason catches for 444 yards and four scores…The 28 catches leave him 3rd on the team's postseason list and he is 2nd in both yards and touchdown catches.
- In 2012, Nicks played in 13 games with 11 starts…Was inactive for 3 games with a knee injury - at Carolina (9/20), at Philadelphia (9/30) and vs. Cleveland (10/7)…Played little in the season's final two games – at Baltimore (12/23) and vs. Philadelphia (12/30).
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. Tampa Bay (9/16). He caught 10 passes for a career-high 199 yards and a touchdown. Victor Cruz had 11 receptions for 179 yards and Manning threw for 510 yards…Manning, Cruz and Nicks joined 3 Hall of Famers – quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and receivers Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsh and Tom Fears of the 1951 Los Angeles Rams - as the only teammates in history with 500 passing yards, plus 2 receivers with at least 150 yards, in the same game…It was the 2nd time in their history the Giants had 2 receivers with at least 10 catches in the same game. On Sept. 20, 2009 at Dallas, Mario Manningham had 10 receptions for 150 yards and a touchdown and Smith had 10 catches for 134 yards and a score…Nicks' 199 receiving yards were the 6th-highest total in franchise history and the most by a Giants receiver since Plaxico Burress had 204 yards vs. St. Louis on Oct. 2, 2005.
- Nicks had 9 receptions for 75 yards at Cincinnati (11/11)…He scored touchdowns vs. Green Bay (11/25) and vs. New Orleans (12/9)…When he did not catch a pass at Baltimore, it ended Nicks' streak of catching at least 1 pass in 53 consecutive games in which he played.
- In 2011, Nicks started all 15 regular season games and 4 postseason games in which he played…Inactive at New England (11/6) due to a hamstring injury…Finished 2nd on the team with 76 catches for a career-high 1,192 yards and 7 touchdowns…The 76 catches tied for the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- Nicks, who had 1,052 yards in 2010, was the 3rd receiver in Giants history with at least 2 consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, joining Del Shofner (1961-63) and Amani Toomer (1999-2001)…Nicks teamed with Cruz (1,536) to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season for the 1st time in team history.
- In the postseason, Nicks led the Giants in all 3 major receiving categories with 28 catches for 444 yards and 4 touchdowns. The 28 catches was the highest total by a Giant in a single postseason. Toomer held the previous mark 21 catches in the 2007 playoffs, a total matched by Cruz in 2011…Nicks' postseason average of 15.9 yards-per-catch is the highest ever by a Giant with at least 15 receptions. Hall of Famer Frank Gifford is second at 13.9 (17 catches for 236 yards).
- Opened the season with 7 catches for 122 yards at Washington (9/11)…Scored his 1st touchdown of the season on a 3-yard pass from Eli Manning vs. St. Louis (9/19)…Caught 10 passes for 162 yards, including the game-winning 29-yard touchdown with 2:39 remaining, at Arizona (10/2)…Finished with 7 receptions for 88 yards, including touchdowns of 4 and 2 yards, vs. Green Bay (12/4)…Followed with 8 catches for a season-high 163 yards at Dallas (12/11)…Caught 5 passes for 76 yards, including a 4-yard score, in the Giants' NFC East-clinching victory vs. Dallas (1/1).
- Had 6 receptions for 115 yards, including touchdowns of 4 and 72 yards, in NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8)…Nicks' 100-yard game was the 1st by a Giants receiver in the postseason since the 2007 NFC Championship Game, when Plaxico Burress had 151 yards on 11 catches…The 72-yard touchdown is tied for the longest postseason play in Giants history. On Jan. 3, 1982, Scott Brunner threw a 72-yard pass to Earnest Gray…
Had 7 receptions for 165 yards and 2 touchdowns in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Breen Bay (1/15)…The 165 yards were is the 2nd-highest total by a Giant in a postseason game. Bob Schnelker holds the record with 175 receiving yards at Baltimore on Dec. 27, 1959…Nicks' average of 23.57 yards per catch in Green Bay was the highest ever by a Giant with more than 4 receptions in a postseason game…With 115 and 165 receiving yards in the Giants' victories over Atlanta and Green Bay, Nicks became the 1st Giant with 2 career postseason 100-yard receiving games.
- Nicks' performance vs. the Packers was the 6th time in Giants history a receiver scored 2 touchdowns in a postseason game. Nicks was the 4th different player to accomplish the feat and the 2nd to do it twice. He joined Toomer (twice), Johnny Perkins and Ike Hilliard… Nicks' 66-yard touchdown reception in the 1st quarter was the 4th-longest postseason play in Giants history and the 2nd in as many weeks that was at least that long.

- When Nicks reached high to catch Manning's Hail Mary pass as time expired in the 2nd quarter in Green Bay, it was the 1st time in Giants postseason history they scored a touchdown at 0:00 of a 2nd or 4th quarter.
- Nicks caught 2 touchdown passes apiece in the Giants' victories over Atlanta and Green Bay. He joined Toomer as the only Giant to score at least 2 touchdowns in at least 2 postseason games…Nicks' 4 postseason receiving touchdowns are 2nd in Giants history behind Toomer's 7.
- Caught 5 passes for 55 yards in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22).
- Nicks had game-high totals of 10 receptions for 109 yards - both Giants Super Bowl records – in the 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5). On the game-winning drive, Nicks caught a 14-yard pass to give the Giants a first down at the Patriots' 18-yard line and a 4-yarder to the 7, setting up Ahmad Bradshaw's game-winning touchdown.
- In 2010, Nicks played in 13 games with 12 starts and was inactive for 3 games - vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and vs. Washington (12/5) with a leg injury and the season finale at Washington (1/2) with a broken toe… Had team-high totals of 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns…The 79 receptions left Nicks 7th in the NFC and tied for 12th in the NFL. They also tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history (Amani Toomer caught 79 passes in 1999).
- Nicks was the 10th player (and 9th wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Nicks' 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history. Mario Manningham added 9 touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the 1st pair of Giants with at least 9 touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had 9. Nicks was the 1st Giants receiver to hit double digits since Plaxico Burress had 12 touchdown catches in 2007.
- Nicks had 12 receptions at Houston (10/10), which tied the Giants' record for catches in a game by a wide receiver and was 1 shy of the overall mark. Amani Toomer caught 12 passes at Philadelphia on Sept. 17, 2006. Tight ends Mark Bavaro (Oct. 13, 1985 at Cincinnati) and Jeremy Shockey (Nov. 11, 2007 vs. Dallas) also had 12 receptions in a game. The franchise record is 13, set by running back Tiki Barber at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000.
- Nicks joined Toomer as the only players in franchise history to record at least 12 catches, 130 yards and 2 touchdowns in a game.
- Nicks, who had 110 yards the previous week vs. Chicago, was the first Giant with more than 100 receiving yards in consecutive games since Burress in 2005. Burress had 113 receiving yards vs. Philadelphia on Nov. 20 and 109 at Seattle on Nov. 27.
- In addition to the Chicago and Houston games, Nicks had 108 yards on 9 catches at Dallas (10/25) and 128 yards on 6 receptions at Seattle (11/7).
- Nicks scored 3 touchdowns in the Giants' season-opening victory over Carolina (on receptions of 26, 19 and 5 yards), which was the 1st regular season game in MetLife Stadium. He was the first Giants player to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Brandon Jacobs ran in from 2, 1 and 2 yards out on Dec. 21, 2008 – also against Carolina. Nicks was the first Giant to catch 3 touchdown passes in a game since Burress on Sept. 9, 2007 at Dallas. Burress caught Manning passes of 60, 4 and 10 yards that night.
- As a rookie in 2009, played in 14 games with 6 starts…Inactive at Dallas (9/20) and at Tampa Bay (9/27) with a foot injury…Started for the 1st time at Philadelphia (11/1)…Finished the season with 47 receptions for 790 yards, which were 3rd on the team in both categories…Led the team with a 16.8-yard average…Nicks' 6 receiving touchdowns were 2nd on the team to Steve Smith (7)…His 68-yard touchdown reception vs. Philadelphia (12/13) was the longest by a Giants wide receiver in 2009.
- The 47 catches and 790 yards were both the 3rd-highest total in history by a Giants rookie. Jeremy Shockey had 74 catches for 894 yards in 2002 and Bobby Johnson had 48 for 795 in 1984…Nicks' 6 touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had 7. Bill Swiacki holds the Giants rookie record with 10 in 1948….Nicks' 790 yards tied for 1st among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin… From Oct. 18 through Dec. 21, Nicks had a catch longer than 20 yards in 9 straight games to become the 1st rookie to accomplish that feat since Miami's Nat Moore in 1974…Nicks had two 100-yards games: 114 at New Orleans (10/18) and 110 vs. Philadelphia (12/13). Against the Saints, he became the first Giants rookie receiver with at least 100 yards in a game since Jamaar Taylor had 102 yards (on just 2 catches) on Nov. 28, 2004 vs. Philadelphia.
- Nicks caught a touchdown pass in 4 consecutive games from Oct. 4 through Oct. 25, the first Giant to do so since Burress scored in each of the first 6 games of the 2007 season. He was the 1st Giants rookie to score touchdowns in 4 consecutive games since Bob Gaiters scored in 5 straight games in 1961. Nicks was the 1st Giants rookie with a touchdown reception in 4 consecutive games since Swiacki in 1948. In addition, Nicks was the 1st NFL rookie with a touchdown catch in 4 straight games since Buffalo's Lee Evans in 2004.
- Nicks was named the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Month for October. In 4 games, he caught 14 passes for 297 yards (a 21.2-yard average) and 4 touchdowns, 1 in each game. He was the 1st Giant to win a Rookie of the Month award since October 2004, when safety Gibril Wilson received the defensive honor. The last Giant to be named Offensive Rookie of the Month was Jeremy Shockey in November 2002.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round draft choice (31st pick overall) by the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005…Released by the Eagles on Feb. 25, 2013…Signed by the Giants on April 3, 2013.

GIANTS NOTE:
- During a training camp practice on Aug. 3, 2011, Patterson suffered a seizure and was rushed to a hospital. He was soon diagnosed with an arteriovenous malformation (AVM), a tangle of blood vessels on his brain. Patterson visited with 4 doctors who specialize in AVM cases, as well as a seizure specialist. The doctors cleared him to return to football, which he did only 17 days after the seizure; Patterson chose to delay any procedures to fix the AVM until after the season. Because of what he overcame, Patterson was named the team's 2011 Ed Block Courage Award recipient in a vote by his teammates. On Jan. 26, 2012, Patterson endured a 6-hour surgery to repair his AVM. The procedure, performed by Dr. Robert Spetzler in Phoenix, consisted of drilling open his skull to get behind his right eye to untangle the nerves that caused the AVM and the seizure. Patterson was placed on the Reserve/Non-Football Illness list on Aug. 27, 2012 and missed the first 7 games of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 115 regular-season games with 99 starts and started all 7 postseason games in which he's played…Career totals include 551 tackles (290 solo), 16.5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 7 fumble recoveries, 4 passes defensed and an interception…In the playoffs, he has 43 tackles (26 solo).

- In 2009, played in all 16 games for the 5th consecutive season and started every game for the 2nd year in a row…Finished with 71 tackles (48 solo) and 1.5 sacks and was tied for 1st on the team with 6 tackles for losses…Sacked Tony Romo at Dallas (1/3) and notched a half-sack of Jake Delhomme at Carolina (9/13)…Had 7 tackles (3 solo) in Philadelphia's NFC Wild Card Game at Dallas (1/9).
- In 2008, started all 16 regular-season games and 3 postseason games…Contributed 86 tackles (39 solo), a half-sack, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the regular season and 21 tackles (15 solo) in the postseason…Intercepted an Eli Manning pass and returned it 21 yards to the Giants 9-yard line to set up an early touchdown, his first career pick, vs. the Giants (11/9). Also recovered a fumble in the 2nd quarter, making him the 1st Eagle to record an interception and fumble recovery in the same game since Michael Lewis on 12/28/02 at the Giants…Set a career high with 15 tackles vs. Washington (10/5).
- In 2007, played in 16 games with 15 starts and finished with career-high totals of 114 tackles (63 solo) and 4.0 sacks…Also had a forced fumble and a fumble recovery… Recovered a fumble at the Giants' 8-yard line (12/9)…Credited with 11 tackles, registered a sack and forced fumble at Washington (11/11)…Sacked Brett Favre and recorded 11 tackles at Green Bay (9/9).
- In 2002, started all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games…Had 82 tackles (39 solo), 1.5 sacks and 2 fumble recoveries…Had 10 tackles at Dallas (12/25)…Tipped an Eli Manning pass into the hands of Brian Dawkins for an interception at the Giants (12/17)…Recorded a career-high 1.5 sacks of Manning vs. the Giants (9/17).
- As a rookie in 2005, played in all 16 games with 7 starts and finished with 66 tackles (30 solo), 3.5 sacks and a forced fumble…Filled in as the starter in games 3-5 when Darwin Walker was sidelined with a thigh contusion, and was later named a starter for the final 4 games…Posted the first back-to-back sack games of his career with a half sack of Manning at the Giants (11/20) and 1.0 vs. Green Bay (11/27)…Sacked Trent Green for a 3-yard loss, and notched 7 tackles at Kansas City (10/2)… Started for the 1st time and got his 1st sack (of Kerry Collins) and a forced fumble vs. Oakland (9/25)…Made his NFL debut with 8 tackles at Atlanta (9/12).

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter for 2-time National Champion USC…Career stats include 146 tackles, 21.5 sacks, 46 tackles for losses, 4 forced fumbles and a school record 13 fumble recoveries…Was named an All-America as a senior, posting 45 tackles with 6.0 sacks, a team-high 16 tackles for losses and 4 fumble recoveries…Returned a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown vs. UCLA…Had 55 tackles and 7.0 sacks as a junior.

PERSONAL:
- Youngest child of Tyrone and Florence Patterson. Has 1 brother, Tyrone (a former basketball player at Sacramento City College), and 2 sisters, Roachelle and Knyesha…Earned All-America honors as a senior at Los Alamitos (Calif.) High School, recording 94 tackles, 7.0 sacks and 18 tackles for a losses…Also participated in wrestling, shot put, and discus at the school…Majored in sociology and plans on earning his degree after he is done playing football.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (15th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2010.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Pierre-Paul's 16.5 sacks in 2011 was the 4th-highest total in Giants history.
- In 2011, Pierre-Paul was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- In 2010, Pierre-Paul had 2 sacks vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and 2 vs. Washington (12/5) to become the 1st rookie in Giants history with at least 2 sacks in consecutive games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 48 regular-season games with 27 starts and started all 4 postseason games in which he's played. Career regular-season totals include 206 tackles (152 solo), 27.5 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries, 1 interception (returned for a touchdown) and 21 passes defensed. In the postseason, JPP has 18 tackles (15 solo) and a half-sack.
- In 2012, played in all 16 games for the 3rd consecutive season with 15 starts – 14 at right defensive end and 1 at right defensive tackle at San Francisco (10/14)…Started on the NFC Pro Bowl team, his 2nd selection in as many seasons…JPP's 6.5 sacks and 14 tackles for losses led the Giants for the 2nd season in a row…Finished 3rd on the team with 87 tackles (61 solo)…Also had 17 quarterback hits and a team-high 23 quarterback hurries…Had his 1st career interception, which he returned for a touchdown…Contributed 7 passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.
- Recorded 8 tackles (4 solo) and his 1st sack of the season, an 8-yard takedown of Josh Freeman, vs. Tampa Bay (9/16)…Credited with a half-sack of Cam Newton and 2 passes defensed at Carolina (9/20)…Had a season-high 2.0 sacks (1 each of Alex Smith and Colin Kaepernick) at San Francisco, the 1st of 4 consecutive games in which he had a sack…Sacked Robert Griffin III and forced a fumble vs. Washington (10/21), sack Tony Romo at Dallas (10/28) and sacked Ben Roethlisberger vs. Pittsburgh (11/14)…He had a season-high 8 tackles (6 solo) vs. the Steelers…Recovered an Aaron Rodgers fumble vs. Green Bay (11/25).
- Scored his 1st touchdown on his 1st career interception at the Cowboys when he picked off a Tony Romo pass and returned it 28 yards for a score with 13:05 left in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' 1st defensive touchdown since Michael Boley recovered a fumble and returned it 65 yards vs. St. Louis on Sept. 19, 2011. The score was the team's 1st interception return for a touchdown since Dec. 21, 2009, when Terrell Thomas brought one back 14 yards at Washington. And it was the 1st score by a Giants defensive lineman since Osi Umenyiora scored on a 37-yard fumble return vs. the Redskins on Sept. 13, 2009.
- In 2011, JPP established himself as 1 of the NFL's premier defensive ends in his 2nd pro season. Played in all 16 regular season games with 12 starts and started all 4 of the Giants' postseason games…Finished 3rd on the team and 1st among defensive linemen with 88 tackles (67 solo) and led the team with 23 tackles for losses and 29 quarterback hits…Pierre-Paul was 4th in the NFL with 16.5 sacks, the 4th-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 in a season. Taylor did it once – he had 20.5 sacks in his 1986 MVP season – and Strahan did it twice (an NFL-record 22.5 sacks in 2001 and 18.5 in 2003).
- JPP had 5 multiple-sack games: at Washington (9/11), at Philadelphia (9/25), vs. Seattle (10/9), at Dallas (12/11) and at Jets (12/24)…He had at least a half-sack in 12 of the 16 games.
- Pierre-Paul was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- JPP was twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December – when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month.
- In a victory in Dallas, Pierre-Paul led the team with 8 tackles (6 solo), including 2 sacks of Tony Romo. The 1st resulted in a safety for the Giants' 1st points. The 2nd sack was on a 3rd down in the 3rd quarter and forced the Cowboys to punt from their own 43-yard line. Pierre-Paul also forced a Felix Jones fumble that was recovered by Deon Grant and led to a field goal. He secured the victory by blocking Dan Bailey's 47-yard field goal attempt with 1 second left in the game. If good, the kick would have tied the score and sent the game into overtime.
- Was credited with a career-high 16 tackles (11 solo) and a sack vs. Washington (12/18).
- Was again named Player of the Week after his performance at the Jets. Pierre-Paul had 5 tackles (4 solo), including 2 sacks for losses of 14 yards, and 3 quarterback hits. His 1st sack, with 2 seconds to go in the second quarter, resulted in a 7-yard loss and forced the Jets to attempt a 44-yard field goal, which was wide right. His 2nd sack was on the final series and all but ended the Jets' chance for a miracle comeback.

- Pierre-Paul was the 1st NFC defensive player to win the award twice in 3 weeks since New Orleans safety Malcolm Jenkins was honored in Weeks 12 and 14 of the 2010 season. He was the 1st Giant to be cited twice in 1 season since Osi Umenyiora was named Player of the Week in Weeks 4 and 7 of the 2007 season. Pierre-Paul was the 1st Giant to be named Defensive Player of the Week twice in a 3-week span of a season since Strahan in 2001 (Weeks 3 and 5).
- Had 8 tackles (6 solo) in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8), 2 solo tackles in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/15) and 6 tackles (5 solo) in NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22).
- Pierre-Paul had 2 solo tackles and 2 passes defensed in Super Bowl XLVI vs. New England (2/5).
- As a rookie in 2010, played in all 16 games as a reserve defensive lineman and on special teams…On defense, finished with 31 tackles (24 solo), including 4.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000…Added 6 passes defensed, 17 QB hurries, 11 QB hits, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries…Tied for 3rd on the team with 9 special teams tackles (8 solo).
- Made his NFL debut with 1 defensive tackle and 1 special teams tackle vs. Carolina (9/12)…Had 2 special teams tackles at Houston (10/10) and vs. Detroit (10/17)…Recorded a season-high 7 tackles (6 solo), including his first 2 NFL sacks, and 2 forced fumbles vs. Jacksonville (11/28). Forced David Garrard to fumble on each of his first 2 career sacks…Added 2 sacks the following week vs. Washington (12/5) to become the 1st rookie in Giants history with at least 2 sacks in consecutive games…Recovered 1 fumble in each game vs. the Redskins.

COLLEGE:
- Played at 3 colleges - College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita, Calif., in 2007, Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College in 2008 and South Florida in 2009…In his 3 stops, Pierre-Paul played in 35 games, recording 161 tackles (119 solo) with 31.0 sacks for minus 180 yards, 56.0 stops for losses totaling 248 yards and 13 pressures…He forced seven fumbles and recovered 3 others, deflected 9 passes and intercepted 2 more for 38 yards in returns…In 2009, he was a 1st-team All-America selection by Pro Football Weekly and consensus All-Big East 1st-team choice…Earned team Rookie of the Year honors…A late arrival to fall camp, Pierre-Paul was originally going to be red-shirted, but the coaches relented and allowed him to play…A junior, he moved from 4th on the depth chart at left defensive end to the Bulls' starter vs. Charleston Southern, Florida State, Cincinnati, West Virginia, Miami, Connecticut and Northern Illinois (International Bowl)…Part of a defense that ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense (19.8 points per game) and 24th in total defense (321.8 yards per game)…Recorded 45 tackles (27 solo) with 6.5 sacks for minus 29 yards, 16.5 stops for losses totaling 53 yards and a team-high 7 quarterback pressures…Forced 2 fumbles, deflected 3 passes and intercepted another that he returned 18 yards for a touchdown vs. Syracuse…Also blocked a kick vs. Connecticut…His 6.5 sacks in 2009 were the most by a Bulls' 1st-year player in a season since Shawn Hay and Demetrius Woods both recorded 8.0 sacks in 1997…In 2008, earned All-America and All-Jayhawk Football Conference 1st-team honors at Fort Scott Community College…Helped the Greyhounds finished 9-2 and a victory in the Heart of Texas Bowl…Recorded 67 tackles (50 solo), 10.5 sacks for minus 50 yards, 20.5 stops for losses of 78 yards, forced 3 fumbles and recovered 2 others…Added 5 pressures…In 2007, in just his 2nd season playing organized football, Pierre-Paul was named All-America and All-Western State Conference 1st-team at the College of the Canyons…Led all California junior college players with 14 sacks for minus 101 yards and had 19.0 stops for losses totaling 117 yards…Forced 2 fumbles, recovered another, deflected 5 passes and intercepted another for a 20-yard return.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2004.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Snee enters the 2013 season having played 138 regular season games for the Giants, the 2nd-highest total among active players. David Diehl has played 153 games.
- In 2010, Snee was voted 1st team All-Pro by The Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers Association and 2nd team by the Associated Press.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Long recognized as 1 of the NFL's very best guards, Snee has started all 138 regular-season games and 11 postseason games in which he has played…A 4-time Pro Bowler, Snee has missed only 6 games in a career entering its 10th season.
- In 2012, Snee started all 16 games at right guard for the 7th time in his career…He joined center David Baas and left guard Kevin Boothe as Giants offensive linemen to start every game…Snee was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl, where he started for the NFC team…He is the 1st Giants player to be selected to 4 Pro Bowls since tight end Jeremy Shockey was chosen for his 4th in 2006 and the 1st Giants offensive linemen to be honored so often since Hall of Famer Rosie Brown was selected to his 9th Pro Bowl in 1965. Snee was also selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008, 2009 and 2010.
- Snee was part of a line that allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks and helped the Giants average 116.4 rushing yards a game, a 27.2-yard improvement over 2011. The line did not give up a sack in 3 consecutive games from Sept. 30 to Oct. 14. The Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.
- In 2011, Snee started all 15 regular-season games and 4 postseason games in which he played…Was inactive vs. Buffalo (10/16) due to a concussion suffered the previous week vs. Seattle… His absence ended his streak of consecutive regular-season games played and started at 101 (plus 7 postseason games). Snee had started every game since the 2005 season opener after missing the final 5 games of his 2004 rookie season with an inflamed gland.
- Snee and the offensive line helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI behind one of the NFL's most productive offenses. The Giants were 9th in the NFL with 394 points and established franchise records with 6,161 total yards (385.1 a game, which ranked 8th in the NFL) and 4,734 net passing yards. The line blocked well enough for Eli Manning to throw for 4,933 yards, the 6th-highest total in NFL history…In the playoffs, the Giants averaged 402.5 total yards a game.
- In 2010, Snee started all 16 games at right guard for the 6th consecutive season. He was 1 of 2 Giants offensive linemen to start every game at the same position, joining right tackle Kareem McKenzie. Rich Seubert also started all 16 games, 9 at left guard and 7 at center.
- Snee and Shaun O'Hara were each selected to their 3rd consecutive Pro Bowls. They were the 1st Giants offensive linemen selected to 3 Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, 1991 and 1993 and the 1st chosen in 3 consecutive years since Brown was selected to 6 in a row from 1955-60.
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history.
- The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, Snee started all 16 games at right guard… Played in his 2nd consecutive Pro Bowl, the 1st Giants guard to play in the game in back-to-back seasons since Ron Stone in 2000 and 2001… Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center O'Hara and tackle David Diehl, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha – also a tackle, guard and center – all received the honor)…Snee and O'Hara were the 1st Giants to be selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Tiki Barber and Jeremy Shockey in 2005-06…Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure…Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at right guard. The Giants were the only team to start the same 5 linemen in all 32 regular season games in 2007 and 2008…

Snee was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, as the starting right guard for the NFC…Was also named a 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and The Sporting News and 1st-team All-NFL and All-NFC by the Pro Football Writers Association…Snee was an integral member of the offensive line that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Snee and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.

- The line's blocking helped the Giants rush for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history…Snee and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, he started all 16 regular-season games and all 4 of the Giants' postseason games at right guard… Selected as a 2nd alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.
- Blocking by Snee and the O-line enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game. In their 4-game postseason surge that culminated in a Super Bowl XLII victory, the Giants averaged 305.5 yards, including 103.8 on the ground.
- In 2006, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard…Offensive line provided enough run blocking for the Giants offense to rush for 2,156 yards, the 7th-highest total in the NFL.
- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games for the 1st time and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard… Offensive line provided enough run blocking for Tiki Barber to rush for a franchise record 1,860 yards and the pass blocking enabled Eli Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- As a rookie in 2004, started all 11 games in which he played at right guard, a job he won in training camp… Missed the final 5 games of the season after waking up the morning of the game at Washington (12/5) with an inflamed gland just beneath his jaw...Arrived at the stadium early, but there was no progress in his condition prior to the time the Giants had to submit their list of inactive players...The condition did not improve enough for him to play again in 2004.
- Made his NFL debut at Philadelphia (9/12), where the line's blocking helped Barber rush for 125 yards on 9 carries, including a 72-yard score.
- Gave up his final year of college eligibility to make himself eligible for the NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- Was a 2nd-team All-America selection and an All-Big East Conference 1st-team choice by The NFL Draft Report in his final season at Boston College…In 2003, started every game, including the San Francisco Bowl, at right guard, providing excellent blocking as tailback Derrick Knight ranked 4th in the nation in rushing with 1,721 yards…Started every game at left guard in 2002, helping the team finish 3rd in the Big East in total offense (5,074 yards) and second in passing yards (3,010)…Third-team Freshman All-America selection by The Sporting News in 2001…Member of the Big East's All-Freshman team… Played in 9 games, starting the final 6 contests…Made his 1st career start vs. Virginia Tech at right tackle before shifting to right guard for the Pittsburgh contest.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Weatherford punted 12 times in the Giants' 2011 NFC Championship Game victory in San Francisco, tying David Lee of the Baltimore Colts (in a 1977 AFC Divisional Playoff) for 2nd-highest total in NFL postseason history.
- Weatherford set a Super Bowl record with 3 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in Super Bowl XLVI.
- Tied an NFL record in 2010 by placing 42 punts inside the 20-yard line.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 110 regular-season games for 4 teams (48 for the Giants) and in 11 postseason games for 3 teams (4 for the Giants)…Career regular-season totals include 503 punts for 22,087 yards, a 43.9-yard gross average and a 37.6-yard net average…Has placed 161 punts inside the 20-yard line and has 49 touchbacks…Weatherford has never had a punt blocked…In the postseason, he has 57 punts for 2,442 yards, a 42.8-yard gross average and a 35.8-yard net average…He has dropped 15 kicks inside the 20-yard line and has 11 touchbacks.
- In 2012, Weatherford punted in each of the Giants' 16 games…He had 58 punts for 2,757 yards, a 47.5-yard gross average and a 39.4-yard net average, both career highs…Weatherford left 22 punts inside the 20-yard line and had only 6 touchbacks... Weatherford's gross punting average of 47.5 yards placed him 8th in the NFL and was the highest single-season average by a Giants punter with at least 35 kicks. The previous mark of 46.6 yards was set by Don Chandler in 1959 (on 55 punts)….His 39.4-yard net average was 19th…Had a career-long 68-yard punt at Cincinnati (11/11)…Punted a season-high 8 times for a 52.0-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average at Baltimore (12/23)…Had a season-high 3 punts inside the 20 vs. New Orleans (12/9) and at Baltimore…Averaged a season-high 53.3 yards (minimum 3 punts) at Cincinnati.
- In 2011, his 1st season with the Giants, Weatherford played in all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games…In the regular season, he booted 82 punts for 3,745 yards, a 45.7-yard gross average (14th in the NFL) and a 39.2-yard net average (13th in the league) – both career highs… The 45.7-yard gross average was the 2nd-highest single-season average in Giants history, surpassed only by Don Chandler's 46.6-yard average in 1969 (minimum 35 punts)… Weatherford dropped 25 punts inside the 20-yard line, had 6 touchbacks and a long punt of 62 yards…Also had 4 solo special-teams tackles…In the postseason, Weatherford had 22 punts for 999 yards, a 45.4-yard gross average and a 39.7-yard net average with 6 inside the 20, two touchbacks and a long punt of 57 yards.
- Weatherford punted 12 times in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory in San Francisco. He tied David Lee of the Baltimore Colts (in a 1977 AFC Divisional Playoff) for the 2nd-highest total in NFL postseason history. The record of 14 was set by Jets punter – and former Giant – Dave Jennings in a 1986 divisional playoff game. All 3 games went into overtime. The former Giants postseason record was 11 punts by Brad Maynard against the Ravens in Super Bowl XXXV.
- Weatherford's 557 punting yards vs. the 49ers easily outdistanced the Giants' former postseason record of 422, set by Maynard in Super Bowl XXXV.
- Weatherford set a Super Bowl record with 3 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5).
- Punted a regular-season-high 9 times vs. Philadelphia (11/20) and at the Jets (12/24)…His 463 yards vs. the Eagles were a season-high…Had a season-best 53.7-yard gross average (3 punts for 161 yards) vs. Buffalo (10/16) and a season-high 44.5-yard net average vs. Miami (10/30) and vs. Washington (12/18)…Had regular season-long 62-yard punt at Dallas (11/21) and postseason-long 57-yarder in NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22)…In Super Bowl XLVI, punted 4 times for 163 yards, a 40.8-yard gross average and a 35.6-yard net average with 3 inside the 20 and 1 touchback.
- In 2010, played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Jets…Had a career-high 84 punts for a gross average of 42.6 yards and a net average of 38.1 yards…Tied an NFL record by placing 42 punts inside the 20-yard line. He shares the mark with San Francisco's Andy Lee (2007) and Arizona's Ben Graham (2009)…His 4 touchbacks tied a career low…In 3 postseason games, Weatherford had 15 punts for a 40.9-yard gross average and a 29.5-yard net average with 3 kicks inside the 20 and 6 touchdowns…Punted 5 times for a season-high 48.6-yard gross average at Denver (10/17)…Had a season-best 45.3-yard net average vs. Houston (11/21)…Placed 6 punts inside the 20 vs. Miami (12/12) and 5 vs. Cincinnati

(11/25)…Tied his career-high with 61-yard punts at Miami (9/26) and vs. Cincinnati…Booted a 65-yard punt in AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/8)…Ran for a 17-yard gain out of punt formation vs. Green Bay (10/31). Originally ruled an 18-yard gain on 4th-and-18, but the 1st down was overturned after a replay challenge.

- In 2009, played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Jets…Finished with 80 punts for a 42.0-yard gross average and a 36.7-yard net average, with 25 punts inside-the-20…Played in the final 2 postseason games (at San Diego on 1/17 and at Indianapolis on 1/24) after missing the AFC Wild Card Game at Cincinnati (1/9) due to an illness...Punted 4 times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average, with 2 punts inside the 20… Executed a successful fake punt when he ran for 26 yards and a 1st down on 4th-and-6 on the Jets' opening drive at Miami (10/12), where all 3 of his punts landed inside the 20…Booted a career-long 66-yard punt in the 4th quarter vs. Carolina (11/29), when he finished with a 50.8 average on 5 punts with a 32.8 net, including one inside-the-20…Had 2 special-teams tackles and ran 16 yards on 4th-and-7 on a fake punt, making a 1st down to end the 1st quarter at Oakland
- In 2008, played for New Orleans (7 games), Kansas City (2) and Jacksonville (5)…Finished the season with 59 punts for a 42.7-yard gross average and a 34.1-yard net average…Booted 26 punts for averages of 41.1 and 34.2 yards with 5 inside the 20 and 2 special-teams tackles for New Orleans, 12 punts for 42.7 and 27.8-yard averages with 1 inside the 20 for Kansas City and 21 punts for 43.6 and 37.7-yard averages for Jacksonville.
- In 2007, played all 16 games for New Orleans and punted 63 times for a 43.8-yard gross average and a 37.2-yard net average with 20 punts inside-the-20…Also had 1 rush for 5 yards and one special-teams tackle.
- As a rookie in 2006, Weatherford played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Saints… Punted 77 times in the regular season for a 43.8-yard gross average and a 37.5-yard net average with 19 inside-the-20…Had 1 special-teams tackle…In the postseason, had 8 punts, including 5 for a 38.8-yard gross average and a 30.0-yard net average in the NFC Championship Game at Chicago.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (32nd pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2012.

GIANTS NOTE:
- In 2012, David Wilson set a Giants record with 1,533 kickoff return yards, easily breaking the former mark of 1,291, set by Domenik Hixon in 2009.
- Wilson accounted for a Giants-record all-purpose 327 yards (227 on kickoff returns, 100 rushing) vs. New Orleans on Dec. 9.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- As a rookie in 2012, Wilson played in all 16 games with 2 starts…He had 57 of the Giants' 63 kickoff returns for 1,533 yards (26.9-yard avg.) and a touchdown. The 1,533 kickoff return yards set a Giants record, breaking the former mark of 1,291, set by Domenik Hixon in 2009…After just 1 season, Wilson is 8th on the Giants' career list with his 1,533 yards…Wilson's 57 returns tied the team record Hixon set in 2009.
- Wilson also rushed for 358 yards (3rd on the team) and 4 touchdowns and caught 4 passes for 34 yards and a score. His 1,925 all-purpose yards were the most ever by a Giants rookie and the most for any Giant since Tiki Barber had 2,127 in 2006…Wilson had the 2nd-highest yardage total by an NFL rookie in 2012; he finished just 1 yard behind Tampa Bay's Doug Martin – who was selected immediately prior to Wilson in the 2012 NFL Draft – who had 1,926 total yards.
- Made his NFL debut with 4 rushing yards on 2 carries and 3 kickoff returns for 71 yards vs. Dallas (9/5)…Returned 6 kickoffs for 217 yards (36.2-yard avg.) at Philadelphia (9/30)…Scored his 1st pro touchdown on a 40-yard run vs. Cleveland (10/7).
- Wilson had 1 of the NFL's most dominant 1-man performances vs. New Orleans (12/9), which earned him the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award (the 1st Giants kickoff returner to win the award since David Meggett in Week 1 in 1994). He accounted for a Giants-record all-purpose 327 yards (227 on kickoff returns, 100 rushing) vs. the Saints. He was the 1st Giants player since Joe Scott in 1948 to score rushing and kickoff return touchdowns in the same game and the first player in NFL history with at least 200 kickoff return yards and 100 rushing yards in the same game.
- Wilson was the 4th player in league history with 2 rushing touchdowns and a kickoff return touchdown in the same game. The others were Washington's Andy Farkas in 1939, Philadelphia's Steve Van Buren in 1945 and Jacksonville's Maurice Jones-Drew in 2006.
- Wilson scored on a 97-yard kickoff return and had other returns of 58 and 52 yards. He also rushed for 100 yards and 2 touchdowns. His 327 total yards broke the former mark of 303 set by Hixon at New Orleans on Oct. 18, 2009. Hixon's breakdown was 230 yards on kickoff returns, 51 on punt returns and 22 on receptions.
- Wilson's 227 kickoff return yards (on 4 runbacks) was the 3rd-highest single-game total in Giants history, surpassed only by Willie Ponder's 259 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18, 2004 and Hixon's 230 yards at New Orleans in 2009…The 227 kickoff return yards were the most by an NFL player in a game in 2012.
- Wilson averaged 56.8 yards per return, the highest total ever by a Giant with at least 3 returns in a game. The previous record of 51.8 yards was set by Scott on four returns vs. the Rams on Nov. 14, 1948.
- Wilson scored the Giants' 1st touchdown on his 97-yard kickoff return in the 1st quarter. It was the Giants' 1st kickoff return touchdown since Hixon's 74-yarder vs. New England on Dec. 29, 2007. The Giants had played 76 regular season and 9 postseason games between kickoff return touchdowns.
- It was the 20th regular-season kickoff return touchdown in the 88-season history of the Giants. They also have 2 postseason scores on kickoff returns…Seventeen different players have scored on regular-season kickoff returns for the Giants, beginning with Jack Hagerty vs. the Buffalo Bisons on Nov. 5, 1929. Clarence Childs, Rocky Thompson and Willie Ponder all did it twice (plus Ron Dixon, who returned 2 kickoffs for touchdowns in the 2000 postseason).
- Wilson's 97-yard return was the longest by a Giant in the regular season since Childs' 100-yard runback on Dec. 6, 1964. Both of Dixon's postseason kickoff returns touchdowns were 97 yards. Childs shares the Giants' record for longest runback with Hall of Famer Emlen Tunnell, who had a 100-return against the New York Yankees on Nov. 4, 1951.
- On Nov. 14, 1948, Scott scored on a 9-yard run and a 99-yard kickoff return. He was the last Giant with a rushing touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same game until Wilson did it against the Saints. But Scott went one better. He also caught a 19-yard touchdown pass in a 52-37 loss to the Los Angeles Rams. Scott is the only player in Giants history with rushing, receiving and kickoff return touchdowns in the same game.

- Wilson got his 1st career start at Atlanta (12/16)… Also started vs. Philadelphia (12/30), when he had a season-high 15 rushing attempts (for 75 yards) and caught his 1st career touchdown pass, a 15-yarder. He scored touchdowns rushing, receiving and on a kickoff return in 2012, the 1st Giant to do so since Scott in 1948.

COLLEGE:
- Played in 40 games with 15 starts at Virginia Tech… Carried 462 times for 2,662 yards (5.8-yard avg.) and 18 touchdowns…Caught 37 passes for 363 yards (9.8-yard avg.) and 5 scores…Returned 61 kickoffs for 1,324 yards (21.7-yard avg.) and 2 touchdowns…Touched the ball a total of 560 times for 4,349 all-purpose yards, an average of 7.8 yards per attempt and 108.7 yards per game…Ran for more than 100 yards in 12 games, the 4th-best career total in school history… His ten 100-yard rushing performances in 2011 tied the school single-season record set by Ryan Williams in 2009…His 2,662 yards rushing rank 8th in school history…His 1,709 yards on the ground in 2011 broke the old school record of 1,655 yards by Williams in 2009…Generated 2,253 all-purpose yards in 2011, the most ever by a junior in the Atlantic Coast Conference, topping the previous mark of 1,906 yards by former Giant Tiki Barber of Virginia in 1995…The only other ACC performers to gain at least 2,000 all-purpose yards in a season were Sammy Watkins of Clemson (2,288 in 2011), C.J. Spiller of Clemson (record 2,680 in 2009), Thomas Jones of Virginia (2,054 in 1999) and Don McCauley of North Carolina (2,021 in 1970)…Ranks 2nd in school history with 61 kickoff returns, topped by only Jon Jeffries (67; 1987-91)…Set the school single-season record by returning 2 kickoffs for touchdowns in 2010 (also tied the Tech career record that he shares with Terry Strock 1959-61)…Placed 4th on the school's career list with 1,324 kickoff return yards.
- In 2011, Wilson was a 2nd-team Associated Press All-America tailback and 1st-team All-ACC…Earned league MVP and Offensive Player of the Year recognition… Won the Dudley Award, given to the state's top Division I football player…Started all 14 games…Tied the school season-record with ten 100-yard rushing performances, including a string of 7 in a row, the longest streak by a Tech ball carrier since Frank Beamer became the head coach in 1987…Led the ACC and ranked 8th in the nation with an average of 122.1 yards per game rushing…In 2010, played in 13 games with 1 start (Miami)…Sat out the game vs. North Carolina with mononucleosis… Finished 2nd on the team and 14th in the ACC with 113 carries for 619 yards (5.5-yard avg.) and 5 touchdowns… Caught 15 passes for 234 yards (15.6-yard avg.) and 4 scores…As a true freshman in 2009, played in all 13 games as a reserve tailback…Finished 4th on the team with 334 rushing yards on 59 carries (5.7-yard avg.) and 4 touchdowns…Had 17 kickoff returns for 325 yards (19.1-yard avg.)…In his 2nd collegiate game, he led the team with 165 yards on 12 carries and scored on a 36-yard run.

TRACK:
- Wilson competed with both the Virginia Tech indoor and outdoor track teams, concentrating as a jumper, earning All-America honors as a junior…In the 2010-11 season, he finished 3rd in the triple-jump at the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championships…Splitting time between football and track during the spring, he participated in the ACC Outdoor Track & Field Championships, where he placed 2nd in the triple jump and qualified for the NCAA Nationals…Placed 6th in the event at the NCAA Outdoor Championships…In the 2009-10 season, Wilson finished 4th in the triple jump at both the ACC Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:
- Joined teammates to serve a meal at Eva's Village in Paterson, N.J. for the clients of the shelter.
- Attended the Giants' annual Kickoff Luncheon benefitting Hackensack University Medical Center.
- Attended the Jay Fund's Annual Champions for Children's Gala in New York City.

PERSONAL:
- Attended George Washington High School in Danville, Virginia…As a senior, Wilson set school records with 2,291 rushing yards and 35 touchdowns… Named 1st-team all-district and all-region selection and the Gatorade Player of the Year for Virginia…Also named All-America by Super Prep and Prep Star All-American…A member of the USA Football's 2009 Junior National Team, which competed in the sport's 1st junior world championship…As a junior, he rushed for 1,551 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns and added 2 touchdowns on returns and 1 on a reception…Rushed for 47 yards on 13 carries, and caught 2 passes for 50 more and scored 2 touchdowns in the Hawaii/Polynesia Mainland Bowl in December 2008, earning MVP honors…In addition to his success on the gridiron, he placed 1st at the Nike Indoor Nationals for the triple jump…History major, twice earning ACC Academic Honor Roll accolades…Son of Shelia and Dwight Wilson…Born David Emmanuel Wilson in Danville, Virginia.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Giants raise the Lombardi Trophy during the postgame ceremonies at Super Bowl XLII

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name, score, logo and roster if the team wishes.

COWBOYS VS. GIANTS
SEPTEMBER 5, 2012
COWBOYS 24, GIANTS 17

The Giants' season opening 24-17 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in MetLife Stadium certainly left a sour feeling in their collective stomach. Seven months to the day after they won Super Bowl XLVI, the Giants were hoping to take a strong initial step toward another successful season. But their only lead was 3-0 and they trailed by two touchdowns in the fourth quarter on their way to becoming the first defending champion to lose an opener in 13 years (Denver, 1999).

Tony Romo threw three touchdown passes, including strikes of 10 and 40 yards to Kevin Ogletree, who scored the first two touchdowns of his four-year, 32-game career, and a 34-yarder to Miles Austin that put the Cowboys comfortably ahead in the fourth. Dan Bailey kicked a 33-yard field goal for Dallas.

The game had many turning points from the Giants' perspective, but perhaps none as crucial as a strange sequence in the fourth quarter. The Cowboys led, 17-10, when they drove from their own 18 to the Giants' 14. But back-to-back 10-yard penalties pushed them back to the 34, where they faced a first-and-30. The Giants seemingly had the upper hand, but on the next snap, Austin juked his way past cornerback Justin Tryon – who took over for the injured Michael Coe, who was filling in for the inactive Prince Amukamara – and caught Romo's pass before Rolle could get over from his safety position and sprinted to the end zone for an unlikely touchdown that gave Dallas a 24-10 lead with 5:57 left.

BUCCANEERS VS. GIANTS
SEPTEMBER 17, 2012
GIANTS 41, BUCCANEERS 34

The Giants were able to rebound from a sloppy first half in order to come out on the right end of a hard fought 41-34 thriller over the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers in MetLife Stadium.

Eli Manning threw for three touchdowns, and established a new career high with 510 yards passing, also second most in the history of the franchise (Phil Simms, 1985). Manning continued his trend of excelling in the fourth quarter, as he completed passes to Victor Cruz and Martellus Bennett for touchdowns of 80, and 33 yards, respectively. Hakeem Nicks scored on a 23 yard pass from Manning in the second quarter. Andre Brown recorded the first touchdown of his career, on a two yard run, to cap off the scoring for the game and give the Giants the lead for good. Giants' Kicker Lawrence Tynes accounted for four made field goals.

The first half saw Manning throw three interceptions, the last of which was returned 60 yards by Tampa Bay cornerback Eric Wright for a touchdown with 0:08 left in the first half. The return increased the Buccaneers' lead to 24-13. Tampa Bay was able to capitalize on each interception, as their first three touchdowns came off of Giants' turnovers. The Buccaneers seemed to have the game in control Connor Barth made a 52 yard field goal, to extend Tampa Bay's lead to 27-13. From there, it was basically all Giants, as they outscored Tampa Bay, 28-7 the rest of the way, to improve their record to 1-1 on the season. The Giants recorded 604 total yards in the game, which was second most in the history of the franchise (609 vs. N.Y. Yanks, Dec. 3,1950).

GIANTS AT PANTHERS
SEPTEMBER 20, 2012
GIANTS 36, PANTHERS 7

It was surely a night to remember for the Giants' 2009 draft class, as the third and fourth round picks from that draft, Ramses Barden and Andre Brown, had career games. The Giants got out to a much quicker start than they did in their previous game, as they led the Panthers 20-0 at halftime. Things didn't get much better for the Panthers in the second half, as they eventually fell to the Giants, 36-7, at Bank of America Stadium.

Brown carried the ball 20 times for 113 yards and two touchdowns in his first career start. Barden hauled in nine receptions for 138 yards in his first career start. Eli Manning completed 28 passes for 288 yards and a touchdown. Tight end Martellus Bennett caught his third touchdown pass of the season on a 14 yard pass from Manning on the Giants' opening drive. The catch gave Bennett a touchdown in each of his first three games as a New York Giant.

The Giants' offense came away with points on their first four possessions of the game. Kicker Lawrence Tynes' 30 yard field goal with 12:49 in the third quarter gave the Giants their biggest lead of the night, as they extended their lead to 23-0, before Cam Newton got the Panthers on the board for their only score of the night on a one yard run with 6:26 left in the third quarter.

Cam Newton threw three interceptions, and was sacked twice. Michael Boley's interception in the fourth quarter was his third of the season. So far, he has intercepted a pass in each of the Giants' games in the 2012 season. With a strong, balanced effort from the offense, defense and special teams, the Giants were able to improve to 2-1 on the season.

GIANTS AT EAGLES
SEPTEMBER 30, 2012
EAGLES 19, GIANTS 17

Lawrence Tynes' 54-yard field-goal attempt in the final seconds fell a few feet shy of the uprights, as the Giants loss to their NFC East foe, the Philadelphia Eagles, 19-17. The loss dropped the Giants to 2-2, with both losses coming to division rivals.

The first half of this game was dominated by the defenses. The lone touchdown of the half came when Eagles' wide receiver DeSean Jackson got open in the secondary as Michael Vick found him in the left corner of end zone, with 1:47 left in the half. The Giants quickly responded with a field goal from Tynes with 0:05 left in the half as the Eagles took a 7-3 lead into the half.

Both teams' offenses seemed to come alive in the second half, with both teams exchanging scores. Eagles' kicker Alex Henery was set up with a 26 yard attempt that narrowly made it through the right side of the goal post, to give the Eagles the lead again, at 19-17, with 1:49 left in the game.

The Giants' final drive had a sloppy start, which included a fumble and a near interception on the first two plays. However, Giants' wide receiver Ramses Barden, who had a career game last week against the Panthers, drew two defensive pass interference calls that gained 29 yards total for the Giants. However, on a deep pass intended for him, he was called for offensive pass interference, moving the ball back to the 37-yard line, setting up Tynes' potential game-winning field goal that fell short.

BROWNS VS. GIANTS
OCTOBER 7, 2012
GIANTS 41, BROWNS 27

The Giants overcame an early 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Browns 41-13 the rest of the way, as New York defeated Cleveland, 41-27, in MetLife Stadium. The victory improved their record to 3-2.

After Giants running back Ahmad Bradshaw lost a fumble on the first play of scrimmage, Browns running back Trent Richardson found the end zone from 15-yards out just two plays later, to give the Browns a 7-0 lead. The Browns would reach the end zone again on their very next drive, after quarterback Brandon Weeden hit wide receiver Josh Gordon deep on a 62-yard strike to give the Browns that 14-0 advantage. But the G-Men woud rally.

A three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Eli Manning to wide receiver Victor Cruz, cut the Giants' deficit to 14-7. The second quarter was when the Giants' offense came alive. A four-yard touchdown run by Bradshaw, a seven-yard pass from Manning to Cruz, and two field goals (29, 40) from kicker Lawrence Tynes helped the Giants establish a 27-17 lead at halftime.

In the second half, the Giants continued to move the ball well on the ground and via the pass. Cruz scored again in the third quarter, this time on a 28-yard pass from Manning. Bradshaw carried the ball 15 times for 120 yards in the second half. Finally, rookie running back David Wilson recorded the first touchdown of his NFL career on a 40-yard run up the middle, where he was virtually untouched on the play. Bradshaw's 200-yard rushing day on 30 carries was a career best. Cruz's three touchdown receptions were also a career-high.

GIANTS AT 49ERS
GIANTS 26, 49ERS 3

Picking up where they left off from the week before, the Giants' offense looked to establish the running game early against one of the NFL's best rushing defenses. This strategy would pay off in the second quarter, when Eli Manning found Victor Cruz off a play-action fake for a six-yard touchdown pass, to give the Giants a 7-3 lead that they would only build on for the rest of the game.

David Wilson showed his explosiveness on the kickoff that started the second half, as he returned it 66 yards, to the 49ers 32-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw would cap off the short drive, when he bulldozed his way into the end zone from one yard out in the third quarter to account for the other Giants touchdown, extending their lead to 17-3. Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 34, 30, 22, and 32 yards, to account for the rest of the game's scoring.

49ers' kicker David Akers' 42-yard field goal in the first quarter were the only points that the Giants gave up. Alex Smith had three of his passes intercepted by the Giants' defense. In addition to forcing the 49ers' offense into making mistakes, the Giants' pass rush had its best performance of the season, recording a season-high six sacks in the game. Prince Amukamara's interception in the second quarter would set up the drive that resulted in the Giants' first touchdown of the day. Antrel Rolle intercepted Smith on back-to-back drives in the third quarter, allowing the Giants' offense to start immediately in the red zone, where they came away with field goals on both possessions.

REDSKINS VS. GIANTS
GIANTS 27, REDSKINS 23

The Redskins took a 23-20 lead on a 30-yard catch by Santana Moss with 1:32 left in the game. However, the Giants' offense, which seemed to be out of sync for much of the game, took the lead back only two plays into the ensuing drive. Eli Manning would find Victor Cruz on a streak route for the game-winning 77-yard touchdown pass with 1:13 left in regulation, as the Giants defeated NFC East foe Redskins, 27-23, at MetLife Stadium.

In the game, the Giants' defense recorded an interception, came up with three sacks, and forced three fumbles, all of which they recovered. The last fumble was on the Redskins' final drive and was recovered by Jayron Hosley, who Santana Moss beat for the go-ahead score on Washington's previous possesion.

Eli Manning ended up completing 26-of-40 passes in the game for 337 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Victor Cruz caught seven passes for 131 yards and the game-winning touchdown.

GIANTS AT COWBOYS
OCTOBER 28, 2012
GIANTS 29, COWBOYS 24

The Giants jumped out to a 23-0 lead, lost it, regained the advantage, and needed an overturned touchdown to defeat the Cowboys, 29-24, at Cowboys Stadium .

The last two of Lawrence Tynes' five field goals were the only points scored in the fourth quarter, as New York remained undefeated (4-0) in Cowboys Stadium, which opened in 2009.

After dominating the game early, the Giants appeared to have lost the game when Dez Bryant got behind the secondary and caught a pass from Romo in the back of the end zone with 10 seconds to play. However, the replay clearly showed Bryant's hand (his first body part to make contact with the ground) hit the white end line when he landed. No touchdown.

The Giants had six takeaways – four interceptions, including two by Stevie Brown – and two fumble recoveries (one by Brown). Tony Romo threw for 437 yards, Jason Witten's 18 receptions were the most ever against the Giants, and three Dallas receivers each had more than 100 yards.

STEELERS VS. GIANTS
NOVEMBER 4, 2012
STEELERS 24, GIANTS 20

The Giants had a four-game winning streak snapped at the hands of the Steelers, 24-20, in MetLife Stadium.

The Giants fell flat during a game where they honored 150 servicemen and women and 100 first responders in the wake a Hurricane Sandy. They were outscored 14-0 in the fourth quarter, capped off by Steelers running back Isaac Redman's one-yard touchdown run. Eli Manning, who has orchestrated several fourth quarter rallies over the previous two seasons, was unable to repeat the magic, as New York fell to 6-3 on the season.

The Giants gained only 182 yards, including 68 on the ground. Manning completed 10 of 24 passes for 125 yards. The Giants converted only two of 10 third down opportunities. However, the team did have a few outstanding performances on defense. For the second game in a row, the Giants scored a defensive touchdown when Michael Boley recovered a fumble forced by Osi Umenyiora and ran it back 70 yards to give the Giants their first lead of the game. Justin Tuck recorded two sacks, Jason Pierre-Paul also added a sack and Corey Webster intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass.

GIANTS AT BENGALS
NOVEMBER 11, 2012
BENGALS 31, GIANTS 13

The Giants lost their second straight game, as they fell to the Bengals in Paul Brown Stadium 31-13.

It was a very sloppy game for the Giants overall, as they turned the ball over 4 times, gave up 4 sacks, and constantly allowed the Bengals' offense to start their drives with short fields. The Giants surrendered touchdowns on consecutive drives in the first quarter, as wide receivers A.J. Green and Andrew Hawkins scored on receptions of 56 and 11 yards on passes from quarterback Andy Dalton. The Giants had several chances to trim the deficit, which grew to as many as 25 points, but various mistakes halted many drives that had promise.

Despite losing by 18 points and reaching the end zone only once, the Giants ended the game with more total yards than the Bengals (318-275). Eli Manning completed 29 of 46 passes for 215 yards and two interceptions. Hakeem Nicks had nine receptions for 75 yards. Prince Amukamara led the team with 10 tackles

PACKERS VS. GIANTS

NOVEMBER 25, 2012

GIANTS 38, PACKERS 10

The Giants and Packers met for the first time since the 2011 NFC Divisional Round – when the Giants went into Green Bay and defeated the 15-1 Packers en route to winning the Super Bowl – they continued their dominant play against their NFC North foe, cruising to a 38-10 win in a Sunday night matchup.

The Giants were firing on all cylinders early, as their balanced attack on offense and swarming defense led to a 31-10 halftime lead. Rueben Randle's 16-yard touchdown reception, the first of his career, gave the Giants the lead for good at 14-7.

Eli Manning completed 16-of-30 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns, the last of which allowed him to pass Phil Simms to become the Giants all-time leader in passing touchdowns with 200. Andre Brown scored on a two-yard run to give him one rushing touchdown in each of the last 5 games. Randle, Victor Cruz and Hakeem Nicks all caught 1 touchdown reception each from Manning for 16, nine and 13 yards, respectively.

GIANTS AT REDSKINS

DECEMBER 3, 2012

REDSKINS 17, GIANTS 16

The Giants had hopes of taking control of the division, but rookie sensations Robert Griffin III and Alfred Morris proved to be too much down the stretch as New York fell to their NFC East foe, the Washington Redskins, 17-16, on Monday Night Football. The Giants, who were one of the least penalized teams in the league, were flagged for 9 infractions for 73 yards, including six for 45 yards in the first half.

After the Giants took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter, the Redskins offense found the end zone on one of the oddest touchdowns in recent memory. Griffin III had slid and appeared to give himself up, but lost the ball due to a Stevie Brown hit. The ball rolled forward and was picked up by wide receiver Joshua Morgan who returned it 13 yards for the score.

The Giants offense methodically controlled the ball in the first half, as they ran 40 plays to Washington's 20 and possessed the ball for over 20 minutes. However, the Giants had only one touchdown in the game and 3 field goals in the game. Eli Manning completed 20-of 33 passes for 280 yards and a touchdown. Ahmad Bradshaw rushed 24 times for 103 yards. Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 39, 40 and 35-yards, but missed on a 43-yard attempt due to a wide snap.

SAINTS VS. GIANTS

DECEMBER 9, 2012

GIANTS 52, SAINTS 27

Rookie David Wilson and the Giants special teams unit had a record-breaking day, as the Giants defeated the Saints, 52-27, in a pivotal game that helped New York stay atop the NFC East.

The Saints got the scoring started when cornerback Elbert Mack made a bobbling interception off an Eli Manning pass that he returned 72-yards for a touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Wilson returned the kickoff 97-yards to tie the score at 7-7.

The explosive kickoff returns of Wilson and Jerrel Jernigan, along with the four turnovers forced by the defense allowed the Giants to start many of their drives in Saints territory. Wilson set the Giants single-season record with kickoff return yards with 1,301. Brown also set a franchise record, by amassing 259 interception return yards so far on the season.

Wilson became the first player in NFL history to rush for 100-yards with two touchdowns and record more than 200 kickoff return yards and a touchdown, as he accumulated a Giants record 337 all-purpose yards for the day. Manning went 22-of-35 passing for 259 yards, four touchdowns and two interceptions. Victor Cruz caught eight passes for 121 yards and a touchdown and he surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the second season in a row.

The Giants eclipsed the 50-point scoring mark for the first time in 26 years.

GIANTS AT FALCONS
DECEMBER 16, 2012
FALCONS 34, GIANTS 0

One week after scoring 52 points in a gem of a victory over New Orleans, the Giants were shut out on the scoreboard in one of their worst and ugliest losses in memory. New York was outplayed in all phases and fell hard to the Atlanta Falcons, 34-0, in the Georgia Dome.

Lawrence Tynes was wide left on a 30-yard field goal attempt, his 3rd miss in as many weeks. David Wilson fielded the opening kickoff six yards deep and instead of taking a touchback to put the ball on the 20, he ran it out to the 13. Two plays later, Eli Manning was picked off and the rout was on.

In the defeat, Manning surpassed Phil Simms as the franchise's all-time leader in completions when he connected with Domenik Hixon with about 3½ minutes remaining in the second quarter for a nine-yard gain. It was the 2,577th completion of his career.

During the contest, the Giants honored the victims of the Sandy Hook Elementary tragedy with the marking "S.H.E.S" written on each of the players' helmets.

GIANTS AT RAVENS

RAVENS 33, GIANTS 14

The Giants fell to the Baltimore Ravens, 33-14, in M&T Bank Stadium in one of their most dissapointing losses of the season. Needing to win their last two contests ensure a playoff berth, New York came out sluggish on both sides of the ball, going three-and-out on its first three offensive series and allowing Baltimore to score on its first 2. After allowing two early touchdowns, David Wilson's 14-yard touchdown run closed the gap to 14-7, but they were unable to build on that, and the deficit only grew from there.

The Giants defense gave up 533 yards, with 309 coming through the air and 224 coming on the ground. A bad trend of the Giants defense surrendering big plays continued, as four different Ravens each had one reception of more than 25 yards and also allowed back-up RB Bernard Pierce to break off a 78-yard run. The Giants offense was only able to generate 186 yards in the game.

Eli Manning was sacked 3 times and was hit on many dropbacks. He completed 14 of 28 passes for 150 yards and a touchdown, while his counterpart Joe Flacco hit 25-36 for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns. Flacco also scored from one yard out and was never sacked.

GIANTS VS. EAGLES

GIANTS 42, EAGLES 7

The Giants turned in one of their finest performances of the season, crushing the Philadelphia Eagles, 42-7, in their finale in MetLife Stadium. Eli Manning led the way by throwing a career-high five touchdown passes.

Despite their largest victory margin in more than three years, the Giants learned within minutes of leaving the field that they had been eliminated from the playoffs. The Giants ended the 2012 record with a 9-7 record – the same mark they had the previous year, when they won the NFC East title and went on to defeat New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

The Eagles got an early jump on the Giants by recovering the onside kick to start the game, but Stevie Brown intercepted a Michael Vick pass to swing the momentum in favor of the Giants. From there, the Giants jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter, thanks to Manning's three touchdown passes, including 2 to Rueben Randle.

After Jeremy Maclin caught a seven-yard touchdown pass from Vick early in the second quarter to cut the deficit to 21-7, the rest of the scoring in the game was by the Giants. The Giants finished 6-2 at MetLife Stadium in 2012, the best home record in the history of the stadium and the best record at home for the Giants since going 7-1 in 2008.

JAGUARS 32, GIANTS 31
Aug. 10, 2012
EverBank Field

The Giants squandered leads of 17 points in the second quarter and 10 points in the fourth, as they were defeated by the Jacksonville Jaguars in their preseason opener, 32-31, at EverBank Field.

The Giants led by seven midway through the fourth when Jerrel Jernigan muffed a punt return at the 32-yard line that led to Jacksonville's game-winning drive.

Jordan Palmer orchestrated the TD drive, setting up Keith Toston's nine-yard run to get the Jaguars to within one, 31-30. On the next play, Palmer found rookie tight end Matt Veldmann to convert on the game-winning points.

The Giants, needing only a field goal to win the game, took possession at their own 18 with 1:55 remaining and all three timeouts. Third-team quarterback Ryan Perrilloux ran the offense and was pressured every time he dropped back. He seemed to put the Giants in field goal range with an 18-yard pass to Joe Martinek with two seconds left, but Perrilloux was penalized for an illegal forward pass because he let go of the ball beyond the line of scrimmage.

MetLife Stadium

The Giants defense set the tone for the contest as they clubbed the Jets, 26-3, in the MetLife Bowl – their annual preseason game at MetLife Stadium.

Rookie Jayron Hosley returned an interception 77 yards for a touchdown, and the defending Super Bowl champions got seven sacks. The only other Giants' touchdown was by rookie free agent Joe Martinek, who turned a short Ryan Perrilloux pass into a 14-yard touchdown with 6:41 remaining.

Lawrence Tynes connected on all four of his field goal attempts and booted all seven of his kickoffs into the end zone, including four for touchbacks.

The Giants' starters played the entire first half, which ended with the Giants owning a 13-0 lead.

BEARS 20 , GIANTS 17
MetLife Stadium

Rookie running back David Wilson had an impact game, rushing for 49 yards on five carries and catching two passes for 26 yards, including a 29-yarder, but it wasn't enough as the Giants lost to the Bears, 20-17, at MetLife Stadium.

Starting for the first time in place of Ahmad Bradshaw, Wilson was one of several offensive players who played impressively for the Giants. Eli Manning had his best game of the preseason, completing 17 of 21 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown. Ramses Barden and Andre Brown each scored touchdowns.

Down 17-7 at the half, Cutler took the opening series of the second half for the Bears and led them on a quick seven-play, 59-yard march that Gould capped with a 30-yard field goal.

Jason Campbell then orchestrated the Bears game-winningdrive, going 11 plays and covering 58 yards.

Lawrence Tynes connected on a 32-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining as the Giants defeated the New England Patiots at MetLife Stadium, 6-3, in the final preseason contest for both teams.

Giants undrafted rookie Adele Ojomo led the team with 4.0 sacks during the preseason and his sack and forced fumble set up Tynes' game winner.

HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

TIM MARA

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

WHY GIANTS? HOW THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS GOT ITS NAME

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history.The Giants finished 8-8 in 2006, but made the playoffs as a wild card.

The 2007 season began inauspiciously, with losses in the first two games, but ended as one of the greatest seasons in Giants history. The Giants clinched an NFC wild card postseason berth with a victory in Buffalo in their 15th game. The following week, they narrowly lost to the undefeated New England Patriots in the regular season finale to finish 10-6. What followed was one of the greatest postseason runs in NFL history, one that culminated with an upset of the Patriots in an exhilarating Super Bowl XLII. Along the way, the Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from their home stadium.

The Giants, seeded fifth in the conference, opened postseason play with a 24-14 Wild Card victory at Tampa Bay. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants. The following week, the Giants avenged two regular season defeats with a 21-17 triumph over the Cowboys in Dallas in a divisional playoff. Amani Toomer caught two touchdown passes, Jacobs scored on a short run and the defense limited the high-scoring Cowboys to three second-half points.

The Giants captured the conference title with a thrilling 23-20 overtime triumph over the Green Bay Packers in frigid Lambeau Field. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with a wind-chill factor of minus-23, making it the coldest game in Giants history. Lawrence Tynes – who missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final p lay of regulation – kicked a 47-yard field goal 2:35 into overtime for the victory. The field goal was set up by Corey Webster's interception of the last pass of Brett Favre's career. Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw scored touchdowns for the Giants and Tynes added field goals of 29 and 37 yards.

Super Bowl XLII was played in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants were heavy underdogs to a New England team that was 18-0 and was bidding to conclude the second perfect season in NFL history. But it was the Giants who enjoyed a perfect finish. Trailing, 7-3, entering the fourth quarter, they took their first lead of the game on Manning's five-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree. The score was set up by a 45-yard catch-and-run by rookie tight end Kevin Boss. New England took a 14-10 lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Randy Moss with just 2:42 remaining.

The Giants took possession at their own 17 with 2:39 left in the game and Manning proceeded to lead them on one of the great drives in NFL postseason history. The highlight of the 12-play, 83-yard march occurred on third-and-five form the Giants' 44. Manning somehow eluded the grasp of the rushing Patriots line and threw downfield for Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet for a miracle 32-yard gain. Steve Smith picked up a critical first down before Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining. The Giants stopped a last desperate New England possession won win their third Super Bowl in one of the biggest upsets in the game's history.

In 2011, the Giants again won the Super Bowl under very similar circumstances, using a last-minute touchdown to defeat New England, 21-17, in Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis. Once again, the Giants shocked the football public by winning the Vince Lombardi. After a home loss to Washington on Dec. 18, their record was 7-7. A loss in either of their final two regular season games would have eliminated them from the playoffs. But they defeated the Jets, 29-14, as the visiting team before routing Dallas on New Year's Night, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title.

Seeded fourth, the Giants opened the postseason with their third consecutive convincing victory in MetLife Stadium, a 24-2 triumph over the Atlanta Falcons in an NFC Wild Card Game. The following week, Manning threw for 330 yards and three touchdowns, including a Hail Mary to Hakeem Nicks on the final play of the first half, and the Giants crushed the top-seeded and defending champion Green Bay Packers, 37-20, in Lambeau Field. That advanced the Giants to the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco, where they had lost a regular season game two months earlier. This time, Devin Thomas recovered a fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams that led to Tynes' game-winning 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in overtime and a 20-17 Giants victory.

In the Super Bowl, the Giants jumped ahead, 9-0, before the Patriots scored 17 consecutive points. Two third-quarter field goals by Tynes lifted them to within 17-15. The Giants trailed by that score when they took possession at their own 12-yard line with 3:46 remaining. Manning then reprised the fourth-quarter magic he had used to win the previous Super Bowl and seven games in the 2011 season. He immediately threw a perfect strike down the left sideline to Mario Manningham for a 38-yard gain. He completed five of six passes on the drive and 10 of 14 in the decisive quarter. Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown by backing into the end zone on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining. The defense withstood one last Patriots rally to secure the Giants' second Super Bowl victory in five seasons and fourth overall.

In 2012, the Giants finished with a winning record for the third year in a row, but their 9-7 mark – the same record they had the previous season, when they won the Super Bowl - left them in second place in the NFC East and out of the playoffs. The Giants finished 6-2 at home, their finest home mark since they were 7-1 in 2008. They were 4-4 at home in 2011 championship season. The Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. They allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks. The Giants' plus-14 turnover differential was their best since they were plus-25 in 1997. The Giants intercepted 21 passes in 2012, their highest total since they had 27 picks, also in 1997.

1925
Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926
Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927
Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928
After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929
Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930
For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931
After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932
Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard- fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933
The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

THE "SNEAKERS GAME"

1934
In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935
After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936
The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937
Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938
A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939
On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940
The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941
With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947
The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948
The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949
Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950
The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951
End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952
Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953
Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954
Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955
On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956
Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957
The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958
After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record

1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

GIANTS STADIUM IN JULY 1976

1970
After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971
After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972
Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973
Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974
Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975
The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976
Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977
Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978
The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979
Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980
A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981
With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for

1982

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall-were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

1987

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

After a 3-7 start, the Giants dimbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workman-like two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

1996

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead edipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

1999

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

2000

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles – his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles – and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 – the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver – made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver – and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks – the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most post-season appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani

2003

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and started the season 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. He finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. Barber was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, edipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. The Giants had other standout performers. Willie Ponder's averaged an NFL-best 26.9 yards on kickoff returns, the highest average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Eli Manning, selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo) and David Tyree had a team-high 23 special teams tackles.

Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, shattering the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years – Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

The 2005 season was marked by soaring success and searing tragedy. The Giants finished 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. But the Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City mover and shaker, died on Nov. 15. The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. The Pro Bowlers were Barber, Shockey, Osi Umenyiora, Michael Strahan and David Tyree.

Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports

Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979.

Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990.

The Giants finished 8-8 and earned their second consecutive postseason berth, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Tiki Barber ended his record-setting career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career. Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included wide receiver Amani Toomer (knee), seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (Lisfranc foot sprain), left tackle Luke Petitgout, three-time Pro Bowl linebacker LaVar Arrington, reserve defensive end Justin Tuck and, late in the year, return specialist Chad Morton.

The 2007 season was one of the most successful, rewarding and memorable in franchise history.

The Giants stumbled to a 0-2 start – then fell behind by two touchdowns at halftime of their third game – before beginning a remarkable turnaround. They rallied to win that game, 14 of their next 18 and concluded the season with an exhilarating and unforgettable 17-14 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. It was one of the greatest upsets and most exciting championship games in the long history of the National Football League.

Eli Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining, giving the Giants a victory over a New England team that entered the game with an 18-0 record, including a three-point win over the Giants in the regular season finale. After New England had taken a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, Manning completed five passes on an 83-yard drive – including a 32-yarder on the greatest play in Super Bowl history, when he slipped the clutches of the Patriots' pass rusher and threw down field to David Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet and away from safety Rodney Harrison.

Two days after bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to the metropolitan area, the Giants were lauded by more than a million fans at a ticker tape parade up Manhattan's famed Canyon of Heroes, and later at a rally in Giants Stadium.

The Giants triumphed for the third time in four Super Bowl appearances, won their sixth title game and seventh overall championship. They won Super Bowls following the 1986, 1990 and 2007 seasons, NFL Championship Games in 1934, 1938 and 1956 and the league title in 1927, before the advent of championship games.

But this title was the most improbable of all. The Giants were just the fourth team to start a season 0-2 and reach the Super Bowl (and the third to win it). They finished the regular season at 10-6 and became the first six-loss team to win the Super Bowl since the 1988 San Francisco 49ers. The Giants won just three home games – none after October 21 – to become the first team with a losing home record to ever make the Super Bowl. The Giants were the fifth wild card team – and first from the NFC – to win the Super Bowl. They were the third team to reach the Super Bowl by winning three road playoff games, the second such team to win the Super Bowl and the first from the NFC. The Giants sent an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from home (seven regular season, four postseason, including the Super Bowl). Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Eli Manning started every game and threw for 3,336 yards and 23 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback since Phil Simms (1984-86) to top 3,000 yards and 20 touchdown passes in each of three consecutive seasons. Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Burress was unable to practice virtually the entire season because of an ankle injury, but led the team with 70 receptions for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 13 in 1967. Amani Toomer caught 59 passes and became the franchise's all-time leader in receptions with 620. The offensive line – and fullback Madison Hedgecock, acquired off waivers after he was cut by St. Louis - played well throughout the year, a big reason the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards, averaging 134.3 a game.

Under new coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing 305.0 yards a game. The Giants led the NFL with 53.0 sacks and set a franchise record with 12 in a victory over Philadelphia on Sept. 30. Osi Umenyiora was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks and was the lone Giant voted to the Pro Bowl. Justin Tuck became a force on the defensive line and had 10.0 sacks. Michael Strahan, in the final season of his great career, added 9.0 sacks and moved to fifth on the NFL's career list with 141.5. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles (63 solo). Corey Webster stepped up to play superbly in the playoffs. R.W. McQuarters has intercepted a pass in each of the first three postseason games.

The special teams also played well. Punter Jeff Feagles was one of the NFL's most effective punters in the 20th season of his remarkable career. Kicker Lawrence Tynes, acquired in an offseason trade with Kansas City, succeeded on 23 of 27 field goal attempts and booted the game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game. Domenik Hixon, acquired off waivers in October, became the primary kickoff returner late in the season and brought one back 74 yards for a touchdown in the regular season game against the Patriots.

When the 2008 NFL season began, the Giants had the Vince Lombardi Trophy on display in their lobby and legions of skeptics and doubters who were convinced they had won it more through luck and timing than skill. A popular refrain was that the Giants had simply become a hot team at the right time in the 2007 playoffs. For evidence, the disbelievers cited the Giants' stirring Super Bowl XLII victory over the previously-undefeated New England Patriots. When it was time to make predictions for the 2008 season, most prognosticators placed the Giants second or third in the NFC East.

But the Giants proved them all wrong. No, they didn't win another Super Bowl. But they did capture the division title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. They started the season 11-1 and winning 12 regular season games, they became only the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the title (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season).

The Giants achieved their success despite losing several key players from the 2007 championship team, including seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (retirement), two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora (knee injury suffered in the preseason), four-time Pro Bowl tight end Jeremy Shockey (traded to New Orleans) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress, (who did not play in the season's final month after he was wounded in an accidental shooting).

The day after the season ended with a loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game, Coach Tom Coughlin addressed many of the issues that had been raised in training camp.

"What I thought I would start with this morning is to think back to last spring and last summer when all of your questions concerned how this team would respond to winning the Super Bowl," Coughlin said. "Would they be, for lack of a better word, satisfied? Would they be as hungry coming into training camp and beyond training camp as they were in working our way to a Super Bowl championship? I think that our team responded and answered that question. I think we came out, we transitioned, we bridged from the Super Bowl year to the next season very well. Our competitiveness was there, our fire, our attempt to take the success of the Super Bowl season on into the next season was very successful. We were 11-1 and we did come out of camp and play very, very well for a very long time. We, of course, played well and the record stood for that. We didn't finish the season as well as we would have liked to, but I think we answered the questions of what this team was about."

"Twelve and five is not a bad season," general manager Jerry Reese said. "When you set the bar high like that and then all of sudden you get eliminated in the second round it stings. Overall, we had a real good season. It's not where we want it to be, but we said we wanted to be the organization that put our team in position to win the Super Bowl every year. For the last couple of years we have been able to put our team in position to do that. We fell short this time."

The loss to Philadelphia did not mitigate the achievements of a successful regular season. The Giants were one of only two teams to finish in the top nine in both the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. They rushed for an NFL-leading and franchise record 2,518 yards and also topped the league with a Giants-best 5.0 yards per carry. The Giants were the first team since 1985 to have two running backs rush for 1,000 yards each (Brandon Jacobs and Derrick Ward).

Seven Giants were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team: Quarterback Eli Manning, center Shaun O'Hara, guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, punter Jeff Feagles and kicker John Carney. Two weeks before the game, long-snapper Zak DeOssie was added as the NFC's need player.

Snee and Tuck were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and fullback Madison Hedgecock, O'Hara and Carney finished second in the voting at their positions. O'Hara, Hedgecock and defensive tackle Fred Robbins were named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and O'Hara and Snee were selected to The Sporting News' All-Pro first team.

The Giants opened their season at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing the previous season's Super Bowl champions.

Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a surprise appearance by Michael Strahan.

A huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy was wheeled out to midfield as the stadium video boards showed highlights from Super Bowls XXI and XXV. Bob Papa, the voice of the Giants, then introduced the players from those teams that were in attendance: Hall of Famer Harry Carson, Stacy Robinson, Karl Nelson, Brad Benson, Bill Ard, Howard Cross, Rodney Hampton, Ottis Anderson, Carl Banks and Mark Bavaro.

"Giants Stadium, you thought I was never coming back," said Strahan, who had announced his retirement three months previously after 15 stellar seasons with the team. "But I had to come back to celebrate the championship with the greatest fans in all of sports. And for one final time, salute my teammates for an incredible championship run. So what I want you to do is, I want you to get on your feet, I want you to make some noise and I want you to be ready to stomp somebody out and welcome the New York Giants Super Bowl champions."

With that, the 79,742 fans in attendance screamed in delight as the 2008 Giants took the field for the first time. At the other end of the stadium, a championship banner was raised.

When the Giants embarked on their 2009 season, the popular belief was that they could succeed because of the strength of a retooled defense, particularly the reinforced front, and a running game that had been the NFL's best in 2008. If a weakness, or at least a unit with multiple questions, existed, it was the untested group of wide receivers.

But someone shredded that script when the games began. The defense did not play as well as anticipated and the rushing attack wasn't as productive as it had been in previous seasons. But the passing game, with Eli Manning having the finest year of his career and record-setting Steve Smith leading a group of receives that exceeded expectations, was the strongest facet of the team.

The Giants' fortunes unfolded in a similarly unexpected fashion. Playing their 34th and final season in Giants Stadium, they hoped to win their second consecutive NFC East title and extended their franchise record with a fifth consecutive postseason berth. The journey began smoothly, as the Giants won their first five games. But they soon took a wrong turn, veered completely off course and ultimately hit a dead end. The Giants won just three times after that burst from the gate and finished with an 8-8 record and in third place in the division. They finished out of the playoffs for the first time since Tom Coughlin's inaugural season as head coach in 2004.

The Giants were hit by a debilitating series of injuries. Safety Kenny Phillips, their first round draft choice in 2008, played superbly in the first two games but missed the rest of the season because of an arthritic condition i nhis knee that required surgery. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce, a team leader, captain and the top tackler, sat out the final seven games with a bulging disk in his neck. Two of the free agents acquired to strengthen the defense, Chris Canty and Michael Boley, missed significant chunks of the season with injuries. Defensive tackle Jay Alford missed the entire year with a knee injury. Gerris Wilkinson led the team in special teams tackles when he was placed on injured reserve with a wrist injury. Running backs Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw and defensive end Justin Tuck played hurt ,most of the year and offensive linemen Rich Seubert and Kareem McKenzie were sidelined at the end of the season with injuries.

Manning finished the season with 317 completions in 509 attempts (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs. Manning is the third quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Kerry Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Phil Simms (4,044 in 1984).

Smith was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 107 receptions, 25 more than the franchise's previous single-season record-holder (Amani Toomer had 82 in 2002) and 50 more than this season's runner-up, Mario Manningham. Smith's 1,220 receiving yards were the second-highest total in franchise history.

Toomer had 1,343 in 2002. Smith joined Toomer, Plaxico Burress (1,214 yards in 2005) and Homer Jones (1,209 yards in 1967) as the only Giants with 1,200-yard receiving seasons. Smith led the NFL with 38 receptions on third down.

Manningham had a break through season with 57 catches (in 14 games) and Hakeem Nicks had 47 receptions for 790 yards, both the third-highest total in history among Giants rookies. Nicks' six touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had seven.

Center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee were selected to their second consecutive Pro Bowls and tackle David Diehl to his first. Tight end Kevin Boss had a solid season with 42 catches and five touchdowns. Cornerback Terrell Thomas started every game and led the team with 101 tackles (67 solo). Defensive end Osi Umenyiora returned from the knee surgery that cost him the 2008 season to record a team-high 7.0 sacks, the fifth time in six seasons he has led the team. Kicker Lawrence Tynes scored a career-high 126 points and Chase Blackburn and Bryan Kehl tied for the team lead with 16 special teams tackles.

The Giants finished with a record of 155-117 in regular season games in Giants Stadium, including 4-4 in 2009. They were 7-4 in postseason games for a total record of 162-121.

Giants Stadium hosted 477 NFL regular season game played in Giants Stadium, easily the most in league history. Chicago's Wrigley Field is second with 365.

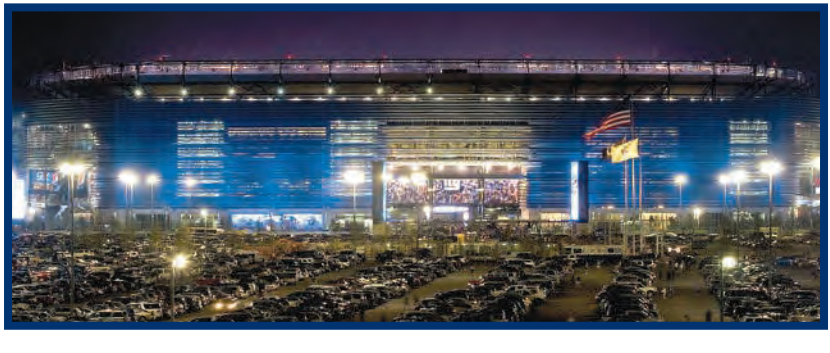
Playing their 86th season, the Giants moved into a beautiful new home, New Meadowlands Stadium, which is located just a few yards away from where Giants Stadium, their home from 1976-2009, once stood. The Giants were 10-6, one of a record-tying 13 teams to finish with double-digit victories. They finished the season with the same record as the NFC East champion Philadelphia Eagles, the same record as the eventual Super Bowl XLV champion Green Bay Packers and the same record as the 2007 Giants team that won Super Bowl XLII.

But ultimately, the season did not meet their expectations because the Giants did not make the playoffs. Two losses to the Eagles and another to the Packers in the final seven weeks of the season first cost the Giants the NFC East title and then an opportunity to participate in the postseason. The Giants lost the NFC's last postseason berth on a tiebreaker.



HAKEEM NICKS CATCHES THE FIRST-EVER TOUCHDOWN IN METLIFE STADIUM

The Giants ended their season with an unusual blend of emotions. They accepted their fate and took responsibility for coming up short, but they were equally defiant in their belief that they are better than a playoff non-qualifier.

"I'm really disappointed to be here talking to you guys about 10-6," general manager Jerry Reese said at his season-ending news conference. "I really felt like we had an opportunity to get into the playoffs and really do some damage when we got there, but it didn't work out that way. I'm really disappointed, even more so than last year because we put ourselves in position and that's what our goal is every year, to put ourselves in a position and we put ourselves in position and we just did not finish the job and that's very disappointing."

Although disappointed at missing the playoffs for the second season in a row, Coach Tom Coughlin had high praise for his players.

"I love this team, I love these guys, I think they're strong character people, we work together on everything, we're all in it together, we're all for one, one for all and that's the way that it has to be," Coughlin said. "It's a group of guys that don't make excuses for anything, they accept responsibility, they accept whatever takes place. They've done an outstanding job this year of adjusting to some very unusual circumstances that surround the game. They've done a good job of that. We've had a couple of huge disappointments, emotionally we weren't to where we should have been. We did come back to a certain level (in the season finale vs. Washington), but it's an outstanding group of guys who by and large are on the same page, they're focused, they come to work, they prepare themselves, they play hard, there are all kinds of personalities just like there always is, but as I said, I'm very, very appreciative of the kind of effort, the attitude, the enthusiasm, and the fact that this year's team was a very responsive team."

The Giants had many impressive statistical achievements in 2010. The offense (fifth) and defense (seventh) each finished in the top 10 of the NFL rankings. Eli Manning set franchise records for completions and completion percentage and became the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons and the second with more than 30 touchdown passes. Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823) rushed for a combined 2,058 yards. Despite missing three games with injuries, Hakeem Nicks had one of the finest seasons by a wide receiver in Giants history with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns. Mario Manningham caught 60 passes, including 85- and 92-yard touchdowns. Osi Umenyiora (10 forced fumbles) and Justin Tuck (five fumble recoveries) tied for the team lead with 11.5 sacks.

But those players and the rest of the team and coaches ultimately exited the season with an empty feeling.

"Overall, I'm disappointed in the outcome of the season," said quarterback Eli Manning, who threw for 4,002 yards and 31 touchdowns, but also tossed 25 interceptions. "We thought we had potential. We thought we had players to make it in the playoffs and make a run, and we didn't accomplish that. We didn't play well enough at times of the season to make it into the playoffs."

"We had a good year," Tuck said. "Ten and six is nothing to hold your head down about. Obviously, it wasn't good enough, and we always have a goal of reaching the playoffs and going deep in the playoffs and hopefully winning the Super Bowl. It didn't happen this year, but we're not going to hold our heads about it. We had opportunities, and you try your best to learn from them. Hopefully, that's being carried over to next year and it gets us to work a little harder in running and work a little harder in lifting and propel us to where we want to be next year."

Late in the afternoon on Dec. 18, 2011, the Giants trudged off the field in MetLife Stadium after a lackluster 23-10 loss to the Washington Redskins. The Giants had not scored a touchdown until 33 seconds remained in the defeat, their fifth in a six-game stretch that included a four-game losing streak. More importantly, the Giants fell to 7-7 and were one defeat from missing the playoffs for a third consecutive season.

But instead of continuing their freefall, the Giants rose up and concluded the season with one of the most inspiring and memorable runs in the 87-year history of the franchise, one that ended with a victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI – their second championship in five seasons.

The surge began with a Dec. 24 victory over the Jets in which the Giants were the visiting team. Eight days later, the Giants routed Dallas in a winner-take-all showdown for the NFC East title. The Giants finished 9-7 and became the first team to win the division with fewer than 10 wins since the 1970 merger.

The Giants opened their playoff run with a 24-1 rout of Atlanta in MetLife Stadium. They followed that up with road victories that avenged regular season losses to Green Bay and San Francisco, the latter a 20-17 overtime thriller in the NFC Championship Game.

That advanced the Giants to the Super Bowl, where they found a familiar foe in the Patriots, the same team they defeated four years earlier in Super Bowl XLII. This time, Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining and the defense knocked down Tom Brady's last-play pass into the end zone to clinch the 21-17 victory.

Eli Manning completed 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards to win his second Super Bowl MVP award as the Giants became the first seven-loss team to win a Super Bowl.

During the regular season, the Giants set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. Manning set Giants marks with 589 passes and 359 completions. Wide receiver Victor Cruz established a team record with 1,536 receiving yards while catching 82 passes. Hakeem Nicks had 1,192 yards to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in franchise history.

Ahmad Bradshaw missed four games with a foot injury, but led the team with 659 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

The 2012 Giants finished 9-7 and in second place in the NFC East. It was the eighth consecutive season in which the Giants finished .500 or better, their longest such streak since played 10 seasons in a row without a losing record from 1954-63. The Giants finished with a winning record for the third consecutive season, the first time they had done hat since 1988-90 (when they were 10-6, 12-4, 13-3).

Despite extending those streaks, they did not earn a postseason berth. The Giants lost control of their playoff destiny with back-to-back late-season defeats in Atlanta and Baltimore. They routed Philadelphia in their finale, but soon learned they were eliminated when Chicago beat Detroit.

The Giants compiled numerous impressive statistics in 2012. They scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. In their last three home games – victories over Green Bay, New Orleans and Philadelphia – the Giants scored 38, 52 and 42 points.

The 2012 team allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks. The Giants were fourth in the NFL in both takeaways (35, four more than they had in 2011) and turnover differential (plus-14, a significant improvement over 2011's plus-7). The plus-14 was the Giants' best turnover differential since they were plus-25 in 1997. The Giants intercepted 21 passes in 2012, their highest total since they had 27 picks, also in 1997.

Four Giants were selected to the Pro Bowl: Manning, guard Chris Snee, wide receiver Victor Cruz and defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul.

STADIUMS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

In 2010, the Giants moved into beautiful, new, state-of-the-art MetLife stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium sat for more than three decades. The nation's finest football stadium, it seats 82,500 fans. It is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums and took more than four million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features 10,000 club seats, 222 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The site of Super Bowl XLVIII, Giants' new home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30' by 118' high definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

In 2014, MetLife Stadium will host Super Bowl XLVIII, the first outdoor Super Bowl hosted in a "cold weather" city.

COMMEMORATIVE PATCHES

The Giants have celerated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in rememberance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

The Giants honored Hall of Famer, player and coach, Rosie Brown with a "79" decal on the back of their helmets in after his passing in 2004.

In addition, the team has also worn patches in Super Bowls XXV, XLII and XLVI. Those patches were representations of the NFL's Super Bowl logos for those years.

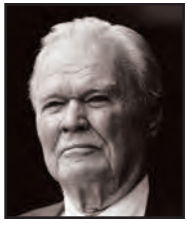
GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME



WELLINGTON MARA

CO-OWNER
FORDHAM
ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, Coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, was a member of the four-man 1997 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara was one of the most influential and beloved figures in American sports history. His entire working lifetime was dedicated to the Giants and the NFL and he helped the Giants produce 21 NFL/NFC first place finishes, 27 postseason appearances and six NFL championships during a 68-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937. Mara passed away on Oct. 25, 2005.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER
CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

END
ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's inaugural championship game in 1933 and he scored the first touchdown in the league's championship game history on a 29-yard pass from Harry Newman in the second quarter. Badgro tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. He was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three season, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

ROSIE BROWN IN 1953

HARRY CARSON

LINEBACKER
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE
ENSHRINED IN 2006

Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was a leader throughout his career and the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform – tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time – and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards rushing, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

FRANK GIFFORD IN 1958

MEL HEIN

CENTER
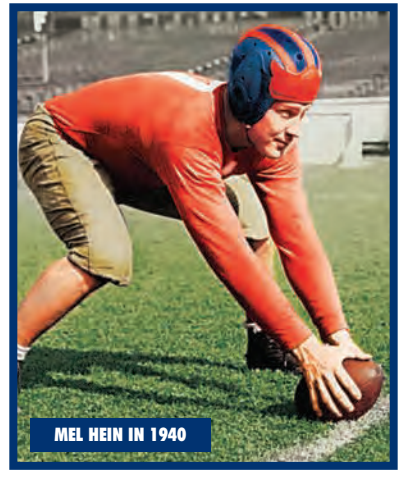
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Phil Simms and Michael Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds.



MEL HEIN IN 1940

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28 and again in 1936. He was one of the 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season, the defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He went to Green Bay in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record to edge out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years.

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry was with the Giants as a defensive back from 1950-55 and an assistant coach from 1954-59. The Giants' 1956 championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had one of history's greatest coaching staffs. Head coach Jim Lee Howell had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH

Lombardi was an offensive assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-58 and the head coach of the Green Bay Packers (1959-67) and Washington Redskins (1969). With Lombardi running the offense, the Giants captured the NFL championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and victories in Super Bowls I and II, a feat without equal in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are a Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system.

BILL PARCELLS

ENSHRINED 2013

Parcells was head coach of the Giants for eight years (1983-90) and later held the same position with the New England Patriots, New York Jets and Dallas Cowboys. He led the Giants to victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV and is one of 13 head coaches with more than one Super Bowl victory. With the Giants, Parcells was 77-49-1 (.610) in the regular season and 8-3 (.727) in the postseason for an overall mark of 85-52-1 (.620). In 19 seasons as a head coach, Parcells was 172-139-1 (.569) in the regular season and 11-8 (.579) in the postseason. His overall record was 183-138-1 (.570). The 172 regular-season victories are the 10th-highest total in NFL history, as are the 183 total victories.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END
ARNOLD COLLEGE
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles.

Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-Ameircan Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL

DEFENSIVE BACK
TOLEDO/IOWA
ENSHRINED IN 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the teams. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. He holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
WASHINGTON
ENSHRINED IN 1984

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950-53. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big and extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays, Weinmeister began his pro career with the New York Yankees in the All-American Football Conference in 1950. He moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. Weinmeister played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. Csonka left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He excelled in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and rushing for more than 100 yards in two of them. Csonka finished his career with 8,081 yards, a 4.3-yard average and 64 touchdowns.

RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship Game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He suggested to Coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

BENNY FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK
MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), Giants (1929-1931) and Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. A versatile player, Friedman could run, kick and pass the ball better than any player who preceded him. From 1927-30, Friedman threw 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he topped the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that feat. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
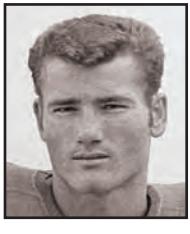
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber came out of retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern Division crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.



DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
TEXAS WESTERN
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7-yard average) and 88 touchdowns. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963, when he helped them advance to the championship game. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK
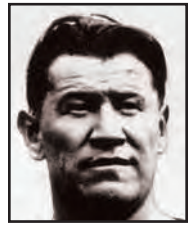
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. He began his career with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961 before moving to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in blockbuster trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.



JIM THORPE

HALFBACK

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

In 2010, the Giants unveiled their Ring of Honor, which commemorates some of the most prominent and influential figures in the 87-year history of the franchise. The original class of 30 players, coaches, executives and owners was joined by five more honorees in 2011. These men have helped the Giants win eight NFL championships and more than 650 games and contributed to them becoming one of the most respected and admired organizations in professional sports.

The names of the men in the Ring of Honor are prominently displayed at each Giants home game in MetLife Stadium above the club level on each sideline.

TIM MARA

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. He bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. Mara helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELLINGTON MARA

It is impossible to overstate the influence Wellington Mara had on the Giants and in the NFL. He was one of the most important and influential figures in the history of professional football, a man credited with many of the ideas and innovations that have made the NFL the nation's most popular professional sports league. Mara is the most beloved and influential Giant in history and one of the most significant figures not just in the NFL, but in American sports. He was a vital member of the franchise for each of its first 81 years until his death in 2005. Mara was instrumental in helping the Giants make 26 postseason appearances, including 18 divisional championships and six NFL championships, among them the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV titles. Despite his ties to the team, Mara was recognized for always putting the league's interests ahead of what was best for the Giants. He was an invaluable contributor to the NFL as a member of many ownership committees. In 1997, Mara was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his father, Tim Mara, as the first father-son duo elected to the Hall.

JACK MARA

During the very first game the Giants ever played in 1925, Jack Mara followed each play along the sidelines as he held the first down marker. It wasn't long before he held far more important jobs in the organization. Mara was only 22 year old in 1930 when his father, Tim, turned over the ownership of the Giants to him and his younger brother Wellington, who was all of 14. He served as the team's president for 31 years and was in charge of the Giants' business operations. Jack Mara was the driving force behind one of the most significant decisions in franchise history, to move the Giants' home games to Yankee Stadium from the crumbling Polo Grounds prior to the 1956 season. Tim Mara detested Yankees owner Dan Topping, so it was Jack who negotiated the deal that saved the financial future of the franchise. Jack Mara also lobbied the owners to share television revenue, which helped create the parity that has made pro football America's favorite spectator sport.

BOB TISCH

Preston Robert Tisch – "Bob" to everyone who knew him - realized a longtime dream in 1991, when he became co-owner of the Giants. Soon after the Giants won Super Bowl XXV, Tisch completed negotiations with Tim Mara (son of Jack Mara) and his family for a 50 percent interest in the team. That commenced Tisch's career as an owner of a professional sports franchise, one of many he simultaneously pursued. Tisch led an extraordinarily accomplished life. He was an enormously successful businessman, an extremely generous philanthropist, a postmaster general, a friend of presidents, governors and mayors and a nonpareil New York City mover and shaker. But nothing gave Tisch more pleasure and pride than being the co-owner of the Giants and working on several influential NFL ownership committees. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

GEORGE YOUNG

George Young was hired as the Giants general manager on Feb. 14, 1979 and stayed in that position through the 1997 season. He led the franchise out of the bleak 1970s and brought in great players such as Taylor, Simms, Joe Morris, Mark Bavaro and Carl Banks. Young hired Parcells, the head coach of two Super Bowl champions. During his tenure, the Giants earned eight playoff berths, highlighted by victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV, and compiled an overall record of 155-139-2. He was named NFL Executive of the Year an unprecedented five times – 1984, 1986, 1990, 1993, and 1997. Young also served as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

STEVE OWEN

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owen had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are still the Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations included the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1966.

JIM LEE HOWELL

Jim Lee Howell was the Giants' head coach from 1954-60. He quickly added two future Hall of Fame coaches to his staff, Vince Lombardi to lead the offense and Tom Landry, whom he converted from a player, to coach the defense. In Howell's seven seasons as head coach, the Giants played in three NFL Championship Games and defeated George Halas's Chicago Bears, 47-7, in 1956. Howell's regular season record was 53-27-4 record, a .630 winning percentage. He coached six future Pro Football Hall of Fame players in Huff, Robustelli, Brown, Tunnell, Gifford and Don Maynard. Howell stayed with the Giants as Director of Player Personnel until his retirement in 1981.

BILL PARCELLS

When Parcells began coaching the Giants in 1983, the team had finished with a winning record just once in the previous 10 seasons. Parcells led the Giants to the playoffs in his second and third seasons. In 1986, he coached one of the greatest teams in Giants history. That year, the Giants won their last 12 games and finished 17-2, including a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. Four years later, Parcells led the Giants to a 20-19 victory over the favored Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. He left the team after that season with a 77-49-1 regular season record. The 77 victories are the second-most in team history, behind Owen's 153. Parcells holds the Giants' record with eight postseason wins.

MEL HEIN

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Simms and Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-

40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds. Hein was a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1963.

KEN STRONG

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career. Strong was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

TUFFY LEEMANS

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978.

EMLEN TUNNELL

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the team. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. Fifty-two years after playing his last game for the team, he still holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls. Tunnell was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

FRANK GIFFORD

A Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee in 1977, Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

ROSIE BROWN

Roosevelt Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, a position he held from 1971 until his death in 2004. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

SAM HUFF

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years. Huff was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington Mara traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career. He was the Giants' general manager prior to George Young. He was a 1971 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

Y.A. TITTLE

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-Ameircan Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

HARRY CARSON

Carson played his entire career with the Giants from 1976-88. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to the NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform – tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time – and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

AL BLOZIS

Al Blozis played just three seasons for the Giants, 1942-44. He immediately made a favorable impression on the team after arriving in 1942 and quickly earned a starting assignment at tackle. Blozis played in the 1944 championship game against Green Bay. Immediately after the Giants' loss to the Packers, Blozis was sent overseas to fight in World War II. An Army lieutenant, he was killed in action in France just six weeks later. The Giants retired Blozis' No. 32 jersey.

CHARLIE CONERLY

Conerly is often called the best Giants player not in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He played his entire career with the Giants from 1948-61 and was a vital member of the 1956 NFL Championship team. Conerly was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1948, the league's Most Valuable Player in 1959 and a Pro Bowler in 1950 and '56. Conerly ranks third in franchise history in pass attempts (2,833), fourth in completions (1,418), second in yards (19,488, though he's about to be overtaken by Eli Manning) and second in touchdown passes (173). He is also first in Giants history with 167 interceptions.

DICK LYNCH

Lynch was traded to the Giants by the Washington Redskins following the 1958 season for a 1960 fourth-round draft choice. He played for the Giants from 1959-66, a period in which the team played in four NFL Championship Games. Lynch played in 97 regular season games for the Giants (109 in his career) and intercepted 35 passes. In both 1961 and 1963, he led the NFL with nine interceptions. In '63, he also led the league with 251 return yards and three touchdowns. Lynch scored seven career touchdowns, four on interception returns and three on fumble returns.

Although he had a great playing career, Lynch is best known to legions of Giants fans for his 40 years as the analyst on the team's radio broadcast. His last game in the booth was the Giants' epic Super Bowl XLII victory over New England. Lynch died nine months later. "Dick was such an important part of our organization for so many years that we really considered him part of the family," John Mara said.

JOE MORRISON

Morrison was a back and an end for the Giants from 1959 through 1972. A dominant figure during his 14-year career, he totaled 2,472 rushing yards and 18 touchdowns. He also caught 395 passes – the third-highest total in franchise history - for 4,993 yards and 47 scores. A versatile player, Morrison played six different positions: fullback, halfback, flanker, tight end, split end and defensive back. Morrison's No. 40 jersey has been retired by the franchise.

PETE GOGOLAK

Gogolak played for the Giants from 1966-74 and is the highest-scoring player in the history of the franchise with 646 points – 120 more than runner-up Brad Daluiso. He also owns the franchise records for field goals (126) and extra points (268). Beyond his prowess as a kicker, Gogolak is a significant figure in the history of pro football. When he moved from the Buffalo Bills to the Giants, Gogolak became the first prominent player to leave the upstart American Football League for the NFL. Wellington Mara signed him after watching rookie Bob Timberlake miss 13 consecutive field goal attempts. Gogolak was also pro football's first soccer style kicker. Prior to Gogolak, placekickers approached the ball straight on, with the toe making first contact with the ball. Gogolak, who was born and played soccer in Hungary, approached the ball at an angle and kicked it with his instep – the style all kickers use today.

GEORGE MARTIN

Martin joined the Giants as an 11th-round draft choice in 1975, the 262nd overall pick. A long shot to survive his first training camp, Martin stayed with the Giants for his entire 14-year career. He played in 201 regular season games to become one of just three players in team history to cross the 200-games barrier (Strahan played in 216 games and Howard Cross played in 207).

Martin was a leader and catalyst on the 1986 Super Bowl champions (he sacked John Elway for a safety in Super Bowl XXI). He had a knack for making the big play, scoring six touchdowns, a record for NFL defensive linemen since broken by Miami's Jason Taylor. Martin also caught a touchdown pass when he lined up as a tight end in 1980. He is perhaps happiest that he is joining his close friend Carson in the Ring of Honor.

PHIL SIMMS

Simms was George Young's first draft choice in 1979 and he played his entire 15-year with the Giants. He overcame a series of injuries early in his career to become the most productive quarterback in team history. Simms holds the Giants career records for pass attempts (4,647), completions (2,576), yards (33,462) and touchdowns (199). He was 95-64 (.597) as a regular season starter and 6-4 in the playoffs. But Simms is best remembered for his almost flawless performance in leading the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XXI. He completed 22 of 25 passes – including all 10 of his throws in the second half – for 268 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions in a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos. In one of the easiest votes in history, he was selected the game's Most Valuable Player.

MICHAEL STRAHAN

Few players in Giants history were as dependable and productive as Strahan. He seldom missed a practice and played in a franchise-record 216 regular season games. Beginning in 1996, he played in 136 consecutive games before tearing his pectoral muscle midway through the 2004 season. Strahan was selected to seven Pro Bowls, was named the 2001 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the Giants' Most Valuable Player that year and in 1998. He was a captain on the 2007 Super Bowl championship team. His 141.5 sacks are the highest official total in team history (Taylor had 142.0 but 9.5 as a rookie in 1981, the year before sacks became an official statistic) and the fifth-highest total in NFL history. He set the league's single-season sack record with 22.5 in 2001 and his NFL-best 18.5 sacks in 2003 made him the Giants' only two-time league leader in that category. Strahan's 868 tackles indicates he was also an excellent defender against the run.

JESSIE ARMSTEAD

Armstead, a five-time Pro Bowler, was the 207th player chosen in the 1993 draft, and the last of the Giants' seven selections (the first-round pick had been used on quarterback Dave Brown in the previous year's supplemental draft). Three of the seven players taken were linebackers: Marcus Buckley (No. 66) and Tommy Thigpen (No. 123), who never did much, and Armstead, who did it all. Armstead's draft was the last that had an eighth round. He was a special teams dynamo and top-flight reserve his first three seasons before becoming the starting weakside linebacker in 1996. Armstead had a team-high 114 tackles, the first of five consecutive seasons with a more than 100. The next year, he had a career-best 134 stops, was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was a catalyst as the Giants won the NFC East title. In 2000 he had one of his best seasons and the Giants routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game.

AMANI TOOMER

Toomer joined the Giants in 1996 as a second-round draft choice from Michigan and played his entire 13-year career with the team. He played in 190 regular season games, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He also played in 11 postseason games, scoring two touchdowns in the Giants' victory over the Cowboys in a 2007 NFC Divisional Playoff Game and finishing with a team-high six receptions in the Super Bowl XLII triumph over New England. Toomer holds franchise records for catches (668), receiving yards (9,497), touchdown catches (54) and 100-yard receiving games (22). He finished his career with 82 more receptions than runner-up Barber (586) and 4,063 more yards than former record-holder Gifford (5,434). Toomer caught at least one pass in a Giants-record 98 consecutive games before the streak ended in the 2005 season opener vs. Arizona. He holds the Giants' single-season record with 1,343 receiving yards in 2002. Toomer had the three highest single-season receptions totals in team history until Steve Smith shattered his former mark of 82 with 107 catches last year. Toomer also holds the Giants postseason records for receptions (44), yards (608) and touchdowns (seven). No one else in Giants playoff history has more than three postseason touchdown catches. In addition, Toomer is second in Giants history with 10,924 total yards (Barber is first with 17,359). His total includes 1,060 yards on punt returns, 257 yards on kickoff returns and 110 yards rushing.

TIKI BARBER

Barber joined the Giants as a second-round draft choice in 1997. When he retired following his 10th season in 2006, his name was all over the franchise's record book.

Barber owns the Giants marks for rushing attempts in a career (2,217) and in a season (357 in 2005) and rushing yards in a career (10,440), a season (1,860 in 2005) and a game (234 at Washington on Dec. 20, 2006 in his final regular season game). Barber has the top three and four of the top five single-season rushing totals in Giants history and the two highest game totals. His 38 100-yard games are twice as many as No. 2 Joe Morris and his nine 100-yard games in 2004 is another record. Barber has the longest run from scrimmage in Giants history (95 yards at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005) and his 55 rushing touchdowns are another one of his records. Barber's 17,359 all-purpose yards give him another record. He owns the Giants' top five single-season total yardage figures. Another one of his records is 13 catches at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000. Barber is also second in franchise history with 586 career receptions. He was selected to three Pro Bowls (2004-06).

ALEX WEBSTER

Webster played his entire 10-year career (1955-64) for the Giants. He played in 109 games and 47 years after his retirement, he is fourth on the Giants' career lists with 4,638 rushing yards and 1,196 carries. He also caught 240 passes for 2,679 yards and scored 56 touchdowns (39 rushing, 17 receiving). Webster was the second-leading rusher and scorer and the third-leading receiver for the 1956 NFL champion Giants. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1958 and 1961, when he ran for a career-high 928 yards. Webster was the Giants' head coach from 1969-73. Webster passed away on March 3, 2012, just three months after being inducted into the Ring of Honor.

BRAD VAN PELT

Van Pelt played for the Giants from 1973-83, when the team had only one winning record, but he was one of the team's very best players. Van Pelt joined Carson, Brian Kelley and later Lawrence Taylor to form the famed group of linebackers known as the "Crunch Bunch." He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl every season from 1976-80. Van Pelt played in 143 games for the Giants in four home stadiums - Yankee Stadium, Yale Bowl, Shea Stadium and Giants Stadium – and for five head coaches - Bill Arnsparger, John McVay, Ray Perkins and Bill Parcells. He had 16 interceptions for the Giants. Van Pelt died on Feb. 17, 2009.

CARL BANKS

Banks was the third overall selection of the 1984 NFL Draft and played for the Giants through the 1992 season. He was one of the premier run-stoppers of his era, a standout on the teams that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV, a Pro Bowler in 1987 and a member of the NFL 1980's All-Decade Team. Banks played in 126 regular season games and had 36.0 sacks, three interceptions and approximately 500 tackles. Banks is still closely affiliated with the Giants; since 2007, he has been an analyst on the Giants' radio broadcasts.

MARK BAVARO

Bavaro is one of the finest all-around tight ends in Giants history. An outstanding blocker, he is also 10th on the franchise's career list with 266 receptions and 15th with 3,722 yards. Bavaro was a starter on the Giants' 1986 and 1990 Super Bowl championship teams and a Pro Bowler in 1986 and '87. In the Giants' first Super Bowl season, Bavaro led the team with 66 catches – twice as many as any teammate – for 1,001 yards to become the only tight end in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

DAVE JENNINGS

Jennings is the most prolific punter in Giants history. A member of the team from 1974-84, Jennings holds the franchise records for punts (931) and yards (38,792). He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl in 1978, '79, '80 and '82. He punted a career-high 104 times in 1979, twice punted for more than 4,000 yards in a season and had a career-best 44.8-yard average in 1980.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game. This list was compiled with the assistance of John Berti.

GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

NFL CHAMPIONS

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

 Victory clinched the NFL Championship- there was no Championship game in 1927.

NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 13, 1991 at Giants Stadium (77,025)

After jumping to an early 10-0 lead, the Giants' defense did a strangulation job on the Bears' vaunted rushing attack, limiting the visitors to just 27 total rushing yards and zero first downs... Jeff Hostetler hit on just 10 pass completions for 112 yards, but two went for TDs and he scored another on a 3-yard run in his first-ever playoff action... Giants also had a pair of interceptions by Mark Collins and Everson Walls to complete the rout.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun...Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries.

WORLD CHAMPIONS

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever...Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

In one of the most dominant performances ever in a championship game, the Giants raced to a 34-0 halftime lead and crushed the Vikings to advance to their first Super Bowl in 10 years. The Giants rolled up 518 total yards and 31 first downs, while the defense limited Minnesota's heralded attack to 114 yards and nine first downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. Super Bowl XXXV
at Raymond James Stadium (71,921)

For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins – three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey – a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

2005- PANTHERS 23, GIANTS 0

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 8, 2006 at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first downs (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 7, 2007 at Lincoln Financial Field (69,094)

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Giants also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal – the longest in Philadelphia postseason history – increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

2007- GIANTS 24, BUCCANEERS 14

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 6, 2008 at Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

Before the Giants opened postseason play in an NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay, Tom Coughlin had a simple message for his players: "Let's keep playing." So they did. Carrying their season-long road success into the playoffs, the Giants prevailed, 24-14, over the NFC South champion Buccaneers. They broke a four-game postseason losing streak that began in Super Bowl XXXV – in Raymond James Stadium, the home of the Bucs. The Giants also won their first playoff road game since the 1990 NFC Championship Game in San Francisco. They defeated Bucs quarterback Jeff Garcia, who had beaten them in the playoffs with the 49ers in 2002 and Philadelphia in 2006. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants, one on a five-yard reception, the other on an eight-yard run. Jacobs became the first Giants player in history with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same postseason game. Amani Toomer caught a touchdown pass and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 25-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning completed 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, the two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Giants won a postseason game for the first time with him taking the snaps. The Giants entered the game with a minus-nine turnover differential, or minus-24 relative to the Bucs' plus-15. Yet they had three takeaways to none for the Bucs. The first, a fumble recovery by Corey Webster on the second-half kickoff, led to Tynes' field goal. The second, a Webster interception in the end zone, likely denied the Bucs points. The third, a pick by R.W. McQuarters with 1:53 remaining, sealed the deal. The Giants played without center Shaun O'Hara (knee) and cornerback Sam Madison (abdominal). But Grey Ruegamer and Webster filled in superbly (the corner holding Joey Galloway to one nine-yard reception). They were among a large cast of key contributors. Toomer had a game-high seven catches for 74 yards. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw came off the bench to rush for a game-high 66 yards. Michael Strahan had a career postseason high of nine tackles (eight solo). Gerris Wilkinson, who started for Kawika Mitchell (knee) had seven tackles (five solo). Tank Daniels had two special teams tackles and forced the fumble that Webster recovered. Zak DeOssie also had two special teams tackles. The offensive line allowed only one sack. Tampa Bay took an early lead on Earnest Graham's one-yard run, but Jacobs' two touchdowns gave the Giants a 14-7 halftime advantage. The first score successfully concluded an eight-play, 53-yard drive that took 4:04 to complete. Manning completed five passes for 49 yards in the series. Toomer accounted for 40 yards on three catches. On their next series, the Giants drove 65 yards in seven plays. The biggest play of the series was Manning's 21-yard pass to Steve Smith on third-and-two. Tynes' field goal and Toomer's touchdown midway through the fourth quarter extended the Giants' lead to 24-7 before Tampa Bay added a late score. Toomer scored at the end of a 15-play, 92-yard drive that featured 38 yards rushing by Bradshaw and three Toomer receptions for 27 yards.

2007- GIANTS 21, COWBOYS 17

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 13, 2008 at Texas Stadium (63,650)

The Giants avenged their only road defeat of the season, a 45-35 opening-night loss, with a 21-17 victory over the top-seeded Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Texas Stadium. The Cowboys had defeated the Giants twice in the regular season. The Giants became the first team to beat the NFC's No. 1 seed in the divisional round since the current postseason format (six teams from each conference) was adopted in 1990. Amani Toomer scored a pair of touchdowns on receptions of 52 and four yards form Eli Manning. Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 13:29 remaining provided the Giants with the game-winning points. But the victory was not assured until R.W. McQuarters intercepted Tony Romo's pass for Terry Glenn in the end zone with nine seconds remaining. It was the game's only takeaway. Manning had a career-high 132.4 passer rating after completing 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards, the two scores to Toomer and no interceptions. The Giants played with a severely depleted secondary. Sam Madison (stomach) and Kevin Dockery (hip flexor) were inactive. A third cornerback, Aaron Ross, left the game for good in the third quarter with a shoulder injury. That left Corey Webster, McQuarters and Geoffrey Pope – who spent the entire regular season on the practice squad before joining on the active roster on Dec. 31 – as the only healthy corners. All played extensively in the second half. The secondary, aided by a relentless second-half pass rush, stayed strong throughout the game. The Cowboys scored on Tony Romo's five-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens and Marion Barber's one-yard run in the second quarter and Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal in the third. Romo completed 18 of 36 passes for 201 yards and his 64.7 rating was less than half of Manning's. Toomer turned a short Manning pass into a 52-yard touchdown on the Giants' fifth offensive play. After Dallas took a 14-7 lead, Manning led the Giants on a 71-yard drive in the final minute of the half that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Toomer and a 14-14 halftime tie. Folk gave the Cowboys a 17-14 lead before Jacobs' touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter gave the Giants the lead for good. But the Cowboys had one last chance when they took possession at the Giants' 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. Dallas soon faced second-and-11 at the 23. Two incomplete passes left them staring at a fourth down with the seasons of both teams hanging in the balance. Owens was double covered, so Romo threw to the center of the end zone for Terry Glenn. But McQuarters stepped up and picked off the pass, sending the Giants to the NFC Championship Game.

2007- GIANTS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT)

NFC Championship Game
Jan. 20, 2008 at Lambeau Field (72,740)

The coldest game in Giants history was also one of the most memorable and satisfying the franchise has ever played. The Giants overcame the elements – and the Packers – to defeat Green Bay in overtime, 23-20, in the NFC Championship Game in frigid Lambeau Field. Lawrence Tynes provided the game-winning points when he kicked a 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. Tynes had missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation. It was the first time in the history of Lambeau that a visiting player had kicked a field goal of more than 40 yards in a postseason game. The score was set up by Corey Webster's interception on the second play of overtime of Brett Favre's final career pass. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with winds of 12 miles-an-hour – a numbing wind chill of minus-23. In terms of temperature alone, this was the third-coldest NFL game on record. At the famed Ice Bowl between the Packers and Dallas Cowboys in Lambeau on Dec. 31, 1967, it was 13 below zero at kickoff. In the 1981 Chargers-Bengals AFC Championship Game in Cincinnati, it was nine below. Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) and Ahmad Bradshaw (four-yard run) scored touchdowns and Tynes added a 29-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning set career postseason highs with 40 passes, 21 completions and 251 yards. Plaxico Burress established a franchise postseason record with 11 catches, for 151 yards. The old mark of 10 was set by Ike Hilliard in the 2000 NFC Championship Game victory over Minnesota. Defensively, the Giants held Green Bay to 28 rushing yards, forced Favre into two late interceptions and limited the Packers to one successful third down conversion on 10 tries. The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining Green Bay (380-264), rolling up 11 more first downs (24-13) and owning the ball for 40:01 to just 22:34 for the Packers. The Packers scored on Driver's 90-yard catch-and-run and Favre's 12-yard touchdown pass to Donald Lee, plus field goals by rookie Mason Crosby of 36 and 37 yards. Crosby's second field goal, with 11:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, tied the score at 20-20. The Giants had a chance to prevent the score when R.W. McQuarters intercepted a Favre pass at the eight-yard line. But McQuarters was hit by Ryan Grant and fumbled and the ball bounced right to Packers tackle Mark Tauscher, who plucked it out of the air at the 19. It was the Giants' first turnover of the postseason…In overtime, Favre threw a pass to Driver, but Webster stepped up and picked off the ball, returning it nine yards to the Green Bay 34-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw gained five yards on two runs before Manning's pass for Steve Smith fell incomplete. Tynes then sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with one of the biggest field goals in franchise history.

Super Bowl XLII
Feb. 3, 2008
at University of Phoenix Stadium (71,101)

WORLD CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XLII had a perfect ending, but the unexpected twist was that it belonged to the Giants. Eli Manning engineered a fourth quarter comeback drive for the ages and concluded perhaps the greatest postseason run in NFL history as the underdog Giants upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants won their third championship of the Super Bowl era – the first in 17 years - and seventh overall in what will surely be remembered as one of the most exciting title games in NFL history. It was the first of 42 Super Bowls in which the lead changed hands three times in the fourth quarter. Plaxico Burress scored the game-winning points with only 35 seconds remaining on a 13-yard pass from Manning. The score concluded a 12-play, 83-yard drive that commenced immediately after New England had taken a 14-10 lead with less than three minutes remaining. Manning, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, which deflected off Steve Smith's hands. David Tyree scored the Giants' first touchdown and made an unbelievable catch on the game-winning drive. Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs combined for 87 rushing yards. Amani Toomer caught six passes for 84 yards and Smith added five for 50 yards. Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal, which ultimately proved to be the deciding points. The Giants' defense was magnificent. New England averaged almost 37 points a game in the regular season. The Giants held them to 14. The Patriots averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a run longer than nine yards. Tom Brady was sacked five times. Brady's six-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss gave the Pats a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining. Cornerback Corey Webster slipped on the play and New England reached the end zone at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Manning responded by completing five of nine passes for 77 yards on the game-winning drive. The one everyone will long remember came on a third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning, seemingly about to be sacked, escaped, steadied himself and fired a pass down the middle of the field for Tyree, who was closely covered by safety Rodney Harrison. Both players jumped for the ball, which somehow landed on top of Tyree's helmet. But the receiver wrestled the ball away from Harrison for what may well be the greatest catch in Super Bowl history. The 32-yard gain gave the Giants a first down at the New England 24. Three players later, Smith picked up a huge first down and Manning followed with the game-winning throw to Burress.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

DIVISIONAL

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their championship reign has come to an end in a 23-11 home loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Giants lost just two home games in the 2008 season - both to Philadelphia. They outgained the Eagles, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but were doomed by an inability to take advantage of opportunities in close. The Giants advanced as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times - and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession - but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble. The Giants scored on John Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).

2011- GIANTS 24, FALCONS 2

NFC Wildcard Playoff Game
January 8, 2012 at MetLife Stadium

WILD CARD

The Giants used a smothering defense and an opportunistic, big-play offense to rout the Falcons, 24-2, their first post-season victory since Super Bowl XLII and their first home playoff win since the 2000 NFC Championship Game triumph over Minnesota. Eli Manning threw three touchdown passes - four and 72 yards to Hakeem Nicks and 27 yards to Mario Manningham. The Giants also got a 22-yard field goal from Lawrence Tynes. Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards. Brandon Jacobs ran for a career postseason high 92 yards and Ahmad Bradshaw added 63 as the Giants ran for 172 yards, 50 more than their previous high total in the 2011 season. The Giants' 442 net yards was their third-highest total in a postseason game. The defense was even more dominant. The unit did not allow a point – the Falcons' only score was on a safety. Atlanta rushed for only 64 yards, including 41 on 15 carries by Michael Turner, who ran for 1,340 yards in the regular season. The Giants stopped the Falcons on 10 of 14 third down attempts and all three of their fourth-down conversion tries, including a pair of fourth-and-one quarterback sneaks by Matt Ryan.

2011- GIANTS 37, PACKERS 20

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
January 15, 2012 at Lambeau Field

DIVISIONAL

For the second time in five seasons, the Giants traveled to Wisconsin in January and stunned a higher-seeded Green Bay Packers team. They rode a terrific defensive effort and three Eli Manning touchdown passes to defeat the top-seeded, 15-1, defending Super Bowl Champion Packers, 37-20, an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Lambeau Field. It was the third time the Giants eliminated the defending Super Bowl champions from the playoffs. In 1985, the defeated the 49ers in an NFC Wild Card Game in Giants Stadium, 17-3 and five years later, they beat the Niners in San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game. The defense held a Packers team that had averaged 40.1 points at home to half its average and forced four turnovers. Manning completed 21 of 33 passes for a career postseason-high 330 yards and three touchdowns – 66 and 37 yards to Hakeem Nicks and four yards to Mario Manningham. The 37-yarder to Nicks was a Hail Mary on the final play of the second quarter. Brandon Jacobs scored on a 14-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 31, 23 and 35 yards. The Packers scored on Aaron Rodgers touchdown passes of eight yards to fullback John Kuhn and 16 yards to wide receiver Donald Driver, plus Mason Crosby field goals of 47 and 35 yards.

The Giants again showed they know how to play exciting NFC championship games. More importantly, they know how to win them. Just as they did four years earlier, the Giants advanced to the Super Bowl with a thrilling overtime victory on the road in the conference title game. In rainy and windy Candlestick Park, Lawrence Tynes kicked a 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in the extra period to give the Giants a 20-17 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. The game-winning kick was set up by an overtime takeaway when Devin Thomas recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams. In the fourth quarter, Thomas had recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt, setting up Eli Manning's 17-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham. The officials originally ruled that Williams didn't touch the ball and that Thomas had merely downed it. Tom Coughlin challenged the ruling and after review, referee changed the call to a fumble and a recovery. Manning threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns while setting Giants postseason records with 58 passes and 32 completions. The other touchdown was scored by Bear Pascoe, his first as a professional. Tynes kick another 31-yard field goal. Victor Cruz had 10 receptions for 142 yards, including eight for 125 in the first half. Ahmad Bradshaw totaled 126 yards from scrimmage, including 74 on the ground. Chase Blackburn had a team-high seven tackles (five solo). Jason Pierre-Paul had six tackles (five solo), a half-sack and deflected a pass. The 49ers scored on Alex Smith touchdown passes of 73 and 28 yards to tight end Vernon Davis and David Akers' 25-yard field goal.

Super Bowl XLVI
Feb. 5, 2012

WORLD CHAMPIONS

History happily repeated itself for the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI. Ahmad Bradshaw's scored on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining in the game and the defense withstood one final assault from Tom Brady as the Giants defeated the Patriots, 21-17, in Lucas Oil Stadium. The Giants won their fourth Super Bowl and eighth championship in franchise history in a game that was eerily similar to their victory over the same opponent in Super Bowl XLII four years before. Eli Manning completed his first nine passes and 30 of 40 overall for 296 yards and a touchdown to win his second Pete Rozelle Trophy as the game's Most Valuable Player. He was at his best in the fourth quarter, when he hit 10 of 14 passes for 118 yard, including a pinpoint 38-yarder to Mario Manningham to start the game-winning 88-yard, nine-play masterpiece that was completed in 2:49. In addition to Bradshaw's touchdown, the Giants scored on Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz, Lawrence Tynes field goals of 38 and 33 yards and a safety when Brady was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. New England's points came on Brady touchdown passes of four yards to Danny Woodhead and 12 yards to Aaron Hernandez and Steve Gostkowski's 29-yard field goal.
